Drager House Architecture In Detail:

Drager House Aaron Betsky, 1996-05-16 Each book in this series focuses on a celebrated building chosen for its exceptional character innovative design or technical virtuosity Included is a text by a respected author plus technical drawings photographs and working details Women and the Making of the Modern House Alice T. Friedman, 2006-01-01 Investigates how women patrons of architecture were essential catalysts for innovation in domestic architectural design This book explores the challenges that unconventional attitudes and ways of life presented to architectural thinking and to the architects themselves Franklin D. Israel Todd Gannon, 2025-01-14 This book examines the life and legacy of Franklin D Israel an influential member of the Los Angeles school of architects Acclaimed Los Angeles architect Franklin D Israel 1945 1996 created innovative residential projects and office interiors that made him one of the most talked about designers of his generation In this vivid account architectural historian Todd Gannon draws on archival resources analyses of Israel s buildings and recent interviews with the architect's colleagues clients and contemporaries including Frank Gehry Thom Mayne and Robert A M Stern Gannon traces Israel s development from his early years and career on the East Coast to his formative world travels and residence at the American Academy in Rome The author guides readers through the Los Angeles architectural context Israel s influential teaching at UCLA his dalliance with Hollywood and the personal motivations behind his architecture and design work all aspects of an influential career that was cut short by his death from AIDS related complications at the age of fifty Franklin D Israel is a compelling work of architectural history and biography chronicling one gay man's engagement with the largely heteronormative world of American architectural culture. It explores the achievement of this central figure in the still largely unstudied history of late twentieth century avant garde Los Angeles architecture

The Architecture of Chaco Canyon, New Mexico Stephen H Lekson, 2007-06-13 A fresh volume on the ancient structures of Chaco Canyon built by native peoples between AD 850 and 1130 that unifies older information on the area with new advanced research techniques focusing on studies of technology and building types analyses of architectural change and readings of the built environment aided by over 150 maps floor plans elevations and photos The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Homes through World History James M. Steele, 2009-03-30 The house throughout history in every place in the world has been built to provide shelter from the elements The dwellings that have resulted are as different as the people that have built them the social norms that prevailed at the time and place in which they were built and the natural environment that they adapted to Studying them now in a comprehensive way allows us to understand the social political economic and religious conditions that existed for their inhabitants They are a three dimensional record of culture Twenty four pages of color images along with black and white images through three volumes illustrate the homes of people throughout the world The volumes cover ancient times to the late Middle Ages the Renaissance to the Industrial Revolution and the Post Industrial Revolution to the Present Avery Index to Architectural Periodicals. 2d Ed., Rev. and Enl Avery Library, 1995
