Engaging Luther A New Theological Assessment:

Engaging Luther Olli-Pekka Vainio, 2010-04-26 The Reformer Martin Luther is the source of endless fascination and dispute Not only his antagonists but also his supporters have created a host of representations of his thought On the one hand Catholic and other similar voices have accused Luther of being the major agent in the birth of modern secularism On the other hand Lutherans themselves are divided on the meaning of Reformation In view of all these interpretations and dismissals of Luther and the Lutheran Reformation it requires a certain boldness to claim that Luther's theology is intellectually fascinating and contains exceptional resources This is precisely what the present volume claims The studies collected in this volume aim at showing in which sense Luther remains a fully Catholic and genuinely Augustinian theologian who is not so much a forerunner of problematic modernity as a representative of classical Christianity At the same time Luther's theology contains ideas that can be made fruitful in dialogue with currents like communitarianism or Radical Orthodoxy The volume consists of articles written by scholars affiliated with the project known as the New Finnish Interpretation of Luther The topics include Luther's theological anthropology Trinity christology sacraments faith theology of the cross the Virgin Mary sexuality music and the spiritual reading of the Holy Scriptures Engaging Luther Olli-Pekka Vainio, 2010-04-26 The Reformer Martin Luther is the source of endless fascination and dispute Not only his antagonists but also his supporters have created a host of representations of his thought On the one hand Catholic and other similar voices have accused Luther of being the major agent in the birth of modern secularism On the other hand Lutherans themselves are divided on the meaning of Reformation In view of all these interpretations and dismissals of Luther and the Lutheran Reformation it requires a certain boldness to claim that Luther's theology is intellectually fascinating and contains exceptional resources This is precisely what the present volume claims The studies collected in this volume aim at showing in which sense Luther remains a fully Catholic and genuinely Augustinian theologian who is not so much a forerunner of problematic modernity as a representative of classical Christianity At the same time Luther's theology contains ideas that can be made fruitful in dialogue with currents like communitarianism or Radical Orthodoxy The volume consists of articles written by scholars affiliated with the project known as the New Finnish Interpretation of Luther The topics include Luther's theological anthropology Trinity christology sacraments faith theology of the cross the Virgin Mary sexuality music and the spiritual reading of the Holy Scriptures The Oxford Handbook of Martin Luther's Theology Robert Kolb, Irene Dingel, Lubomír Batka, 2014-04-24 As celebrations of the five hundredth anniversary of Martin Luther's initiation of the most dramatic reform movement in the history of Christianity approach 47 essays by historians and theologians from 15 countries provide insight into the background and context the content and the impact of his way of thought Nineteenth century Chinese educational reformers twentieth century African and Indian social reformers German philosophers and Christians of many traditions on every continent have found in Luther's writings stimulation and provocation for addressing modern

Luther's Theology of Music Miikka E. Anttila,2013-08-29 The sweetness of music is something that has puzzled Christian theologians for centuries In this study Luther s theology of music is approached from the point of view of pleasure It examines the significance of joy beauty and pleasure in relationship with music and Luther s theology The notion of music as the supreme gift of God requires also a discussion about the idea of gift Music opens up new perspectives into Luther s thinking Luther has seldom been reckoned among aesthetic theologians Nevertheless Luther has a peculiar view on beauty understanding faith as a kind of aesthetic contemplation

The Self-Donation of God Jack D. Kilcrease,2013-03-20 In The Self Donation of God Jack Kilcrease argues that the speech act of promise is always an act of self donation A person who unilaterally promises to another is bound to take a particular series of actions to fulfill that promise Being that creation is grounded in God s promising speech the divine human relationship is fundamentally one of divine self donation and human receptivity Sin disrupts this relationship and therefore redemption is constituted by a reassertion of divine promise of salvation in the face of the condemnation of the law Gen 3 15 As a new and effective word of grace the promise of a savior begins the process of redemption within which God speaks forth a new narrative of creation In this new narrative God gives himself in an even deeper manner to humanity By donating himself through a promise first to the protological humanity and then to Israel he binds himself to them At the end of this history of self binding God in Christ enters into the condemnation of the law neutralizes it in the cross and brings about a new creation through his omnipotent word of promise actualized in the resurrection

Galatians and Christian Theology N. T. Wright,Mark W. Elliott,Scott J. Hafemann,John Frederick,2014-09-09 The letter to the Galatians is a key source for Pauline theology as it presents Paul s understanding of justification the gospel and many topics of keen contemporary interest In this volume some of the world's top Christian scholars offer cutting edge scholarship on how Galatians relates to theology and ethics. The stellar list of contributors includes John Barclay, Beverly Gaventa, Richard Hays, Bruce McCormack, and Oliver O'Donovan. As they emphasize the contribution of Galatians to Christian theology and ethics, the contributors explore how exegesis and theology meet, critique, and inform each other.

Calvin and Luther: The Continuing Relationship R. Ward Holder, David M. Whitford, Günter Frank, Ute Lotz-Heumann, Barbara Mahlmann-Bauer, Johannes Schilling, Günther Wassilowsky, Siegrid Westphal, Tarald Rasmussen, Mathijs Lamberigts, Bruce Gordon, 2013-09-18. The reforms begun by Luther and Calvin became two of the largest and most influential movements to arise in the sixteenth century, but frequently these two movements are seen and defined as polar opposites: one's theology is Reformed or Lutheran, one is a member of a Reformed or Lutheran congregation. Historically, these were two very separate movements, but more remains to be understood that can best be analyzed in the context of the other. Just as surely as the historical question of the boundaries between Calvin and Luther or Lutheranism and Calvinism must be answered with a resounding yes, the ongoing doctrinal questions offer a different picture. In the more systematic doctrinal articles, an argument is forwarded that the broad confessional continuity between Luther and Calvin on the soteriological theme of union with Christ offers still unexplored avenues to both deeper understandings of soteriology. Through such articles, we begin to see the possibility of a rapprochement between Calvin and Luther as sources, though not as historical figures. But that insight allows the conversation to extend and bear far greater fruit. Contributors are J. T. Billings, Ch. Helmer, H. P. J. Rgens, S. C. Karant-Nunn, R. Kolb, Th. F. Latini, G. S. Pak, J. Watt, T. J. Wengert, P. Westermeyer, and D. M. Whitford.

Indigenous and Christian Perspectives in Dialogue Allen G. Jorgenson, 2020-12-30. In Indigenous and Christian Perspectives in Dialogue, the author uses the discipline of comparative theology to illumine how Indigenous insights can unearth a fresh theology of place. He proposes that certain places are kairoitic and so kenotic, harmonic, poetic, and especially enlightening at the margins where we meet the religious other.

Called by Triune Grace Jonathan Hogg, 2016-10-31. Reformed theology speaks of the divine act that leads to conversion in terms of the effectual call. In this lucidly written and carefully researched study, Jonathan Hogg provides a constructive treatment of effectual calling, interpreting divine calling to salvation as an act of triune rhetoric in which Father, Son, and Holy Spirit work in a personal way to communicate new life.

Martin Luther's Understanding of Faith and Reality (1513-1521) Ilmari Karimies, 2022-08-03. Ilmari Karimies investigates Martin Luther's understanding of reality and faith. He examines Luther's understanding of reality from three perspectives: firstly, God as the self-giving highest good uniting opposites and hiding beneath them; secondly, the visible and invisible world; and thirdly, human beings as tripartite (body, soul, spirit) and bipartite (flesh, spirit). The author explores the cognitive conflict between these in relation to spirit's grasping of God and the invisible world with reference to Augustinian Platonism. He analyses aspects of faith from the perspective of the theory of divine illumination and shows that Luther represents a realistic Augustinian view. Faith functions as the theological intellect grasping the invisible world and showing human beings the future good in a manner similar to the medieval notion of ecstatic knowledge. It differs from vision in glory because of sin as mixed with humanity and as partial knowledge. Law & Gospel in Action Mark C. Mattes, Mark C. Mattes, John T. Pless, 2019-04-09. Mark Mattes' hope is not only to secure believers' consciences in Christ but also to reclaim theological and social turf which mainline Protestants have too quickly ceded to various secular agendas. The collected essays engage the reality of believers' death and resurrection in Christ and how that bears upon the life of faith while also attending to a wide range of relevant theological topics such as scriptural authority, apologetics, a critique of contemporary mainline Protestant and Evangelical Catholic ethics, a critique of Lutheran Reformed ecumenism, and the church's mission and outreach. The collection concludes with several sermons based on Old Testament lessons seeking to show how the theology embedded in the essays can be used for proclamation. Mission Shaped by Promise Jukka A. Kääriäinen, 2012-10-03. Utilizing resources from Martin Luther and the Lutheran tradition, this study offers an understanding of the gospel as promise as key to addressing the challenge of relating the missio Dei to a generous, constructive approach toward the religious other. In its construction of a Lutheran missiology, it retrieves and reappropriates four resources from the Lutheran tradition: the gospel as promise, the law-gospel distinction, a theology of grace as promise of mercy fulfilled, and a theology of the cross utilizing the hiddenness of God. The law of God as accusing yet webbing humanity to its Creator, the gospel as the comforting promise of mercy, and the hiddenness of God as mystifying form the overarching framework within which the Lutheran missiology presented here seeks to engage the religious other by dialectically relating gospel proclamation and dialogue. Such a view of mission shaped by promise offers the paradox of God being both revealed and hidden in the cross as a distinctive contribution to an interreligious dialogue centered on the ambiguity and hiddenness of God. Prayer, Meditation, and Spiritual Trial Gordon L. Isaac, 2022-10-18. Quite often, theology and spirituality are separated, pursued without reference to the other, a classic example of the disjunction between head and heart. But in Luther, we find a profound theologian exhibiting a profound spirituality, one that still speaks to us today. Luther sets out three rules for doing proper theology: oratio, meditatio, tentatio, or prayer, meditation, and spiritual trial. These three rules, derived from David the psalmist, provide a way for readers to investigate more thoroughly what Luther says about the important practice of theology or life in the Spirit. But they also serve as a simple way for Christians to live a fuller spiritual life. The intention of this book is to help readers enter into the world of Luther, the Augustinian monk and Reformer who prays, meditates, and suffers spiritual trial within the community of faith that extends over the centuries. Ever the teacher and pastor himself, Gordon Isaac invites readers into the reality of living a theology of the cross which helps make sense of our present struggles in this world and shows us how we can live in the love of God as revealed through Jesus Christ. Theology in Service to the Church Allan Hugh Cole Jr., 2014-07-17. As a global religion with growing numbers of expressions, Christianity calls for deepening relationships across traditions while also formulating collaborative visions. A thriving church will require

Christians from various traditions and on varying trajectories to become familiar with one another appreciate one another and work in common service to God in Jesus Christ In this book a group of thirteen distinguished scholars from around the world and representing a range of Orthodox Catholic and Protestant perspectives demonstrate how theological reflection and broad based ecumenical conversations may serve the church Reflecting on numerous salient matters facing the global church these scholars model what may be accomplished in ecumenical conversations that recognize the gifts that come with unity across diversity among those who seek to be faithful to Jesus Christ

The Alternative Luther Else Marie Wiberg Pedersen, 2019-09-18 Contributors to this book analyze areas of Martin Luther's and Lutheran theology that have otherwise been neglected or underrepresented in the five hundred years since the Reformation They constructively widen the scope of Luther and Lutheran theology by viewing both from the perspectives of the subaltern those whose voices are barely or rarely heard The book formulates an inclusive Lutheran theology that reaches out but does not close out The book's sections address Precarious Life from Luther's own precarious existence as an outlaw under a death sentence to other precarious life situations seen from various Lutheran perspectives Body and Gender addressing different aspects of gender and sexuality from new angles Women and Sexual Abuse focusing on present day problems of abuse in an encounter with Luther's exegesis of biblical texts of terror and Economy Equality and Equity addressing Lutheran views on economy and equality that break new ground regarding common goods and the Anthropocene

The Certainty of Salvation in the Theology of Martin Chemnitz Andreas Bergman, 2025-04-14 In his work Andreas Bergman delves into the depths of Martin Chemnitz's theological legacy focusing on the often neglected topic of the certainty of salvation Through meticulous analysis and nuanced interpretation Bergman uncovers the intricate intellectual and affective dimensions of Chemnitz's thought exploring its implications for justification predestination and the broader theological landscape By illuminating the tensions and paradoxes inherent in Chemnitz's theology Bergman challenges readers to reevaluate fundamental assumptions about faith and salvation Accessible yet scholarly this monograph offers a valuable resource for academics clergy and lay readers seeking to deepen their understanding of Lutheran theology and its relevance for contemporary faith practice

Martin Luther's Theology of Beauty Mark C. Mattes, 2017-08-22 Many contemporary theologians seek to retrieve the concept of beauty as a way for people to encounter God This groundbreaking book argues that while Martin Luther's view of beauty has often been ignored or underappreciated it has much to contribute to that quest Mark Mattes one of today's leading Lutheran theologians analyzes Luther's theological aesthetics and discusses its implications for music art and the contemplative life Mattes shows that for Luther the cross is the lens through which the beauty of God is refracted into the world

Lutheran Identity and Political Theology Carl-Henric Grenholm, Goran Gunner, 2015-03-26 Lutheran tradition has in various ways influenced attitudes to work the economy the state education and health care One reason that Lutheran theology has been interpreted in various ways is that it is always influenced by surrounding social and cultural contexts In a society where the church has lost a great deal of its cultural impact and authority and where there is a plurality of religious convictions the question of Lutheran identity has never been more urgent However this question is also raised in the Global South where Lutheran churches need to find their identity in a relationship with several other religions Here this relationship is developed from a minority perspective Is it possible to develop a Lutheran political theology that gives adequate contributions to issues concerning social and economic justice What is the role of women in church and society around the world Is it possible to interpret Lutheran theology in such a way that it includes liberating perspectives These are some of the questions and issues discussed in this book

Therese and Martin Karin Johannesson, 2023-04-24 The Carmelite nun Th r se of the Child Jesus 1873 1897 lived a contemplative monastic life Through her writings she continues to help people who live in completely different contexts to discover that God is always present in the middle of everyday life Like Martin Luther 1483 1546 Th r se clearly distances herself from the idea that we can earn our salvation from God This book begins by highlighting the extensive similarities between Th r se s teaching and Martin Luther s theology With the help of the three Carmelite Doctors of the Church Th r se of the Child Jesus Teresa of Avila 1515 1582 and John of the Cross 1542 1591 the discussion develops further and a receptive ecumenical study is carried out The overall question is how the Carmelite tradition can enrich the Evangelical Lutheran tradition in a way that contributes to the renewal of the church It is argued that such a renewal is of vital importance if people today are to receive the spiritual guidance that they are longing for
