Engaging News Media A Practical Guide For People Of Faith:

Engaging News Media Mark Kelley, 2006-10-25 Long before he left the television news industry Mark Kelley was concerned about the trends he saw developing in the business Commercial pressures exacerbated by the relentless meddling of consultants were making it increasingly difficult for professional news workers to do a competent job of delivering important information to readers listeners and viewers He conceived the notion of writing a book that analyzed all news media connecting it to the quest for truth that drives people of faith and spirituality Engaging News Media explores the state of the news media and their audiences today attempting to examine whether or not truth could be found there and if so how people of faith and people in general might be more successful in extracting it The Publishers Weekly, 2008 American Book Publishing Record, 2006

An Educator's Guide to Living a Virtuous Life | 2nd Edition Sr. John Dominic Rasmussen, OP, 2023-03-03 An Educator's Guide to living a virtuous life aids educators and parents in understanding the importance of living a virtuous life It will assist you in teaching those entrusted to your care The guide answers the following questions why what who and how to educate in virtue The Educator's Guide provides the content needed to educate youth in discipleship and virtue by providing in depth knowledge of the theological and moral virtues as well as the corresponding gifts of the Holy Spirit Educators will help students clearly understand how everyone is called to be a disciple of Christ and that through a personal encounter with Him each of us is gifted with interior happiness and true freedom Faith and Fake News Rachel I. Wightman, 2023-05-30 Share if you love Jesus Scroll past if you follow the devil Most Christians have encountered phony posts on our feeds meant to rile us up But not everything we see on social media is so obviously absurd As online spaces increase in importance we urgently need to consider how to love our neighbors on the internet and this includes sharing the truth Rachel I Wightman has seen this problem firsthand as a librarian with over a decade of experience instructing students in information literacy In Faith and Fake News she shares her expertise with average Christians This timely and essential guide explains the information landscape and its tendency toward thought bubbles discusses techniques for fact checking and evaluating sources and offers suggestions on ways to engage with our neighbors online while bearing witness to Christ and the truth

Handbook of Applied Journalism Leon Barkho, Jairo Alfonso Lugo-Ocando, Sadia Jamil, 2024-02-21 This authoritative handbook looks at the entire news cycle and provides a bridge between the theoretical and academic study of journalism and its actual contemporary practice The book's main merit is that it brings theory and practice together with contributors discussing these issues from different perspectives in a way that scholars students and practitioners can find useful in the study of journalism The handbook is also unique as it undertakes an international scope across regions and cultures both from the West and the Global South while providing an overview which balances the over emphasis on content in most academic approaches to journalism The book is divided into four major parts 1 Conceptual foundations 2 Interlink between journalism as scholarship and journalism as practice 3 Regions and cultures and 4 The practitioner world The first two sections lay down the foundation for section 3 which provides an overview of journalism practice in different regions and cultures Section 4 includes contributions by practitioners in which they attempt to respond to some of the issues raised in preceding sections This handbook will appeal to academics practitioners and professionals alike who are interested in a better understanding of the academic study of journalism and its actual contemporary practice

Models of Evangelism Priscilla Pope-Levison,2020-10-27 Many sincere Christians dismiss evangelism due to enduring evangelistic caricatures This book helps readers move beyond those caricatures to consider thoughtfully and practically how they can engage in evangelism whether it s through one on one conversations social media social justice or the liturgy of worship services At once biblical theological historical and practical this book by a seasoned scholar offers an engaging well researched and well organized presentation and analysis of eight models of evangelism Covering a breadth of approaches from personal evangelism to media evangelism and everything in between Priscilla Pope Levison encourages readers to take a deeper look at evangelism and discover a model that captures their attention Each chapter introduces and assesses a model biblically theologically historically and practically allowing for easy comparison across the board The book also includes end of chapter study questions to further help readers interact with each model Wrestling with Doubt, Finding Faith Leader Guide Rev.
