Preaching as Poetry Paul Scott Wilson, 2014-08-19 It is tempting for preachers in this digital age of plurality and diversity to offer quick sound bites and PowerPoint style presentations These tend to invite a yes or no response as in mathematical equations But if we are to reach Christians across the theological spectrum and invite non Christians to seriously consider our faith we must take a different approach What is needed is greater attention to poetry and images meant to communicate the beauty of the faith and the wonder and mystery of God in everyday life We must communicate the unity of our message of faith the divine as truth and justice and healing as expressions of God Preaching as poetry theopoetic preaching allows for the bold imagery of scripture and the gentle invitation of art Sermons can no longer always be neatly tied up perfectly linear with complete answers to every question In Preaching as Poetry Paul Scott Wilson teaches why this new approach is necessary today and demonstrates with multiple examples how it works in real sermons He skillfully guides the reader to incorporate the classical values of beauty goodness and truth in every sermon and in ways that connect with congregants and listeners today

Crook, 2012-08-09 Die Studie nimmt die bisherige Diskussion der Konversion in der Antike neu auf durch eine Verknüpfung von klassischen epigraphischen und biblischen Quellen mit einer sozialwissenschaftlichen Methodologie Der Autor hinterfragt dabei die bisher vorausgesetzte psychologische Kontinuität zwischen antiken und modernen Menschen und bietet statt dessen ein Modell welches an den Denkvoraussetzungen der Antike selbst gebildet wurde Die griechisch römischen und mediterranen Religionen und Philosophien also auch das hellenistische Judentum und das Christentum orientierten sich an den Modellen von Patronat und Loyalität Das Verständnis der antiken Konversion muss also hier ansetzen In diesem Zusammenhang wird auch die Bekehrung des Paulus neu gedeutet The Significance of Clothing Imagery in the Pauline Corpus Jung Hoon Kim, Ch?ng-hun Kim, 2004-11-30 There are references to clothing throughout Paul's letters and the metaphor constitutes a significant aspect of his theology The imagery appears several times in his letters clothing with Christ Gal 3 27 Rom 13 14 clothing with the new man Col 3 9 10 Eph 4 22 24 and clothing with the resurrection body 1 Cor 15 49 50 54 2Cor 5 1 4 In order to understand the background to this use of the clothing metaphor Jung Hoon Kim examines similar imagery in the Old Testament 1 and 2 Enoch the Apocalypse of Moses Philo rabbinic literature Joseph and Aseneth the Hymn of the Pearl and Apuleius's Metamorphoses He also discusses the Roman custom of clothing and the baptismal praxis of the ancient church Kim concludes that Paul's metaphor suggests the life and glory of the image of God which were lost by Adam have been restored by baptism in Christ and will go on to be consummated at the parousia Jew Among Jews Kimberly Ambrose, 2015-11-17 Misunderstanding of Paul had started already in his lifetime and his letters offer many examples of this Throughout the centuries Paul has continued to be misunderstood by both Jews and Gentiles especially in relation to his view of the law and the covenant Paul has often been misunderstood because his form of argument his use of Scripture his view of Jews and Gentiles in Christ especially of those Jews who were not convinced that Jesus was Messiah and his view of what constitutes true Judaism do not seem to conform to our expectations and perceptions of the apostle We have been accustomed to read his letters as of one who was emancipating people from Judaism as one who sought to obliterate all ethnic and other distinctions rather than maintaining the identity of Jews and Gentiles even in Christ By building on some of the insights of the New Perspective and developing other more recent insights as well a more consistent and credible Paul as a first century Diaspora Jew organizing a mission to Gentiles will be presented The

Sacraments in Biblical Perspective Ronald P. Byars, 2011-09-12 The third volume in the exciting new Interpretation series offers a comprehensive look at the theology of sacraments For many church people worship is about preaching and music Baptism and the Lord's Supper are occasional additions to Sunday services Recognizing that churchgoers are uncertain about the need for sacraments Ronald Byars describes the possibility that the very doing of worship the actions observed the postures assumed the sound and sight of water the smell and taste of bread and wine will subtly alter the temper of the heart and the mind If we encounter the sacraments honestly they lead us to the very heart of the gospel The Ritual World of Paul the Apostle Michael Lakey, 2018-12-27 Michael Lakey explores the theological significance of the rituals of Baptism and the Lord's Supper in Pauline theology with the argument culminating in an analysis of the significance of ritual dining in 1 Corinthians 10:14-22 and the Lord's Supper in 1 Corinthians 11:17-34 By contrast with social world forms of comparison between rituals in the Pauline communities and other communities in antiquity this study focuses primarily upon the theologically integrating function these rituals perform in relation to Paul's theology and ethics Lakey builds upon Clifford Geertz's systemic understanding of religion by showing how for Paul Baptism and the Lord's Supper facilitate specific connections between his metaphysics on the one hand and the form or pattern of life he enjoins upon his churches on the other This volume considers precisely what given his theological and ethical premises Paul's underlying beliefs regarding these ritual events may have been allowing for a preliminary discussion of specific lines of post interpretation in the early patristic period Biblical Worship Through Music Robert Austell, 2009-03-01 Seeking a faithful solution to conflict over musical worship the pastor musician author begins with biblical principles for worship examines historical and contemporary models for worship and evaluates worship practices in one presbytery of the Presbyterian Church U S A to propose guiding principles and specific applications for the use of music in worship The project shows biblical worship to be described by a number of characteristics and grounded in God's Word presence and community After exploring these principles biblically historically and culturally the outcome of the project is a significant collection of music related worship resources for use in the local church and for equipping in broader teaching contexts Paul and His Letters John B. Polhill, 1999 Except for Christ himself no figure has been more influential in the history of Christianity than the apostle Paul And yet his remarkable life remains shrouded in mystery In this probing new book John B Polhill scrapes away the myths about this great man and uncovers the truth of his life and thought Using Acts the Pauline epistles and reliable traditions from non canonical sources Polhill weaves together the remarkable story of Paul's transformation from persecutor to persecuted producing a dynamic account of his entire ministry By placing each of Paul's letters in its proper historical context Polhill brings new light to these foundation stones of the Christian faith He follows Paul from his early years in Tarsus and Jerusalem to his imprisonment and eventual martyrdom painting a detailed comprehensive portrait of Paul that will serve as an indispensable resource for students teachers and pastors alike Truth-Telling and Other Ecclesial Practices of Resistance Christine

Helmer,2021-05-25 In this book leading American Lutheran theologians inspired by the Scandinavian emphasis on theology as embodied practice ask how Christian communities might be mobilized for resistance against systemic injustices They argue that the challenges we confront today as citizens of the United States as a species in relation to all the other species on the planet and as members of the body of Christ require an imaginative reconceptualization of the inherited tradition The driving force of each chapter is the commitment to truth telling in naming the church s complicity with social and political evils and to reorienting the church to the truth of grace that Christianity was created to communicate Contributors ask how ecclesial resources may be generatively repurposed for the church in the world today for church building grounded in Christ and for empowering the church s witness for justice The authors take up the theme of resistance in both theoretical and pragmatic terms on the one hand rethinking doctrine on the other reconceiving lived religion and pastoral care in light of the necessary urgencies of the time and bearing witness to the God whose truth includes both justice and hope The Invitation Richard R. Osmer,2021-10-12 Moving beyond conversionism Many Christians today are uncomfortable with older simpler notions about evangelism as conversionism but see as insufficient the more progressive model of evangelism as hospitality Transcending that dichotomy Richard Osmer advances a theology of evangelism as a multifaceted act of invitation into Christ following community Osmer begins by exploring references to evangelism in the New Testament both in the Gospels and in the letters of Paul He then enters into dialogue with Karl Barth to work through ideas of church witness and the relationship of evangelism to salvation Finally with lucid explanations and illustrative case studies he offers guidance for pastors laity and students to use as they reimagine how evangelism might best happen in their churches and missional organizations Osmer s approach mirrors the conviction stated in his introduction that our concept of evangelism must be formed and constantly reformed by keeping the Bible church doctrine and practical theology in conversation Foundational to Osmer s rendering of evangelism as invitation is the essential truth that it is Christ and the Holy Spirit who calls converts and makes disciples not Christians Thus we can invite our neighbors to the wedding feast while remaining reassured that the table is already set
