Futurism and the Technological Imagination Günter Berghaus, 2009 This volume Futurism and the Technological Imagination results from a conference of the International Society for the Study of European Ideas in Helsinki It contains a number of re-written conference contributions as well as several specially commissioned essays that address various aspects of the Futurists relationship to technology both on an ideological level and with regard to their artistic languages In the early twentieth century many art movements vied with each other to overhaul the aesthetic and ideological foundations of arts and literature and to make them suitable vehicles of expression in the new Era of the Machine Some of the most remarkable examples came from the Futurist movement founded in 1909 by Filippo Tommaso Marinetti By addressing the full spectrum of Futurist attitudes to science and the machine world this collection of 14 essays offers a multifaceted account of the complex and often contradictory features of the Futurist technological imagination The volume will appeal to anybody interested in the history of modern culture art and literature

"Art, Piety and Destruction in the Christian West, 1500-1700" Virginia Chieffo Raguin, 2017-07-05 Spanning two centuries and two continents Art Piety and Destruction in the Christian West 1500 1700 addresses the impact of religious tensions on art design and architecture in the early modern world Beyond famous works of art such as Kraft's Eucharistic Tabernacle the volume examines less studied objects including church plate and vestments stained glass graffiti and Mexican images of St Anne created throughout the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries The collection's contributors present religious artworks from Germany England Italy France Spain and Mexico the media include sculpture oil painting fresco metalwork dress and architecture Questions of art's destruction preservation and censorship are discussed against the ever present backdrop of religious conflict and varying degrees of tolerance New information and original perspectives demonstrate the ways in which art illuminates history and the close links between the changing values of a society and the images it displays to represent itself

Looking Into the Rain Barbara Baert, 2022-02-07 Humankind has a special relationship with rain The sensory experience of water falling from the heavens evokes feelings ranging from fear to gratitude and has inspired many works of art Using unique and expertly developed art historical case studies from prehistoric cave paintings up to photography and cinema this book casts new light on a theme that is both ecological and iconological both natural and cultural historical Barbara Baert's distinctive prose makes Looking Into the Rain Magic Moisture Medium a profound reading experience particularly at a moment when disruptions of the harmony among humans animals and nature affect all of us and the entire planet Barbara Baert is Professor of Art History at KU Leuven She teaches in the field of Iconology Art Theory Analysis and Medieval Art Her work links knowledge and questions from the history of ideas cultural anthropology and philosophy and shows great sensitivity to cultural archetypes and their symptoms in the visual arts
