Damaged Identities, Narrative Repair Hilde Lindemann, 2001 The nature of identity especially of groups such as Gypsies mothers nurses and transsexuals is explored by comparing the stories these groups express of themselves against the narratives written about them Feminist Academic Press Hilde Lindemann Nelson focuses on the stories of groups of people including Gypsies mothers nurses and transsexuals whose identities have been defined by those with the power to speak for them and to constrain the scope of their actions By placing their stories side by side with narratives about the groups in question Nelson arrives at some important insights regarding the nature of identity She regards personal identity as consisting not only of how people view themselves but also of how others view them These perceptions combine to shape the person's field of action If a dominant group constructs the identities of certain people through socially shared narratives that mark them as morally subnormal those who bear the damaged identity cannot exercise their moral agency freely Nelson identifies two kinds of damage inflicted on identities by abusive group relations one kind deprives individuals of important social goods and the other deprives them of self respect To intervene in the production of either kind of damage Nelson develops the counterstory a strategy of resistance that allows the identity to be narratively repaired and so restores the person to full membership in the social and moral community By attending to the power dynamics that constrict agency Damaged Identities Narrative Repair augments the narrative approaches of ethicists such as Alasdair MacIntyre Martha Nussbaum Richard Rorty and Charles Taylor

Feminist Interpretations of Ludwig Wittgenstein Naomi Scheman, Peg O'Connor, 2010-11-01 The original essays in this volume while written from diverse perspectives share the common aim of building a constructive dialogue between two currents in philosophy that seem not readily allied Wittgenstein who urges us to bring our words back home to their ordinary uses recognizing that it is our agreements in judgments and forms of life that ground intelligibility and feminist theory whose task is to articulate a radical critique of what we say to disrupt precisely those taken for granted agreements in judgments and forms of life Wittgenstein and feminist theorists are alike however in being unwilling or unable to make sense in the terms of the traditions from which they come needing to rely on other means including telling stories about everyday life to change our ideas of what sense is and of what it is to make it For both appeal to grounding is problematic but the presumed groundedness of particular judgments remains an unavoidable feature of discourse and as such in need of understanding For feminist theory Wittgenstein suggests responses to the immobilizing tugs between modernist modes of theorizing and postmodern challenges to them For Wittgenstein feminist theory suggests responses to those who would turn him into the normal philosopher he dreaded becoming one who offers perhaps unorthodox solutions to recognizable philosophical problems In addition to an introductory essay by Naomi Scheman the volume's twenty chapters are grouped in sections titled The Subject of Philosophy and the Philosophical Subject Wittgensteinian Feminist Philosophy Contrasting Visions Drawing Boundaries Categories and Kinds Being Human Agents and Subjects and Feminism's

Allies New Players New Games These essays give us ways of understanding Wittgenstein and feminist theory that make the alliance a mutually fruitful one even as they bring to their readings of Wittgenstein an explicitly historical and political perspective that is at best implicit in his work The recent salutary turn in analytic philosophy toward taking history seriously has shown how the apparently timeless problems of supposedly generic subjects arose out of historically specific circumstances These essays shed light on the task of feminist theorists along with postcolonial queer and critical race theorists to in Wittgenstein s words rotate the axis of our examination around whatever real need s might emerge through the struggles of modernity s Others Contributors besides the editors are Nancy E Baker Nalini Bhushan Jane Braaten Judith Bradford Sandra W Churchill Daniel Cohen Tim Craker Alice Crary Susan Hekman Cressida J Heyes Sarah Lucia Hoagland Christine M Koggel Bruce Krajewski Wendy Lynne Lee Hilda Lindemann Nelson Deborah Orr Rupert Read Phyllis Rooney and Janet Farrell Smith     The Blackwell Guide to Feminist Philosophy Eva Feder Kittay,Linda Martín Alcoff,2008-04-30 The Blackwell Guide to Feminist Philosophy is a definitive introduction to the field consisting of 15 newly contributed essays that apply philosophical methods and approaches to feminist concerns Offers a key view of the project of centering women s experience Includes topics such as feminism and pragmatism lesbian philosophy feminist epistemology and women in the history of philosophy     Re-Authoring the World Chene Swart,2013-12-06 Reauthoring the World invites readers to a transformational way of being in the world It translates the Narrative Therapy approach and practices for people outside the therapeutic context that are interested in shifting the stories of their own lives as well as the communities and organisations that they work in     Stories Matter Rita Charon,Martha Montello,2004-04-16 First published in 2002 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company     International Philosophical Quarterly ,2002     Medical Humanities Review ,1998     The Renewal of Generosity Arthur W. Frank,2009-11-19 Contemporary health care often lacks generosity of spirit even when treatment is most efficient Too many patients are left unhappy with how they are treated and too many medical professionals feel estranged from the calling that drew them to medicine Arthur W Frank tells the stories of ill people doctors and nurses who are restoring generosity to medicine generosity toward others and to themselves The Renewal of Generosity evokes medicine as the face to face encounter that comes before and after diagnostics pharmaceuticals and surgeries Frank calls upon the Roman emperor Marcus Aurelius philosopher Emmanuel Levinas and literary critic Mikhail Bakhtin to reflect on stories of ill people doctors and nurses who transform demoralized medicine into caring relationships He presents their stories as a source of consolation for both ill and professional alike and as an impetus to changing medical systems Frank shows how generosity is being renewed through dialogue that is more than the exchange of information Dialogue is an ethic and an ideal for people on both sides of the medical encounter who want to offer more to those they meet and who want their own lives enriched in the process The Renewal of Generosity views illness and medical work with grace and compassion making an invaluable contribution to expanding our vision of suffering and healing
