GAP

Once, I asked if I could go to a party on Saturday night which finished at 11:30 p.m. Conservative as they were, my parents agreed, but on the condition that my dad came to pick me up at 10 p.m. I argued and argued about it but in the end, I had to agree. I knew I was going to be really embarrassed when my father came to pick me up, so I spent the whole party worrying. I didn't speak to my parents for three days after that.

My mother tried to explain how they both felt, but I didn't want to listen. It was then that I decided to break the rules they had set down. So instead of coming home at 10 p.m., I would arrive at 11 p.m. and then refuse to tell them where I had been. I somehow felt that if I broke their rules, they would realise that I was old enough to look after myself, and leave me alone. However, the arguments got worse and worse, and the more they tried to keep me in the house, the more dog-headed I got and the more I sneaked out.

Finally, one Saturday night I didn't come home till 2 a.m. My father wanted to know why I was so late. I refused to tell him. We had a huge argument which ended with me getting a taxi to my sister's house.
