Gibbon Conservation in the Anthropocene Susan M. Cheyne,Carolyn Thompson,Peng-Fei Fan,Helen J. Chatterjee,2023-04-20 This volume brings together current research and practice on gibbon conservation ecology taxonomy and phylogenetics Best practice guidelines for the rehabilitation and translocation of gibbons International Union for the Conservation of Nature and Natural Resources (IUCN),Clare O. Campbell,Susan M. Cheyne,Benjamin M. Rawson,2015-05-28 Rehabilitation and translocation programmes are increasingly becoming an important component of conservation action plans for threatened species Translocation can help address gibbon conservation issues gibbons are recognized as one of the most threatened primate families globally by allowing gibbons held in captivity to be rescued rehabilitated and then returned to the wild These guidelines for the translocation of gibbons have been developed in collaboration with stakeholders in

hylobatid conservation This process was initiated during a workshop on gibbon rehabilitation reintroduction and translocation facilitated by the IUCN SSC PSG Section on Small Apes SSA and the result of this process is the current document which is based on shared knowledge and experience to date The guidelines are designed to be a practical and useful document available for all stakeholders with the aim of equipping field projects and decision makers with the tools for scientifically sound practice in gibbon rehabilitation and translocation

Humans and Animals Julie Urbanik, Connie L. Johnston, 2017-01-26 An engaging and at times sobering look at the coexistence of humans and animals in the 21st century and how their sometimes disparate needs affect environments politics economies and culture worldwide There is an urgent need to understand human animal interactions and relations as we become increasingly aware of our devastating impact on the natural resources needed for the survival of all animal species This timely reference explores such topics as climate change and biodiversity the impact of animal domestication and industrial farming on local and global ecosystems and the impact of human consumption of wild species for food entertainment medicine and social status This volume also explores the role of pets in our lives advocacy movements on behalf of animals and the role of animals in art and media culture Authors Julie Urbanik and Connie L Johnston introduce the concept of animal geography present different aspects of human animal relationships worldwide and highlight the importance of examining these interconnections Alphabetical entries illustrate key relationships concepts practices and animal species The book concludes with a comprehensive appendix of select excerpts from key primary source documents relating to animals and a glossary

Building Networks for Critical and Altruistic Science Education John Lawrence Bencze, 2025-05-22 This edited volume provides theory based accounts often with practical examples of how educators from various jurisdictions in elementary secondary and tertiary formal education contexts as well as community based situations have helped students critically evaluate the relationships among science technology STEM society and the environment The goal is to develop and implement personal and sociopolitical actions to address concerns Collectively the perspectives and examples in the chapters form an expanding Foucauldian dispositif countering hegemonic mechanisms that favor a few elites at the expense of the wellbeing of most other living and nonliving things Many accounts draw on the STEPWISE project illustrating how a biotic and symbolic actants have been progressively assembled to promote more critical and altruistic citizenship

Governance and Political Adaptation in Fragile States John Idriss Lahai, Karin von Strokirch, Howard Brasted, Helen Ware, 2018-07-21 The book examines the various ways that fragile states or states with limited statehood in Africa Asia the Pacific and the Americas have adopted and adapted to the processes of liberal political governance in their quests to address the problem of political fragility It presents the stories of resilience in the political adaptation to Western liberal conceptions of governance In addition to singular or comparative country case studies this project also examines the interplay of culture identities and politics in the creation of people centric governance reforms Towards these ends this volume sheds light on weak states often constructive engagement in the promotion of state governance with a variety of political conditions adverse or otherwise and their ability to remain resilient despite the complex political sociocultural and economic challenges affecting them Through a multidisciplinary approach the authors aim to counter the noticeable shortcomings in the discursive representations of fragility and to contribute a more balanced examination of the narratives about and impact of political adaption and governance in people s lives and experiences

An IUCN situation analysis of terrestrial and freshwater fauna in West and Central Africa ,2015-06-01 This situation analysis was undertaken to inform responses to several resolutions made at the 5th World Conservation Congress in 2012 about the plight of large vertebrates in West and Central Africa It draws on a wide range of information to provide information on the status of these species important sites pressures legislation the effectiveness of protected areas and both community based incentives for conservation and institutional responses The overriding conclusion is of substantial wildlife declines and inadequate responses to either long standing pressures or rapidly escalating threats that have emerged in recent years

Problematic Wildlife Francesco M. Angelici, 2015-12-18 This book provides insight into the instances in which wildlife species can create problems Some species trigger problems for human activities but many others need humans to save them and to continue to exist The text addresses issues faced by economists and politicians dealing with laws involving actions undertaken to resolve the problems of the interaction between humans and wildlife Here the words problematic species are used in their broadest sense as may be appreciated in the short introductions to the various sections At times the authors discuss special cases while always extending the discussion into a more general and broad vision At others they present real cutting edge analysis of ecological topics and issues The book will be of interest to biologists ecologists and wildlife managers involved in research on wildlife parks and environmental management as well as to government departments and agencies NGOs and conservation wildlife organizations Even those in contact with nature such as hunters herders and farmers will be able to find a great deal of important information Specific case studies are selected from among the most significant and prevalent cases throughout the world A total of 26 papers have been selected for this book written by zoologists biologists and ecologists Many have an interdisciplinary approach with contributions by economists criminologists technical specialists and engineers

World Atlas of Great Apes and Their Conservation Julian Oliver Caldecott, Lera Miles, 2005 This comprehensive and authoritative review of the distribution and conservation status of Great Apes includes individual country profiles for each species and overview chapters on ape biology ecology and conservation challenges
