The Life of Catalina de Erauso, the Lieutenant Nun Sonia Pérez-Villanueva, 2014-01-14 The Life of Catalina de Erauso the Lieutenant Nun An Early Modern Autobiography examines Vida y sucesos de la Monja Alf rez as a form of autobiography through a comparative study with early modern secular life narratives the picaresque novels La vida de Lazarillo de Tormes y de sus fortunas y adversidades anonymous La p cara Justina by Francisco Lopez de beda the chronicle Relaci n que dio Alvar N ez Cabeza de Vaca de lo acaescido en las Indias en la armada donde yva por governador P nfilo de Narv ez desde el a o de veynte y siete hasta el a o de treinta y seis que bolvi a Sevilla con tres de su compa a by Cabeza de Vaca and the soldier's narrative Vida nacimiento padres y crianza del Capit n Alonso de Contreras natural de Madrid Cavallero del orden de San Juan Comendador de una de sus encomiendas en Castilla escrita por el mismo by Alonso de Contreras Two questions are addressed How is Vida y sucesos similar to or different from picaresque novels chronicles of the New World and soldiers narratives How are the similarities and differences between Vida y sucesos and these forms of writing related to theoretical parameters for an autobiography In order to conduct this comparative analysis four theoretical parameters are established for assessing autobiographical texts These parameters coincidence of narrator and protagonist historical referentiality whether the subjective narration has a plausible basis in the experience and belief structure of the narrator and the intention of the narrator to tell an autobiographical truth are based upon the critical approach of hybridity and intersubjectivity but also draw upon related theoretical work This book argues that Vida y sucesos should be considered as a form of autobiography with the understanding that autobiography is an intersubjective and hybrid form or a forma fronteriza

Comics and Migration Ralf Kauranen, Olli Löytty, Aura Nikkilä, Anna Vuorinne, 2023-03-31 Comics and human mobility have a long history of connections. This volume explores these entanglements with a focus on both how comics represent migration and what applied uses comics have in relation to migration. The volume examines both individual works of comic art and examples of practical applications of comics from across the world. Comics are well suited to create understanding, highlight truthful information, and engender empathy in their audiences, but are also an art form that is preconditioned or even limited by its representational and practical conventions. Through analyses of various practices and representations, this book questions the uncritical belief in the capacity of comics, assesses their potential to represent stories of exile and immigration with compassion, and discusses how xenophobia and nationalism are both reinforced and questioned in comics. The book includes essays by both researchers and practitioners such as activists and journalists whose work has combined a focus on comics and migration. It predominantly scrutinises comics and activities from more peripheral areas such as the Nordic region, the German language countries, Latin America, and southern Asia to analyse the treatment and visual representation of migration in these regions. This topical and engaging volume in the Global Perspectives in Comics Studies series will be of interest to researchers and students of comics studies, literary studies, visual art studies, cultural studies, migration, and sociology. It will also be useful reading for a wider academic audience interested in discourses around global migration and comics traditions.
