Coming Back Home Selected Articles Editorials And Interviews:

Love and Revolution in the Twentieth-Century Colonial and Postcolonial World G. Arunima, Patricia Hayes, Premesh Lalu, 2021-10-27 This book addresses emancipatory narratives from two main sites in the colonial world the Indian and southern African subcontinents Exploring how love and revolution interrelate this volume is unique in drawing on theories of affect to interrogate histories of the political thus linking love and revolution together The chapters engage with the affinities of those who live with their colonial pasts crises of expectations colonial national convulsions memories of anti colonial solidarity even shared radical libraries It calls attention to the specific and singular way in which notions of love of the world were born in a precise moment of anti colonial struggle a love of the world for which one would offer one's life and for which there had been little precedent in the history of earlier revolutions It thus offers new ways of understanding the shifts in global traditions of emancipation over two centuries

Progressive Librarianship Durrani, Shiraz, 2016-11-25 Public spending is under threat and public libraries are suffering At a time when libraries can play a critical role in supporting people facing difficult economic and social situations the dominant conservative model of librarianship has nothing meaningful to say about the role and relevance of libraries It offers more of the same but no qualitative change so necessary today It continues to maintain the myth that there is no alternative to its own policies and practices There is thus an urgent need to alternative ideas and practices to address people's needs The progressive librarianship movement is taking up this challenge It has also been active in Kenya and Britain but its work is not widely known The Kenyan movement differed from the others in that it grew within the underground political movement in the 1980s the December Twelve Movement Mwakenya Using original documents this book records this hidden history In the process it examines key concepts such as the role of libraries and the relevance of service Linking library work with the wider social and political concerns the book explores issues such as politics of information the role of activism and neutrality in library work It offers an alternative approach to librarianship to the training of librarians and to organisational change to make libraries more relevant to people's lives

State of Subversion Virinder S. Kalra, Shalini Sharma, 2023-05-31 This volume looks at the interface between ideology religion and culture in Punjab in the 20th century spanning from colonial to post colonial times Through a rereading of the history of Punjab and of Punjabi migrant networks the world over it interrogates the term radicalism and its relationship with terms such as militancy terrorism and extremism in the context of Punjab and elsewhere during the period explores the relationship between left and religious radicalism such as the Ghadar movement and the Akalis and the continuing role of radical movements from British Punjab to the independent states of India and Pakistan Expanding the dimensions on the study of Punjab and its historical impact in the South Asian region this book will interest scholars and students of modern Indian history politics and sociology

Pakistan Pippa Virdee, 2021-11-25 What is Pakistan The name refers to a seventy year old post colonial product of the bloodiest partition of territory and population that accompanied the end of British empire in South Asia But the region of the Indus Valley has a four thousand year old history and was the site of one of the earliest and greatest riverine civilisations in the world Although the modern nation of Pakistan as we know it was created as a homeland for the Muslims of British India it is impossible to understand the complex tapestry of linguistic ethnic and cultural identities and tensions of the region without tracing its deep past This Very Short Introduction looks at Pakistan as one of the two nation states of the Indian sub continent that emerged in 1947 Pippa Virdee reaches into the ancient past to demonstrate the influence of trajectories of human settlement and civilisation on Pakistan s contemporary political arena and shows how the longer continuities between the land and its peoples are as important as the short term changes in the political landscape She considers Pakistan s religion and society the state and the military everyday life popular culture languages and literature as well as Pakistan s relationship with the rest of the world Virdee also looks to the challenges of the 21st century and the future of Pakistan Very Short Introductions Brilliant Sharp Inspiring ABOUT THE SERIES The Very Short Introductions series from Oxford University Press contains hundreds of titles in almost every subject area These pocket sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly Our expert authors combine facts analysis perspective new ideas and enthusiasm to make interesting and challenging topics highly readable
