Prayer-treating the Wounds of Abortion and Miscarriage Anthony O. Akerele, 2016-01-22 Prayer treating the wounds of Abortion and Miscarriage Prayer is an intense act of worship The enemy of the soul of man will almost always lay the foundation of an attack long before the attack Only the Master Strategist Jesus Christ can beat him This prayer program x ray the root of abortion and targets the power base of the enemy sponsoring abortion and miscarriage The result is healing and restoration by the power of the Holy Ghost Command the Month @ the Midnight Gate Anthony O.

Akerele, 2014-01-03 Every month is peculiar and unique So is the gate of every month a midnight gate by western calendar system The name of the month numerical position and ordinal character in the calendar system are very important in advanced spiritual warfare My times are in your hands O Lord Employ these qualities and characteristics to speak by apostolic decrees to every month and the month shall yield you your portion Every month of the western world calendar has spiritual characteristics pointing to a definitely idolatrous background and origin This is not without consequence when it comes to the battle for the control of time Some spiritual powers are struggling to be in control of your time They pretend they have the time dedicated to themselves and can only release it for the use of man in exchange for worship Command the Month The Midnight Gate gives you the spiritual tools to take back the control and administration of time that the adversary has arrogated to himself Shall we war Command the Year and January @ the Midnight gate Anthony O.

Years in the Karen Revolution in Burma Ralph, Sheera, 2020-02-15 Fifty Years in the Karen Revolution in Burma is about commitment to an ideal individual survival and the universality of the human experience A memoir of two tenacious souls it sheds light on why Burma Myanmar s decades long pursuit for a peaceful and democratic future has been elusive Simply put the aspirations of Burma's ethnic nationalities for self-determination within a genuine federal union runs counter to the idea of a unitary state orchestrated and run by the dominant majority Burmans or Bamar. This seemingly intractable dilemma of opposing visions for Burma is personified in the story of Saw Ralph and Naw Sheera, two prominent ethnic Karen leaders who lived and eventually left the Longest War, leaving the reader with insights on the cultural, social and political challenges facing other non-Burman ethnic nationalities. Fifty Years in the Karen Revolution in Burma is also about the ordinariness and universality of the challenges increasingly faced by diaspora communities around the world today. Saw Ralph and Naw Sheera's day-to-day lives, how they fell in love, married, had children while trying to survive in a precarious war zone, and how they had to adapt to their new lives as refugees and immigrants in Australia will resound with many.

In Search of Green China Ma Tianjie, 2025-02-13 The world cannot address its pressing environmental problems without China. But can China be relied upon as a steadfast steward of nature as its leaders have claimed in recent years? Prominent environmental campaigner and reporter Ma Tianjie gets to the heart of China's remarkable ecological transformation to answer this question. He takes us on a journey through the country's thirty-year struggle to clean up its rivers, clear its air, and stabilize carbon emissions, drawing out the complex political impulses that have helped and hindered progress. Anchoring his storytelling in some of China's major environmental challenges, from Beijing's airpocalypse to the cancer villages of the Huai River basin, he shows how the ideas and actions of a few extraordinary individuals were critical in changing China from a heavily polluted country to a place where environmental issues are high on the agenda. The complex ecological tapestry Ma paints illuminates the key ideas, experiences, and influences that have shaped China's environmental consciousness and will continue to frame the search for green China well into the twenty-first century.

There was something unique about Australians and New Zealanders in war that prompted World War II Allied commanders to turn to ANZAC soldiers, sailors, and airmen to carry out the most dangerous and virtually impossible missions behind enemy lines. Paddling canoes 4,000 kilometres to attack enemy ships in Singapore, lightning raids on Rommel's forces in the deserts of North Africa, flying bombers at tree-top level deep into Nazi Germany to destroy vital targets, rescuing sultans and future US presidents from under the noses of the Japanese, and playing crucial roles in the greatest commando raid of the war at St Nazaire: the Aussies and Kiwis were there. The special forces showed incredible bravery in the face of overwhelming odds. They were determined to complete their missions, often alone and far behind enemy lines. They demonstrated resourcefulness, spirit, and a humanity that inspired others to follow them. Frank Walker
