Qur'an followed by Islam's approach to the ever present role of God in the daily life of Muslims which also affects the lives of non-Muslims. The study also sheds light on the essential contents of the Qur'an. The study highlights in particular Islamic teachings encompassing in particular aspects of morality addressed to individuals, societies and nations about how to carry themselves and how to control their desires and appetites as well as how to interact with the diverse sea of humanity around them. The study is of particular interest to readers who are looking for specific Islamic teachings that may be similar to or different from Judeo-Christian teachings or which these latter two faiths did not broach. It should also lead to better understanding of the three monotheistic religions in terms of what's fact, what's faith and what's myth. All three of them carry solid positive messages that are helpful to humans in this life. Children's Books in Print, 2007, 2006 Weekly World News, 1996-10-29.
