Commercial Script For Kids:

World War II for Kids Richard Panchyk, 2005-11-01 Now more than ever kids want to know about our country's great struggles during World War II. This book is packed with information that kids will find fascinating from Hitler's rise to power in 1933 to the surrender of the Japanese in 1945. Much more than an ordinary history book, it is filled with excerpts from actual wartime letters written to and by American and German troops, personal anecdotes from people who lived through the war in the United States, Germany, Britain, Russia, Hungary, and Japan, and gripping stories from Holocaust survivors. All add a humanizing global perspective to the war. This collection of 21 activities shows kids how it felt to live through this monumental period in history. They will play a rationing game or try the butter extender recipe to understand the everyday sacrifices made by wartime families. They will try their hands at military strategy in coastal defense, break a code, and play a latitude and longitude tracking game. Whether growing a victory garden or staging an adventure radio program, kids will appreciate the hardships and joys experienced on the home front.

Raising a Star Nancy Carson, Jacqueline Shannon, 2013-07-30 So your child wants to be a star. But what does it really take? Money. Looks. Tons of time. Not necessarily. Nancy Carson, a children's agent who has worked in the industry for more than twenty-five years and has guided the careers of such celebrities as Britney Spears, Mischa Barton, and even a young Cynthia Nixon, dishes the facts on what it takes to break your child into the entertainment industry. The first parents' guide to getting kids into the business, written by one of the industry's top children's agents, Raising a Star is a complete step-by-step guide that will help parents navigate the murky waters of show business. From how to find the right representative to what producers and directors are really looking for in children today, Nancy Carson offers practical advice and anecdotes culled from her years of experience. Raising a Star is the most candid and informative guide for parents who want to help make their child a star.

Kids' Acting for Brain Surgeons Hollywood OS, 2007-07 Readers will read about the basic tools they will need to get their kids started in the entertainment industry: a bunch of tips and tricks along the way and find out how a so-called talent agency scams unsuspecting families out of thousands of dollars. Get informed so you don't get ripped off. This second edition is completely revised and loaded with useful advice to help parents and children navigate their way through the entertainment industry. Just a few of the subjects covered in this book: getting professional photos on a budget, creating a resume even if you have no credits, marketing your children effectively, audition do's and don'ts, practice scenes and monologues, complete listings of casting companies and talent agencies working with kids, direct advice from agents, stage moms, and a working child actor, and a reference section of pay rates, financial advice, industry terms, studio addresses, and industry phone numbers and Internet links.
