Communicating Your Vision Communicating Your Vision:

Communicating Your Vision Talula Cartwright, David Baldwin, 2006-03-01 One part of your job as a leader is to create commitment to your organization's vision. In order to do this you have to communicate the vision effectively. In this guidebook we suggest many ways to communicate a vision. We also discuss how to deal with a resistant audience and what to do in the event that you yourself are resistant. You'll learn how to communicate a vision to others in ways that will help them understand it, remember it, and then go on to share it themselves.

Creating a Vision Center for Creative Leadership (CCL), Corey Criswell, Talula Cartwright, 2011-07-26 If you want to be an effective leader at any level you should pay attention to vision. Leaders who communicate a strong vision are seen by their bosses and coworkers as more effective in several important areas than those who do not. The content of your vision affects employees' perception of your organization. Your articulation of the vision affects their perception of your leadership effectiveness. Taken together, vision content and vision articulation give your employees, colleagues, and other stakeholders a powerful image of how good your organization is, how skilled you are as a leader.
