Coming Home Community Creativity And Consciousness:

Coming Home Cheryl Charles, Bob Samples, 2004 In a time of uncommon change and isolation this book focuses on how to create environments where more individuals can feel cherished productive and fulfilled Strategies are suggested for tapping into one's creative potential and putting that talent to work resulting in greater health and balance in family business school social and civic settings Topics addressed include the power of words metaphor natural guides to community building learning styles intercultural learning core personalities and ways to reduce stress and prejudice Moonrise Nina Simons, 2010-08-13 Explores the flourishing passionate forms of leadership emerging from women on behalf of the earth and community Contains more than 30 essays from successful women leaders including writers Alice Walker and Eve Ensler psychiatrist Jean Shinoda Bolen holistic doctor Rachel Naomi Remen hip hop performer Rha Goddess and famous tree sitter Julia Butterfly Hill From Bioneers president and cofounder Nina Simons Many today find themselves being called toward greater leadership on behalf of the Earth toward leadership sourced from their inner authority and inspired by what they love and are dedicated to protect transform and strengthen Those successfully heeding this call have embraced the qualities previously relegated to the feminine inner awareness collaboration relational intelligence respect for the sacred and generosity and married them to the best of their masculine attributes to create a new form of leadership more inspiring inviting and effective for transforming how we live on Earth and with each other This anthology presents more than 30 essays from eminent women trailblazers such as author Alice Walker psychiatrist Jean Shinoda Bolen playwright Eve Ensler holistic doctor Rachel Naomi Remen biologist Janine Benyus hip hop performer Rha Goddess and famous tree sitter Julia Butterfly Hill as well as lesser known but equally influential leaders such as social entrepreneur Judy Wicks philanthropic activist Kathy LeMay food justice advocate LaDonna Redmond and media educator Sofia Quintero Their narratives explore how they cultivated their leadership impulses and their feminine strengths reinventing leadership to prioritize community collaboration the environment and the common good Illuminating a path to progressive environmental and social change their passionate stories of joyful creative collaborative and sacred leadership ignite within each reader the power to help cocreate a healthy peaceful just and sustainable world The Palgrave International Handbook of Women and Outdoor Learning Tonia Gray, Denise Mitten, 2018-05-12 This Handbook serves as a starting point for critical analysis and discourse about the status of women in outdoor learning environments OLEs Women choose to participate actively in outdoors careers many believing the profession is a level playing field and that it offers alternatives to traditional sporting activities They enter outdoor learning primarily on the strength of their enthusiasm for leading and teaching in natural environments and assume the field is inclusive rewarding excellence regardless of age gender socioeconomic status disability or ethnicity However both research and collective experiences in OLEs suggest that many women feel invisible relegated marginalized and undervalued In response to this marginalization this Handbook celebrates the richness of knowledge and practices of women practitioners in OLEs Women scholars and practitioners from numerous fields such as experiential outdoor education adventure education adventure therapy and gender studies explore the implications of their research and practice using poignant examples within their own disciplines These insights emerge from similar life experiences as women and outdoor leaders in the 1970s to the present Social inequalities still abound in OLEs and the Handbook ensures that the contributions of women are highlighted as well as the work that needs to be done to make these spaces inclusive Global in perspective and capacious in content this one stop volume is an indispensable reference resource for a diverse range of academics including students and researchers in the fields of education psychology sociology gender studies geography and environment studies as well as the many outdoors fields

The Nature Principle Richard Louv, 2012-04-24 For many of us thinking about the future conjures up images of Cormac McCarthy's The Road a post apocalyptic dystopia stripped of nature Richard Louv author of the landmark bestseller Last Child in the Woods urges us to change our vision of the future suggesting that if we reconceive environmentalism and sustainability they will evolve into a larger movement that will touch every part of society This New Nature Movement taps into the restorative powers of the natural world to boost mental acuity and creativity promote health and wellness build smarter and more sustainable businesses communities and economies and ultimately strengthen human bonds Supported by groundbreaking research anecdotal evidence and compelling personal stories Louv offers renewed optimism while challenging us to rethink the way we live

Natural Environments and Human Health Alan W Ewert, Denise S Mitten, Jillisa R Overholt, 2014-04-25 The role natural environments play in human health and wellbeing is attracting increasing attention There is growing medical evidence that access to the natural environment can prevent disease aid recovery tackle obesity and improve mental health This book examines the history of natural environments being used for stress reduction enjoyment aesthetics and catharsis and traces the development of the connection between humans and the environment and how they impact our personal and collective health

Education as the Practice of Eco-Social-Cultural Change Mark Fettes, Sean Blenkinsop, 2023-11-17 The current ecological crisis is the consequence of entrenched attitudes discourses and behaviours in human societies worldwide fostered and reinforced through modern educational traditions processes and institutions This book envisions a radical transformation of education to focus on the mutual flourishing of human societies with the rest of life on Earth In part the authors suggest approaching this as a problem of systemic design incorporating principles that challenge and undermine key premises of the Capitalocene the socio economic political landscape sustaining the current educational regime Tracing the implications of this transition they review core assumptions of modern Western culture that need to shift and identify a wide range of relevant capacities and practices grouped under four complementary educator stances for eco social cultural change

Ecologizing Education Sean Blenkinsop, Estella C. Kuchta, 2024-04-15 Ecologizing Education explores how we can reenvision education to meet the demands of an unjust and rapidly changing world Going beyond green schooling programs that aim only to shape behavior Sean Blenkinsop and Estella

Kuchta advance a pedagogical approach that seeks to instills eco conscious and socially just change at the cultural level Ecologizing education as this approach is called involves identifying and working to overcome anti ecological features of contemporary education This approach called ecologizing education aims to develop a classroom culture in sync with the more than human world where diversity and interdependency are intrinsic Blenkinsop and Kuchta illustrate this educational paradigm shift through the real world stories of two public elementary schools located in British Columbia They show that this approach to learning starts with recognizing the environmental and social injustices that pervade our industrialized societies By documenting how ecologizing education helps children create new relationships with the natural world and move toward mutual healing Blenkinsop and Kuchta offer a roadmap for what may be the most potent chance we have at meaningful change in the face of myriad climate crises Timely practical and ultimately inspirational Ecologizing Education is vital reading for any parent caregiver environmentalist or educator looking for wholistic education that places nature and the environment front and center
