Coming Closer To Ourselves Making Everything The Path Of Awakening:

Sacred Shelter Susan Celia Greenfield, 2021-05-20 An inside look at an interfaith program for the homeless in New York City including in depth stories of those who have graduated and made new lives In a metropolis like New York homelessness can blend into the urban landscape For Susan Greenfield however New York is the place where a community of resilient remarkable individuals is yearning for a voice Sacred Shelter follows the lives of thirteen formerly homeless people all of whom have graduated from an interfaith life skills program for current and former homeless individuals in the city Through interviews these individuals share traumas from their youth their experience with homelessness and the healing they ve discovered through community and faith Edna Humphrey talks about losing her grandparents father and sister to illness accident and abuse Lisa Sperber discusses her bipolar disorder and her whiteness Dennis Barton speaks about his unconventional path to becoming a first generation college student and his journey to reconnect with his family The memoirists share stories about youth family jobs and love They describe their experiences with racism mental illness sexual assault and domestic violence Each of the thirteen storytellers honestly expresses his or her broken heartedness and how finding community and faith gave them hope to carry on Interspersed are reflections from program directors clerics mentors and volunteers including the cofounder of the program While Sacred Shelter does not tackle the socioeconomic conditions and inequities that cause homelessness it provides a voice for a demographic group that continues to suffer from systemic injustice and marginalization

If the Body Politic Could Breathe in the Age of the Refugee Julia Metzger-Traber, 2018-05-15 This book posits that the refugee crisis may actually be a crisis of identity in a rapidly changing world It argues that Western conceptions of the individual Self shape metaphors of political homes and thus the geopolitics of belonging and exclusion Metzger Traber creatively re conceives political belonging by perceiving the interconnection of each Self through its most immediate home the breathing body On an experimental literary journey through her own past and that of Germany she puts political philosophy in conversation with somatic and spiritual insight to expand notions of Self and Home Then she asks What ethical imperatives arise What kinds of homes and homelands would we create if we no longer thought we ended at our skin

Self-Knowledge: A Critical Factor for Self-Transformation Abhaya Nath Tiwari,2019-11-27 Self knowledge Why it matters to transform ourselves What makes us who we are Is it our intelligence talent or something else in life Not as much as we think Abhaya Tiwari argues our vision of life is fogged by superficiality It yearns granularity about our core constituents of self by plowing deeper into our inner self Self knowledge plays a critical role in accessing our true self that plays a far greater role in our understanding of our true self purpose success and happiness untangling us from the vicissitudes of life It matters even more in a disrupted world that is fragmented in our contemporary times where self knowledge and its application provide a distinctive edge for exponential growth Self knowledge is critical for self transformation It provides deeper understanding of self viz what it is and what it does how it regulates and provides common sense wisdom for its practical application in life It provides much needed clarity about our true self evaluation of world around our self our purpose and competencies requiring mastery to achieve self transformation This book will also touch upon deeper understanding of neuropsychology of self and its true nature for high performance and happiness giving insights into human nature and its behavior Abhaya Tiwari provides insights and guidance to parents students teachers and working professionals to achieve what we set out to be in life and to be content and happy Men who Batter Nancy

Nason-Clark, Barbara Fisher-Townsend, 2015 Men who act abusively have their own story to tell a journey that often begins in childhood ripens in their teenage years and takes them down paths they were hoping to never travel Men Who Batter recounts the journey from the point of view of the men themselves The men s accounts of their lives are told within a broader framework of the agency where they have attended groups and the regional coordinated community response to domestic violence which includes the criminal justice workers e g probation parole judges and those who staff shelters and work in advocacy Based on interview data with this wide array of professionals we are able to examine how one community in one western state responds to men who batter Interwoven with this rich and colorful portrayal of the journey of abusive men we bring twenty years of fieldwork with survivors and those who walk alongside them as they seek safety healing and wholeness for themselves and their children Women who have been victimized by the men they love often hold out hope that if only their abusers could be held accountable and receive intervention the violence will stop and their own lives will improve dramatically as a result While the main purpose of Men Who Batter is to highlight the stories of men told from their personal point of view it is countered by reality checks from their own case files and those professionals who have worked with them And finally interspersed within its pages is another theme finding religious faith or spiritual activity in unlikely places
