A Moment on the Clock of the World Melanie Joseph,David Bruin,2019-10-01 A MOMENT ON THE CLOCK OF THE WORLD is an invitation to consider how we make the world together It collects the voices of people who respond to this invitation with their living lives and prolific work artists social justice practitioners cultural critics and public intellectuals Cornel West Taylor Mac Alisa Solomon Robin D G Kelley and Laura Flanders among them whose own inquiries intersected with that of the award winning Foundry Theatre across its 25 year history Notions of collaboration art community space

prefigurative politics metrics and Time animate a conversation about the ways that artists and social justice workers build a more equitable world and the historic challenges of their doing so together A MOMENT ON THE CLOCK OF THE WORLD follows The Foundry's long standing tradition for creating provocative relationships between form and content Its layout divides each page into two discrete horizontal sections the top two thirds contain each contributor's chapter while the bottom of the pages throughout the book hold a history of The Foundry's inquiry by the company's founder There is no prescribed way to read this book Rather it is designed to invite the reader to discover and gather shared themes and ideas in any number of ways The title of the book recalls renowned social activist and philosopher Grace Lee Boggs's legendary and for some incendiary call for a new kind of activism Now is the time on the clock of the world to grow our souls This book gathers together hard won insights of its moment It's a moment on the continuum of ever in the revolutionary human project of making the world

French Global Christie McDonald, Susan Rubin Suleiman, 2010 Recasting French literary history in terms of the cultures and peoples that interacted within and outside of France's national boundaries this volume offers a new way of looking at the history of a national literature along with a truly global and contemporary understanding of language literature and culture The relationship between France's national territory and other regions of the world where French is spoken and written most of them former colonies has long been central to discussions of Francophonie Boldly expanding such discussions to the whole range of French literature the essays in this volume explore spaces mobilities and multiplicities from the Middle Ages to today They rethink literary history not in terms of national boundaries as traditional literary histories have done but in terms of a global paradigm that emphasizes border crossings and encounters with others Contributors offer new ways of reading canonical texts and considering other texts that are not part of the traditional canon By emphasizing diverse conceptions of language text space and nation these essays establish a model approach that remains sensitive to the specificities of time and place and to the theoretical concerns informing the study of national literatures in the twenty first century

Imitative Series and Clusters from Classical to Early Modern Literature Colin Burrow, Stephen J. Harrison, Martin McLaughlin, Elisabetta Tarantino, 2020-09-07 This volume shows the pervasiveness over a millennium and a half of the little studied phenomenon of multi tier intertextuality whether as linear window reference where author C simultaneously imitates or alludes to a text by author A and its imitation by author B or as multi directional imitative clusters It begins with essays on classical literature from Homer to the high Roman empire where the feature first becomes prominent then comes late antiquity a lively area of research at present and after a series of essays on European neo Latin literature from Petrarch to 1600 another area where developments are moving rapidly the volume concludes with early modern vernacular literatures Italian French Portuguese and English Most papers concern verse but prose is not ignored The introduction to the volume discusses the relevant methodological issues An Afterword outlines the critical history of window reference and includes a short essay by Professor Richard Thomas of Harvard University who coined the term in the 1980s
