Legislazione civile italiana Commentarii al codice civile ed dementi dei medesimi dell'Avvocato Paolo Marchi Paolo Marchi, 1873 The Foundations of Restitution for Wrongs Francesco Giglio, 2007-03-06 Restitution for wrongs or restitutionary damages is the judicial award which compels the wrongdoer to give up to the victim the benefit obtained through the perpetration of the wrong independently of any loss suffered by the victim The establishment of a civil trial in Roman law which left compensation as the main response and a widespread loss centred interpretation of the Aristotelian theory of corrective justice explain but do not justify the difficulties encountered by modern attempts to account for restitutionary damages Mistakes in the classification of this institution have complicated the picture To overcome some of these problems this study considers the basic structure of restitutionary damages from different angles In part one the topic is analysed from a comparative perspective Although the focus remains on English law the German the Italian and the Roman jurisdictions provide research data which in part two support the development of a theory of restitution for wrongs as corrective justice

Information Sources in Law J.R. Winterton, Elizabeth M. Moys, 2012-06-21 The aim of each volume of this series Guides to Information Sources is to reduce the time which needs to be spent on patient searching and to recommend the best starting point and sources most likely to yield the desired information The criteria for selection provide a way into a subject to those new to the field and assists in identifying major new or possibly unexplored sources to those who already have some acquaintance with it The series attempts to achieve evaluation through a careful selection of sources and through the comments provided on those sources

Commento al codice civile del Regno d'Italia, 1873 Gifts Richard Hyland, 2009-06-05 Gifts A Study in Comparative Law is the first broad based study of the law governing the giving and revocation of gifts ever attempted Gift giving is everywhere governed by social and customary norms before it encounters the law and the giving of gifts takes place largely outside of the marketplace As a result of these two characteristics the law of gifts provides an optimal lens through which to examine how different legal systems engage with social practice The law of gifts is well developed both in the civil and the common laws Richard Hyland's study provides an excellent view of the ways in which different civil and common law jurisdictions confront common issues The legal systems discussed include principally in the common law those of Great Britain the United States and India and in the civil law the private law systems of Belgium and France Germany Italy and Spain Professor Hyland also serves a critique of the dominant method in the field which is a form of functionalism based on what is called the praesumptio similitudinis namely the axiom that once legal doctrine is stripped away developed legal systems tend to reach similar practical results His study demonstrates to the contrary that legal systems actually differ not only in their approach and conceptual structure but just as much in the results

Principles of European Contract Law and Italian Law Luisa Antonioli, Anna Veneziano, 2005-01-01 To provide valuable legal service to persons in today's Europe practitioners must be conversant in both national and transnational law At the European level the Principles of European Contract Law PECL are an increasingly important element of contract law together with national contract law as contained in Civil Codes and various national statute Accordingly Kluwer Law International has initiated a series of volumes under the direction of prof Hondius of the University of Utrecht comparing PECL with the most important European legal systems This volume on Italian law is the second in the series Using a straightforward comparative method the editors analysis not only reveals a significant area of convergence between the PECL and Italian contract law but also highlights the main differences between the two bodies of rules The reasons for these differences both legal and non legal such as historical social economic are clearly set forth The book provides complete texts with annotations of the PECL and the corresponding Italian rules The presentation proceeds as follows general provisions scope of application general duties terminology formation of contracts general provisions offer and acceptance liability for negotiations authority of agents general provisions direct and indirect representation validity interpretation contents and effects performance non performance and remedies in general particular remedies for non performance right to performance withholding performance termination of the contract price reduction damages and interest The editors commentary includes extensive reference to case law and legal doctrine at all essential points In this way they provide a comprehensive description of the law in action as well as its evolving trends In addition incisive essays by two leading experts in the field of comparative law prof Rodolfo Sacco and prof Michael Joachim Bonell analyse the relationship of the PECL and Italian law and its wider framework in the harmonisation of private law at the European and international levels The book is a valuable handbook and guide for both foreign and Italian lawyers For non Italian lawyers be they practitioners or academics it provides a concise but complete and up to date outline of current Italian contract law organized on the basis of a system PECL with which many European lawyers are familiar For Italian lawyers it offers a clearer insight into a wider European legal contract system whose importance in the evolution of a common European private law is growing rapidly Principles of European Contract Law Series 2 Il contratto Pasquale Fava, 2012
