Practicing Discipleship Dr. Nicole L. Johnson, 2009-06-01 Despite a plurality of doctrinal statements on war peace and nonviolence some United Methodists sustain a commitment to nonviolence Through qualitative research Practicing Discipleship draws out lived theologies of nonviolence in order to understand how nonviolent United Methodists define ground and practice nonviolence and to give that voice opportunity to challenge church doctrine and thereby the wider church An analysis of statements from the Book of Disciplines and the Book of Resolutions reveals the plurality of Methodist teachings on moral issues related to war and peace While such plurality is indicative of the inclusive tradition of United Methodism Johnson shows that it also causes confusion thus hindering the vitality and authority of the church's witness This study's qualitative analysis of in depth interviews with twelve nonviolent United Methodists reveals a lived theology rooted in Scripture and theological reflection it points particularly to a Christocentrism that posits nonviolence as central to Christ's teachings and example While study participants affirm the tradition of openness in the United Methodist Church they also call for more tangible and extensive support for and education about nonviolence as a faithful option for Christians Through amicable and constructive practical theological dialogue doctrinal plurality and ecclesial openness are affirmed as appropriate and possible only within the context of the church's profound commitment to serious discipleship which includes transformation toward nonviolence Implications of this interaction include developing and adopting a more truthful conception of a nonviolent ethics moving toward broadly conceived Christian formation in nonviolence and fostering ongoing ecclesial dialogue about difficult moral issues of war peace and nonviolence CSB Disciple's Study Bible Robby

Strawser, 2023-04-26 The church often lacks maturity and missional impact because discipleship is at its periphery To get discipleship to the center leaders need a locally rooted culturally contextual discipleship pathway This gutsy practice based guidebook is for leaders doing the hard work turning spectators into missional mature followers of Jesus Called and Committed David Watson, 2000-03-07 Christ calls us to decisive discipleship but all too often we settle for flabby faith The vast majority of Western Christians claims David Watson are church members pew fillers hymn singers sermon tasters Bible readers even born again believers or Spirit filled charismatics but not true disciples of Jesus If we were willing to become disciples the church in the West would be transformed and the impact on society would be staggering This is no idle claim it happened in the first century With the international perspective so acutely needed by American Christians David Watson calls us to build a community of believers who demonstrate Christ's power arm themselves for spiritual battle and demonstrate by their lifestyle and outreach their unreserved commitment to Christ's kingdom Only then will we be able to change the world
