

Idioms, Adages, and Proverbs

Name _____

An idiom is a group of words that has a completely different meaning to what the individual words seem to say. We use idioms to express things in a creative, memorable way and not to give advice or wisdom. For example, when someone has a lot of energy they are "full of beans" and when you want someone to slow down you can say "hold your horses." Something that is easy to accomplish is a "piece of cake."

An adage is a widely known short saying that is eventually accepted as true by almost everyone. Adages are interesting things that people notice to be true and they are simpler and shorter than proverbs. Examples of adages include "the camera never lies," "the show must go on," "you get what you pay for," and "out of sight, out of mind."

A proverb is usually longer than an adage and goes beyond being something people notice to be true. A proverb states the collected wisdom and superstitions of humans and is deeper in meaning and stronger in purpose than an adage. Examples of proverbs include "don't put all your eggs in one basket," "one man's trash is another man's treasure," "people who live in glass houses should not throw stones," and "don't count your chickens before they are hatched."
