Communicating With The Multicultural Consumer Theoretical And Practical Perspectives:

Communicating with the Multicultural Consumer Barbara Mueller, 2008 Communicating with the Multicultural Consumer highlights demographic changes impacting the consumer marketplace in the United States. Growing multiculturalism creates both new opportunities for marketers as well as new challenges. With a balance of theoretical and practical perspectives, this text explores how to develop successful campaigns targeting Hispanic Americans, African Americans, and Asian Americans. Complete with current examples and case studies, it addresses the key issues that must be kept in mind when creating effective communications programs for ethnic consumers, from marketing mix elements to cultural norms and values. Communicating with the Multicultural Consumer is an ideal text for advanced undergraduate and graduate students in specialized courses dealing with ethnic advertising or marketing. It is also an effective supplementary text for introductory advertising, marketing, or mass communication courses and would be useful to advertising practitioners whether on the client side or within the advertising agency.

Consumer Behavior in Action Geoffrey Paul Lantos, 2015-01-28 Consumer Behavior in Action is a down to earth, highly engaging and thorough introduction to consumer behavior. It goes further than other consumer behavior textbooks to generate student interest and activity through extensive use of in-class and written applications exercises. Each chapter presents several exercises in self-contained units, each with its own applications. Learning objectives, background, and context are provided in an easy-to-digest format with liberal use of lists and bullet points. Also included in each chapter are a key concepts list, review questions, and a solid summary to help initiate further student research. The author's practical focus and clear conversational writing style, combined with an active learning approach, make this textbook the student-friendly choice for courses on consumer behavior.

Dynamics of International Advertising Barbara Mueller, 2011 The second edition of this great book brings a wealth of updates and insights into international advertising Barbara Mueller has a knack of drawing you in so that you find yourself unable to put each chapter down One of the great strengths of the book is that it provides context be it historic societal or marketing along with considerable depth of knowledge Douglas West University of Birmingham Multiracialism and Its Discontents Hephzibah V. Strmic-Pawl, 2016-07-26 This book addresses the contemporary complexities of race racial identity and the persistence of racism Multiracialism is often heralded as a breakthrough in racial reconciliation some even go so far as to posit that the U S will become so racially mixed that racism will diminish However this comparative analysis of multiracials who identify as part Asian and part White and those who identify as part Black and part White indicates vastly different experiences of what it means to be multiracial The book also attends to a nuanced understanding of how racism and inequality operate when an intersectional approach of race class gender and sexual orientation is taken into account It takes a focused look at how multiracialism is shaped by racism but ultimately reveals a broader statement about race in the U S today that there is no post racial state and any identity or movement that attempts to address racial inequality must contend with that reality The Intercultural Communication Playbook Teri Kwal Gamble, Michael W. Gamble, Xiaowen Guan, 2023-12-27 Featuring a three prong approach on culture communication and creative problem solving The Intercultural Communication Playbook with its unique user friendly layout and presentation highlights how active imaginative and productive problem solving methods can transform the way students understand intercultural communication This framework from authors Teri Kwal Gamble Michael W Gamble and Xiaowen Guan guides learners to understand their intercultural identity broaden their worldview and successfully improve their communication in real world settings Each chapter features exercises that encourage students to diversify their everyday thinking individually examine their personal preferences eliminate mental barriers and discover innovative solutions to intercultural communication challenges
