Caring For Words In A Culture Of Lies:

Caring for Words in a Culture of Lies, 2nd ed Marilyn McEntyre, 2021-05-11 With the pervasiveness of vitriol and dishonesty today language needs to be revived and restored In Caring for Words in a Culture of Lies Marilyn McEntyre exposes the commercial and political forces that affect public discourse in American culture and counters with twelve constructive strategies of stewardship such as challenging lies including widely tolerated forms of deception and spin fostering the art of conversation and encouraging playfulness and prayerfulness in writing and speaking The second edition of this timely and timeless book includes updated cultural references and questions for reflection and discussion at the end allowing a new generation of readers to apply McEntyre's wisdom in a world that struggles with truth and graceful language more than ever before

Technē Gerald Hiestand, Todd A. Wilson, 2022-11-18 Christians have an increasingly complex and often conflicted relationship with technology As Genesis 1 succinctly and profoundly declares God created humanity in his image and as part of that vocation we are called to make something of the world Technology is one of the most important and powerful ways that human beings exercise this dominion But while technology can extend our humanity in powerful and exciting ways many of us feel that it can compromise or fracture our humanity at its core As a result questions quickly emerge What does it mean to be human How does our creation in the image of God affect the way we use design and understand technology Should our general posture toward technology be cautious or optimistic This collection of scholarly and pastoral essays drawn from the 2019 annual theology conference of the Center for Pastor Theologians offers substantive Christian reflection on a wide range of issues pertinent to a distinctly Christian vision of technology today and in the future

Composition as Conversation Heather M. Hoover, 2023-06-27 Teaching writing is not for the faint of heart but it can be a tremendous gift to teachers and students Students often approach writing courses with trepidation because they think of writing as a mystical and opaque process Teachers often approach these same courses with dread because of the enormous workload and the often unpolished skills of new writers This approachable composition textbook for beginning writers contends that writing can be a better experience for everyone when taught as an empathetic and respectful conversation In a time in which discourse is not always civil and language is not always tended carefully a conversation based writing approach emphasizes intention and care Written by a teacher with more than fifteen years of experience in the college writing classroom Composition as Conversation explores what happens when the art of conversation meets the art of writing Heather Hoover shows how seven virtues including curiosity attentiveness relatability open mindedness and generosity inform the writing process and can help students become more effective writers She invites writers of all skill levels to make meaningful contributions with their writing This short accessible and instructive book offers a reflective method for college level writing and will also work well in classical school high school and homeschool contexts It demystifies the writing process and helps students understand why their writing matters It will energize teachers of writing as they encourage their students to become careful readers and observers intentional listeners and empathetic arguers The book also provides helpful sample assignments

Liturgy with a Difference Stephen Burns, Bryan Cones, 2019-05-30 Christian churches in recent decades have taken some steps in their practices of liturgy and worship toward acknowledging the graced dignity of human variety But who is still excluded What pernicious norms still govern below the surface and how might they be revealed How do texts gestures and space abet and enforce such norms How might Christian assemblies gather multiple expressions of human difference to propose through Christian liturgy patterns of graced interaction in the world around them Liturgy with a Difference gathers a broad range of international theologians and scholars to interrogate current practices of liturgy and worship in order to unmask ways in which dehumanizing majoritarianisms and presumed norms of gender culture ethnicity and body among others remain at work in congregations Together the chapters in this collection call for a liturgical practice that recognizes and rehearses the vivid richness of God's image found in the human community and glimpsed if only for a moment in liturgical celebration They point a way beyond mere inclusion toward a generous embrace of the many differences that make up the Christian community With contributions from Rachel Mann Teresa Berger Susannah Cornwall Miguel A DeLa Torre Edward Foley W Scott Haldeman Michael Jagessar Bruce T Morrill Kristine Suna Koro and Frank Senn Foreword by Ann Loades

Living into Community Christine D. Pohl, 2011-12-20 Every church every organization has experienced them betrayal deception grumbling envy exclusion They make life together difficult and prevent congregations from developing the skills virtues and practices they need to nurture sturdy life giving communities In Living into Community Christine Pohl explores four specific Christian practices gratitude promise keeping truth telling and hospitality that can counteract those destructive forces and help churches and individuals build and sustain vibrant communities Drawing on a wealth of personal and professional experience and interacting with the biblical historical and moral traditions Pohl thoughtfully discusses each practice including its possible complications and deformations and points to how these essential practices can be better cultivated within communities and families

Shades of Decolonial Voices in Linguistics Sinfree Makoni, Cristine Severo, Ashraf Abdelhay, Anna Kaiper-Marquez, Višnja Miložičić, 2023-09-12 This book argues that Linguistics in common with other disciplines such as Anthropology and Sociology has been shaped by colonization It outlines how linguistic practices may be decolonized and the challenges which such decolonization poses to linguists working in diverse areas of Linguistics It concludes that decolonization in Linguistics is an ongoing process with no definite end point and cannot be completely successful until universities and societies are decolonized too In keeping with the subject matter the book prioritizes discussion debate and the collaborative creative production of knowledge over individual authorship Further it mingles the voices of established authors from a variety of disciplines with audience comment and dialogue to produce a challenging and inspiring text that represents an important step along the path it attempts to map out
