Abstract—This study is the first to systematically evaluate the effectiveness of the 100-hour requirement in nursing. The authors conducted a literature review to determine the effectiveness of the requirement. The authors found that the requirement is effective in ensuring that nursing students are prepared for the NCLEX-RN exam. The authors also found that the requirement is effective in ensuring that nursing students are prepared for the nursing profession. The authors conclude that the 100-hour requirement is an effective way to ensure that nursing students are prepared for the NCLEX-RN exam and the nursing profession.
