Explains how and why speaking to groups is a quick and easy way to generate positive word of mouth; advertising for your company; Lists PowerPoint mistakes that will kill your chances of success and how to avoid them; Offers tips on how to lead fearless question and answer sessions. The energy and enthusiasm of a great presentation is contagious and public speaking is a great way to channel this energy and generate a loyal following.

Rock Your Presentation Nigel Barlow, 2016-04-28 This book will protect your audiences from the following disorders: Death by PowerPoint; Tedium; Compulsive fidgeting; Losing the Will to Live Syndrome. Nearly all of us have to pitch or present our ideas whether in a formal setting like a theatre, at a company conference, in a classroom or even selling a concept one-to-one to our boss. In Rock Your Presentation, Nigel Barlow, a professional keynote speaker and creative coach to many of the world's most famous organisations, gives you inspiring insights and practical techniques to rock up your presentation or speech. Many of these tips come from exploring what makes great music so moving and impactful and are easy to apply to make your own talks more dynamic and memorable. Try changing your key for different emotional impact; come up with a stronger chorus and an exciting climax; create your speaker's ride; be a protest singer to unleash your passion and learn when and how to go unplugged to touch your audience. Whether you want to create a whole new presentation or tune up a tired old one, Rock Your Presentation will give you plenty of fresh ideas.

Awful Presentations Barry Brophy, 2017 How many awful presentations have you attended? How many have you given? Awful presentations are too often the norm with swathes of text on the screen; presenters speaking over everyone's heads; little interaction; no stories; poor images; and a bored audience. Why? In this book, presentation specialist Barry Brophy explains why competent people give hapless presentations. And it's not because of nerves. Most of what you thought you knew about presentations is wrong. Successful presentations are not about speaking but listening They are not about your knowledge but the audience's needs They are not about ditching PowerPoint but using it properly They are not about overcoming fear when speaking but overcoming caution when preparing The truth is you already have the skills to present your conversational skills and anyone can craft a spellbinding presentation Conversations work whereas presentations invariably fail and this book explains the hidden mental habits which can lead you to misuse your already perfected speaking skills when presenting You will learn to Make your presentations zing A presentation is not facts it's an interpretation of facts Your job as a presenter is to advise and guide your audience Communicate knowledge to an audience at any level A presentation fits into a wider communication chain Understanding this will help you to figure out what works in a presentation stories images videos examples analogies demonstrations interaction and crucially what should be left out Make your presentation audience centred not presenter centred Don't define your presentation based what you know but rather on what the audience needs to hear Connect with your audience Content is the dominant factor in a presentation not delivery You already know how to deliver you do it every time you open your mouth The key is to tap into this conversational energy and fluency Embrace PowerPoint to make your presentations first class About Barry Brophy Barry Brophy has nearly two decades of experience helping people make presentations in both the private sector and as a lecturer at University College Dublin There he has developed specialist Masters Courses that run across all disciplines and has carried out research on how oral presentations work He is also the author of The Natural Presenter Turning Conversations into Presentations which was published in 2007 Perfect Presentations, 2010 Presenting to Win Jerry Weissman, 2008-11-17 Thirty million presentations will be given today Millions will fail Millions more will be received with yawns A rare few will establish the most profound connection in which presenter and audience understand each other perfectly discover common ground and together decide to act In this fully updated edition Jerry Weissman the world's 1 presentation consultant shows how to connect with even the toughest most high level audiences and move them to action He teaches presenters of all kinds how to dump those PowerPoint templates once and for all and tell compelling stories that focus on what's in it for the audience Weissman's techniques have proven themselves with billions of dollars on the line Thousands of his elite clients have already mastered them Now it's your turn What you must do to tell your story Focus before Flow identifying your real goals and message The power of the WIIFY What's In It For You Staying focused on what your audience really wants Capture your audience in 90 seconds and never let go Opening Gambits and compelling linkages Master the art of online Web conferencing Connecting with your invisible audience From brainstorming through delivery Crafting the Power Presentation one step at a time Named by FORTUNE Magazine as a Must Read Jerry Weissman makes the challenge of producing and delivering effective presentations delightfully simple Read it and benefit Tim Koogler Founding CEO Yahoo A great read for all of us who have ever struggled with any aspect of our public speaking skills Presenting to Win contains the same timeless techniques that helped me 18 years ago Jeff Raikes former President Microsoft
