Treasure, 1969 Johnson, Rasselas, and the Choice of Criticism Edward Tomarken, 2021-10-21 Although Rasselas has received more critical commentary than almost any other work by Samuel Johnson Edward Tomarken's book is the first full length study to focus on his tale of the Prince of Abyssinia This anomaly arises as Tomarken shows because Rasselas has remained resistant to the customary critical approaches of the eighteenth nineteenth and twentieth centuries consistently eliciting new kinds of insights and raising new sorts of problems Tomarken's contribution is a new methodology to explain this phenomenon He sees Johnson's early writings London and Irene as instances of the writer trying with only partial success to achieve what he first realized in The Vanity of Human Wishes a means of permitting literary form to refer to conduct Later works such as The Journey to the Western Islands of Scotland are viewed as further developments of this method which achieved its fullest expression in Rasselas and the Life of Pope Such a reading of Johnson develops an aesthetic that operates on the margins between the literary and the extra literary Although Johnson's own critical view was unable to accommodate such a position Tomarken shows that in practice he moved toward it by a process of trial and error manifest in his poetry and narratives When raised to the level of critical method this approach goes beyond the assumptions not only of Johnson's day but also of our own Tomarken's theoretical coda demonstrates how the choices of current critical theory like those in the marriage debate in Rasselas can be understood to interact with one another Specifically he proposes a dialectical relationship for two approaches hermeneutics and structuralism usually seen as opposed to one another This innovative study will interest not only Johnson scholars but all those concerned with critical theory Collected Poems Ralph Nixon Currey, 2001 R N Currey's poetry records what happens to men in war and life This is a collection of poems by the poet and writer R N Currey Born in Mafeking in 1907 R N Currey was a soldier poet and at one time a school teacher in Colchester R N Currey is a poet who has pleased poets T S Eliot told him in 1945 that his collection This Other Planet was the best war poetry I have seen in these last six years Dylan Thomas was so taken with the wit of Pelican St James's Park that he recited it from memory on a traffic island in front of the BBC just after he had met R N Currey for the first time Roy Campbell Guy Butler and Jack Cope claimed his work for South Africa The Monthly Review, Or, Literary Journal Ralph Griffiths, George Edward Griffiths, Oliver Goldsmith, 1791 A monthly book announcement and review journal Considered to be the first periodical in England to offer reviews In each issue the longer reviews are in the front section followed by short reviews of lesser works It featured the novelist and poet Oliver Goldsmith as an early contributor Griffiths himself and likely his wife Isabella Griffiths contributed review articles to the periodical Later contributors included Dr Charles Burney John Cleland Theophilus Cibber James Grainger Anna Letitia Barbauld Elizabeth Moody and Tobias Smollet The Political

Works of James Harrington: Part One James Harrington, 2012-02-02 James Harrington 1611-1677 was a pioneer in applying the methods of Machiavelli and other civic humanists to English political society and its landed structure. In the century after his death, his ideas were adapted to become an important ingredient in the vocabulary of both English and American political opposition to the methods of Hanoverian parliamentary monarchy. This work includes all of his prose works on political subjects as well as Oceana, his best known work. The critical introduction attempts to revalue the evidence concerning Harrington's life and writings to locate them in the context of Civil War Commonwealth and Puritan thinking and to trace the development of Harringtonian and neo-Harringtonian ideology during subsequent generations.
