Sharp and thought provoking this memoir meets cultural criticism upends the romanticism of the Great Plains and the patriarchy at the core of its ideals For many Americans Kansas represents a vision of Midwestern life that is good and wholesome and evokes the American ideals of god home and country But for those like Jessa Crispin who have grown up in Kansas the realities are much harsher She argues that the Midwestern values we cling to cover up a long history of oppression and control over Native Americans women and the economically disadvantaged Blending personal narrative with social commentary Crispin meditates on why the American Midwest still enjoys an esteemed position in our country s mythic self image Ranging from The Wizard of Oz to race from chastity to rape from radical militias and recent terrorist plots to Utopian communities My Three Dads opens on a comic scene in a Kansas rent house the author shares with a masculine ghost This prompts Crispin to think about her intellectual fathers her spiritual fathers and her literal fathers She is curious to understand what she has learned from them and what she needs to unlearn about how a person should be in a family as a citizen and as a child of god ideals Crispin argues that have been established and reproduced in service to hierarchy oppression and wealth Written in Crispin s well honed voice smart assured comfortable with darkness My Three Dads offers a kind of bleak redemption the insight that no matter where you go no matter how far from home you roam the place you came from is always with you like it or not

Forty Fathers Tessa Lloyd,2019-10-19 When Tessa Lloyd's sons in law became fathers she searched for resources that would help inspire them especially parenting stories from other fathers However that book didn't seem to exist As a counsellor for children and families Lloyd understood the ways a father child relationship can have a lasting effect through the generations Seeing a need Lloyd decided to gather these stories herself This resulting volume collects the stories and portraits of forty Canadian fathers who open up about both their own fathers and their deeply personal parenting experiences This diverse group includes Prime Minister Justin Trudeau writer Lawrence Hill academic Niigaan Sinclair athlete Trevor Linden restaurateur Vikram Vij anthropologist Wade Davis musician Alan Doyle artist Robert Bateman and philanthropist Rick Hansen The contributors reflect on their varied parenting experiences and challenges including parenting while incarcerated parenting across cultural barriers parenting through divorce parenting while transgender parenting as a celebrity and parenting with a disability Many common themes emerge throughout the stories including the process of overcoming cultural messages that encourage men to be strong authoritarian and emotionally unavailable The stories are extraordinarily candid and vulnerable as the fathers describe their own failings regrets and childhood traumas as well as the humbling process of trying to do better In one anecdote Dr Greg Wells describes the experience of meeting another father walking the empty streets at three a m with an infant and how that moment of shared recognition gave him strength at a difficult time The stories in this book offer a similar glimpse into the shared experiences and trials of fatherhood but also offer fascinating reflections on the more universal experiences of finding one s place within a family and striving to be a better person for the sake of others
