Anthropologies of Unemployment Jong Bum Kwon, Carrie M. Lane, 2016-09-09 Anthropologies of Unemployment offers accessible theoretically innovative and ethnographically rich examinations of unemployment in rural and urban regions across North and South America Europe Africa and Asia The diversity of case studies demonstrates that unemployment is a pressing global phenomenon that sheds light on the uneven consequences of free market ideologies and policies Economic social and cultural marginalization is common in the lives of the unemployed but their experience and interpretation are shaped by local and national cultural particularities In exploring those differences the contributors to this volume employ recent theoretical innovations and engage with some of the more salient topics in contemporary anthropology such as globalization migration youth cultures bureaucracy class gender and race Taken together the chapters reveal that there is something new about unemployment today It is not a temporary occurrence but a chronic condition In adjusting to persistent longstanding unemployment people and groups create new understandings of unemployment as well as of work and employment they improvise new forms of sociality morality and personhood Ethnographic studies such as those found in Anthropologies of Unemployment are crucial if we are to understand the broader forms meanings and significance of pervasive economic insecurity and discover the emergence of new social and cultural possibilities
