Bureau of Public Schools, 1957 The Filipino Teachers Manual, Vol. 1 (Classic Reprint) H. C. Theobald, 2018-01-24 Excerpt from The Filipino Teachers Manual Vol 1 Most Filipino teachers appreciate the responsibility attached to their profession They realize that work like theirs which is so far reaching in its effects on the lives of individuals and on the welfare of the whole country must be done well Yet the best of intentions the utmost earnestness of purpose cannot always combat successfully the discouragement which comes to one dealing with problems that he has not been trained to solve The Filipino teacher meets many such problems Seldom has he had an opportunity to study the theories and methods of modern educators or to do practice work under experienced supervision Often his school is too large and has too many grades for one teacher to manage easily He realizes that many of his mistakes might be avoided yet he has no way open to him except that of experiment With the hope of meeting the immediate needs of such a teacher this book has been written No attempt has been made to treat exhaustively every side of school work for there are many standard books to which the experienced teacher may go for deeper knowledge of the theories and principles of education If the Filipino teacher in his earnest desire for improvement finds here any help and encouragement the book will fulfill its purpose About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
