Centering the Margin Alexander Horstmann, Reed L. Wadley, 2006 In a new approach to borders and border crossing this volume suggests a re conceptualization of the nation in Southeast Asia Routledge Handbook of Asian Borderlands Alexander Horstmann, Martin Saxer, Alessandro Rippa, 2018-04-09 In Asia where authoritarian developmental states have proliferated statehood and social control are heavily contested in borderland spaces As a result in the post Cold War world borders have not only redefined Asian incomes and mobilities they have also rekindled neighbouring relations and raised questions about citizenship and security The contributors to the Routledge Handbook of Asian Borderlands highlight some of these processes taking place at the fringe of the state Offering an array of comparative perspectives of Asian borders and borderlands in the global context this handbook is divided into thematic sections including Livelihoods commodities and mobilities Physical land use and agrarian transformations Borders and boundaries of the state and the notion of statelessness Re conceptualizing trade and the economy in the borderlands The existence and influence of humanitarians religions and NGOs The militarization of borderlands Causing us to rethink and fundamentally question some of the categories of state nation and the economy this is an important resource for students and scholars of Asian Studies Border Studies Social and Cultural Studies and Anthropology Chapter 12 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

The Minority Muslim Experience in Mainland Southeast Asia John Goodman, 2021-07-14 This book examines the lives of the Malay and Cham Muslims in Thailand Cambodia and Vietnam and examines how they co exist and live in societies that are dominated by an alternative consensus and are illiberal and non democratic in nature Focusing on two major Muslim communities in Southeast Asia both of whom live as minorities in societies that are not democratic and have a history of hostility and repression towards non conforming ideas the book explains their circumstances the choices and life decisions they have to make and how minorities can thrive in an unfriendly monocultural environment Based on original field work and research the author analyses how people live and how they adapt to societies which are not motivated by Western liberal ideals of multiculturalism The book also offers a unique perspective on how Islam develops in an environment where it is seen as alien and disloyal A useful contribution analyzing historical and post colonial experiences of Muslim minorities and how they survive and evolve over the course of state monopoly in mainland Southeast Asia this book will be of interest to academics working on Muslim minorities Asian Religion and Southeast Asian Studies Myanmar's Mountain and Maritime Borderscapes Oh Su-Ann, 2016-08-19 This edited volume adds to the literature on Myanmar and its borders by drawing attention to the significance of geography history politics and society in the construction of the border regions and the country First it alerts us to the fact that the border regions are situated in the mountainous and maritime domains of the country highlighting the commonalities that arise from shared geography Second the book foregrounds socio spatio practices economic intimate spiritual virtual of border and boundary making in their local context This demonstrates how state defined notions of territory borders and identity are enacted or challenged Third despite sharing common features Myanmar s borderscapes also possess unique configurations of ethnic political and economic attributes producing social formations and figured worlds that are more cohesive or militant in some border areas than in others Understanding and comparing these social practices and their corresponding life worlds allows us to re examine the connections from the borderlands back to the hinterland and to consider the value of border and boundary studies in problematizing and conceptualizing recent changes in Myanmar This ambitious project combines sophisticated theorization of boundary making as a form of social practice and empirical studies of Myanmar s heterogeneous borderlands both land and sea Seeing the country from its edges opens up a provocative and altogether novel vision of the contestations joining diverse peripheries and centre This volume brings together the leading scholars of the country in a collection that is a must have for anyone interested in contemporary Myanmar border studies and Southeast Asia Itty Abraham Head Department of Southeast Asian Studies National University of Singapore NUS This is the first book to attempt to bring together such a diverse range of Myanmar s land and maritime border regions for comparison In doing so it highlights the diversity of the country s demographic social economic and political make up when viewed from the margins rather than the centre It reveals how these border regions help to constitute the nation and how they shape what modern Myanmar is today they also give strong indicators of what it might become This is an essential read for anyone in the social sciences interested in borderlands as well as those requiring a broader understanding of the challenges facing the contemporary Myanmar government as it attempts to usher in social and political cohesion following decades of conflict Mandy Sadan Reader in the History of South East Asia School of Oriental African Studies SOAS

Vietnamese-Chinese Relationships at the Borderlands Yuk Wah Chan, 2013-11-12 Ever since China and Vietnam resumed diplomatic contacts and reopened the border in 1991 the borderland region has become part of the vibrant growing economies of both countries and drawn many from the interior provinces to the borderland for new economic adventures This book examines Chinese Vietnamese relationships at the borderland through every day cross border interaction in trade and tourism activities It looks into the historical underlining of bilateral relations of the two countries which often shape people s perceptions of the other and interpretation of intentions of acts in their daily interaction Albeit Chinese and Vietnamese have lived side by side for centuries their interaction in the space of trade and modern tourism in post war and post reform China and Vietnam is something novel to both people The book provides a bottom up approach to examine the localized experiences of inter state relations It illustrates the changes the vibrant economic process has brought to the borderland communities and how the revived contacts and interaction have generated a contested space for examining Vietnamese Chinese relationships and demonstrating trans border cultural politics A novel study of the strategic development of the borderland within the new political economy at China Southeast Asia border region this book is of

Uneasy Military Encounters Ruth Streicher, 2020-10-15 Uneasy Military Encounters presents a historically and theoretically grounded political ethnography of the Thai military's counterinsurgency practices in the southern borderland home to the greater part of the Malay Muslim minority Ruth Streicher argues that counterinsurgency practices mark the southern population as the racialized religious and gendered other of the Thai which contributes to producing Thailand as an imperial formation a state formation based on essentialized difference between the Thai and their others Through a genealogical approach Uneasy Military Encounters addresses broad conceptual questions of imperial politics in a non Western context How can we understand imperial policing in a country that was never colonized How is Islam constructed in a state that is officially secular and promotes Buddhist tolerance What are the historical dynamics of imperial patriarchy in a context internationally known for its gender pluralism The resulting ethnography excavates the imperial politics of concrete encounters between the military and the southern population in the ongoing conflict in southern Thailand

Borderlands Hastings Donnan, Thomas M. Wilson, 2012-07-10 Borderlands are often seen as zones of instability uncertainty marginality and danger Yet they increasingly attract the attention of ethnographers as a unique lens through which to view the intersections of the national transnational and global forces that shape the securities and insecurities of our globalizing age The contributors to this volume examine how different kinds of insecurity manifest and interconnect at state borders encompassing the personal and the political the social and the economic in ways that reinforce or undermine the identities of those whose lives these borders frame Drawing upon case studies from the Southern Cone the U S Mexico border and borders in Greece Ireland and southeast Asia the authors show that borders raise questions of security not just for those who live and cross them including ethnographers but also for the sustainability of the physical environments and wildlife disturbed by the passage movement and containment borders generate

Border Work Madeleine Reeves, 2014-04-15 Drawing on extensive and carefully designed ethnographic fieldwork in the Ferghana Valley region where the state borders of Kyrgyzstan Tajikistan and Uzbekistan intersect Madeleine Reeves develops new ways of conceiving the state as a complex of relationships and of state borders as socially constructed and in a constant state of flux She explores the processes and relationships through which state borders are made remade interpreted and contested by a range of actors including politicians state officials border guards farmers and people whose lives involve the crossing of the borders In territory where international borders are not always clearly demarcated or consistently enforced Reeves traces the ways in which states attempt to establish their rule create new sources of conflict or insecurity for people pursuing their livelihoods in the area on the basis of older and less formal understandings of norms of access As a result the book makes a major new and original contribution to scholarly work on Central Asia and more generally on the anthropology of border regions and the state as a social process Moreover the work as a whole is presented in a lively and accessible style The individual lives whose tribulations and small triumphs Reeves so vividly documents and the relationships she establishes with her subjects are as revealing as they are engaging Border Work is a well deserved winner of this year's Alexander Nove Prize

presents research findings from the German Research Council's Priority Programme 1448 Adaptation and Change in Africa 2011-2018. At the heart of the volume are important new spatial practices that have emerged after the end of the Cold War in the fields of conflict, climate change, migration and urban development to name but a few and their ordering effects with regard to social relations. These findings bear particular relevance for the co-production of territorialities and sovereignties for borders and migrations as well as infrastructures and orders. Contributors are Sabine Baumgart, Andrea Behrends, Marc Boeckler, Martin Doeverspeck, Ulf Engel, Claudia Gebauer, Karsten Giese, Katharina Heitz, Tokpa Shahadat Hossain, Anna Höncke, Gabriel Klaeger, Kelly Si Miao Liang, Andreas Mehler, Felix Müller, Detlef Müller, Mahn Wolfgang Scholz, Sophie Schramm, Jannik Schrittmann, Michael Stasik, Florian Weisser, Julia Willers and Franzisca Zanker. From Colonization to Nation-State Riwanto Tirtosudarmo, 2022-03-26. This book examines the history of the political demography of Indonesia. Chronologically, the book begins by introducing the colonization program as a predecessor of transmigration program after independence. The transmigration program, Indonesia's state policy on migration, is discussed at length in the book, but other migration-related issues are also presented to show the complex relationship between migration and other social, economic and political issues in Indonesia. In the final chapter, the book discusses the contemporary issues and challenges of disintegration that is facing Indonesia as a nation-state. The book ends with an epilog that shows Indonesia's political demography challenges in the 21st Century.

A Companion to Border Studies Thomas M. Wilson, Hastings Donnan, 2016-01-19. A Companion to Border Studies. Taking into consideration all aspects, this book has a very important role in the professional literature of border studies. Cross Border Review Yearbook of the European Institute Summing Up: Highly recommended. Upper division undergraduates and above. Choice. This book, with its interdisciplinary team of authors from many world regions, shows the state of the art in this research field admirably. Ulf Hannerz, Stockholm University. This volume will be the definitive work on borders and border-related processes for years into the future. The editors have done an outstanding job of identifying key themes and of assembling influential scholars to address these themes. David Nugent, Emory University. This urgently needed Companion, edited by two leading figures of border studies, reflects past insights and showcases new directions: a must read for understanding territory, power and the state. Dr Nick Vaughan Williams, University of Warwick. This impressive collection will have a broad appeal beyond specialist border studies. Anyone with an interest in the nation-state, nationalism, ethnicity, political geography or indeed the whole historical project of the modern world system will want to have access to a copy. The substantive scope is global and the intellectual reach deep and wide. Simply indispensable. Richard Jenkins, University of Sheffield. Dramatic growth in the number of international borders has coincided in recent years with greater mobility than ever before of goods, people and ideas. As a result, interest in borders as a focus of academic study has developed into a dynamic, multi-disciplinary field embracing perspectives from anthropology, development studies, geography, history, political science and sociology. Authors provide a comprehensive examination of key characteristics of borders and frontiers, including cross border cooperation security and controls migration and population displacements hybridity and transnationalism A Companion to Border Studies brings together these disciplines and viewpoints through the writing of an international collection of preeminent border scholars Drawing on research from Africa Asia the Middle East Europe and the Americas the contributors argue that the future of Border Studies lies within such diverse collaborations which approach comparatively the features of borders worldwide

Engaging the Spirit World Kirsten W. Endres, Andrea Lauser, 2012-03-01 In many parts of the contemporary world spirit beliefs and practices have taken on a pivotal role in addressing the discontinuities and uncertainties of modern life The myriad ways in which devotees engage the spirit world show the tremendous creative potential of these practices and their innate adaptability to changing times and circumstances Through in depth anthropological case studies from Indonesia Malaysia Thailand Myanmar Laos and Vietnam the contributors to this book investigate the role and impact of different social political and economic dynamics in the reconfiguration of local spirit worlds in modern Southeast Asia Their findings contribute to the re enchantment debate by revealing that the spirited modernities that have emerged in the process not only embody a distinct feature of the contemporary moment but also invite a critical rethinking of the concept of modernity itself

Tides of Innovation in Oceania Elisabetta Gnecci-Ruscione, Anna Paini, 2017-04-07 Tides of Innovation in Oceania is directly inspired by Epeli Hau ofa s vision of the Pacific as a Sea of Islands the image of tides recalls the cyclical movement of waves with its unpredictable consequences The authors propose tides of innovation as a fluid concept unbound and open to many directions This perspective is explored through ethnographic case studies centred on deeply elaborated analyses of locally inflected agencies involved in different transforming contexts Three interwoven themes value materiality and place provide a common thread

Reproducing Chinese Culture in Diaspora Shu-min Huang, 2010-01-01 Reproducing Chinese Culture in Diaspora describes how a group of anti communist Chinese nationals managed to establish a farming community in Thailand s northern hills after voluntary exile from communist China in 1949 Though successful from an agricultural sustainability standpoint this community of Chinese exiles has rigidly maintained its cultural ideals driving away younger generations and ultimately threatening to derail the community s continued existence

Borders & Borderlands as Resources in the Horn of Africa Dereje Feyissa, Markus Virgil Höhne, 2010 Borders offer opportunities as well as restrictions and in the Horn of Africa they are used as economic political identity and status resources by borderland peoples State borders are more than barriers They structure social economic and political spaces and as such provide opportunities as well as obstacles for the communities straddling both sides of the border This book deals with the conduits and opportunities of state borders in the Horn of Africa and investigates how the people living there exploit state borders through various strategies Using a micro level perspective the case studies which include the Horn and Eastern Africa particularly the borders of Djibouti Eritrea Ethiopia Sudan Somalia Kenya Uganda and Tanzania focus on opportunities highlight the agency of the borderlanders and acknowledge the permeability but consequentiality of the borders DEREJE FEYISSA Max Planck Institute of Social Anthropology Halle Germany MARKUS VIRGIL HOEHNE Max Planck Institute of Social Anthropology Halle Germany

Transnational Flows and Permissive Politics Barak Kalir, Malini Sur, 2012 This book is a collection of ethnographies of transnational migration and border crossings in Asia Interdisciplinary in scope it addresses issues of mobility and Diaspora from various vantage points Unique to this volume is an emphasis of studying globalisation from below privileging the narratives and views of people on the move or the transnational underclass and their sense of belonging to places and communities The collection is further distinguished by its focus on the sources of authority and the social configurations that are created in the intersections between legality and illegality across Asia Though previous studies on transnational flows have deconstructed the notion of nation states as having fixed political boundaries and have engaged in spaces beyond the nation states seldom has an entire region Asia been privileged in one integrated volume We emphasize hitherto marginalized debates that have significant policy relevance Other than a serious academic interest from lecturers and students we are confident that book will be of significant interest for development practitioners and NGOs
