Rajini Srikanth, 2004 This book grows out of the question At this particular moment of tense geopolitics and inter linked economies what insights can South Asian American writing offer us about living in the world South Asian American literature with its focus on the multiple geographies and histories of the global dispersal of South Asians pulls back from a close up view of the United States to reveal a wider landscape of many nations and peoples South Asian American poets novelists and playwrights depict the nation as simultaneously discrete and entwined with the urgencies of places as diverse as Bangladesh Sri Lanka India Burma Pakistan and Trinidad Drawing on the cosmopolitan sensibility of scholars like Anthony Appiah Vinay Dharwadker Martha Nussbaum Bruce Robbins and Amartya Sen this book exhorts North American residents to envision connectedness with inhabitants of other lands The world out there arrives next door Caribbean Interfaces Lieven d' Hulst, 2007 Contemporary research on Caribbean literature displays a rich variety of themes literary and cultural categories forms genres languages Still the concept of a unified Caribbean literary space remains questionable depending upon whether one strictly limits it to the islands enlarges it to adopt a Latin American perspective or even grants it inter American dimensions This book is an ambitious tentative to bring together specialists from various disciplines neither just French Spanish English or Comparative studies specialists nor strictly Caribbean literature specialists but also theoreticians cultural studies scholars historians of cultural translation and of intercultural transfers The contributions tackle two major questions what is the best possible division of labor between comparative literature cultural anthropology and models of national or regional literary histories how should one make use of transversal concepts such as memory space linguistic awareness intercultural translation orature or hybridization Case studies and concrete projects for integrated research alternate with theoretical and historiographical contributions This volume is of utmost interest to students of Caribbean studies in general but also to anyone interested in Caribbean literatures in Spanish English and French as well as to students in comparative literature cultural studies and transfer research Twentieth-Century Caribbean Literature Alison Donnell, 2007-05-07 A historiography of Caribbean literary history and criticism the author explores different critical approaches and textual peepholes to re examine the way twentieth century Caribbean literature in English may be read and understood Flight from Certainty, 2021-11-01 Asian Canadian Writing Beyond Autoethnography Christl Verduyn, 2008-08-14 Asian Canadian Writing beyond Autoethnography explores some of the latest developments in the literary and cultural practices of Canadians of Asian heritage While earlier work by ethnic multicultural or minority writers in Canada was often concerned with immigration the moment of arrival issues of assimilation and conflicts between generations literary and cultural production in the new millennium no longer focuses solely on the conflict between the Old World and the New or the clashes between culture of origin and adopted culture No longer are minority authors identifying simply with their ethnic or racial cultural background in opposition to dominant culture The essays in this collection explore ways in which Asian Canadian authors and artists have gone beyond what Francoise Lionnet calls autoethnography or ethnographic autobiography They demonstrate the ways representations of race and ethnicity particularly in works by Asian Canadians in the last decade have changed have become more playful untraditional aesthetically and ideologically transgressive and exciting Jacket Sex, Identity, Aesthetics Jina B. Kim, Joshua Kupetz, Crystal Yin Lie, Cynthia Wu, 2021-10-12 The late Tobin Siebers was a pioneer of and one of the most prominent thinkers in the field of disability studies His scholarship on sexual and intimate affiliations the connections between structural location and coalitional politics and the creative arts has shaped disability studies and continues to be widely cited Sex Identity Aesthetics The Work of Tobin Siebers and Disability Studies uses Siebers work as a launchpad for thinking about contemporary disability studies The editors provide an overview of Siebers research to show how it has contributed to humanistic understandings of ability and disability along three key axes sex identity and aesthetics The first section of the book explores how disability provides a way for scholars to theorize a wider range of intimacies and relationalities arguing that disabled people seek sexual access and revolution in ways that transgress heteronormative dictates on sexual propriety The second part of the book works outward from Siebers work to looks at how disability broadens our concepts of social location and political affiliations The final section examines how disability challenges traditional notions of artistic beauty and agency Rather than being a strictly commemorative collection meant to mark the end of a major scholar s career this collection shows how Siebers foundational work in disability studies remains central to and continues to inspire scholars in the field today Teaching Anglophone Caribbean Literature Supriya M. Nair, 2012-10-01 This volume in the Options for Teaching series recognizes that the most challenging aspect of introducing students to anglophone Caribbean literature the sheer variety of intellectual and artistic traditions in Western and non Western cultures that relate to it also offers the greatest opportunities to teachers Courses on anglophone literature in the Caribbean can consider the region s specific histories and contexts even as they explore common issues the legacies of slavery colonialism and colonial education nationalism exile and migration identity and hybridity class and racial conflict gender and sexuality religion and ritual While considering how the availability of materials shapes syllabi this volume recommends print digital and visual resources for teaching The essays examine a host of topics including the following the development of multiethnic populations in the Caribbean and the role of various creole languages in the literature oral art forms such as dub poetry and reggae music the influence of anglophone literature in the Caribbean on literary movements outside it such as the Harlem Renaissance and black British writing Carnival religious rituals and beliefs specific genres such as slave narratives and autobiography film and drama the economics of rum Many essays list resources for further reading and the volume concludes with a section of additional teaching resources He Drown She in the Sea Shani Mootoo, 2006-06-09 A classic Romeo and Juliet love story spanning decades from the World War II Caribbean to modern day Vancouver The Washington Post Book World At the dawn of the Second World War on the island of Guanagaspar Harry the son of a widowed maid and Rose the daughter of his mother s well to do employer are inseparable as children Blissfully unaware they form a connection that knows nothing of race or class hierarchies defining their society Then one night after American troops occupy Guanagasparr their deep friendship is exposed and severed When Harry and Rose meet again in Canada years later the gulf separating them is not so apparent As a passion long repressed is rekindled Rose takes it upon herself to reroute their destinies A transcendent tale of souls wounded by circumstance and rehabilitated by love Booklist starred review He Drown She in the Sea is a lyrical sensuous and suspenseful story about the origins of desire and the sacrifice and euphoria that come with defying the life one is born into With a narrative pacing verging on genius The worlds revealed are lush and brilliant The journey is delightful Edmonton Journal Beyond the Blood, the Beach & the Banana Sandra Courtman, 2004 Beyond the Blood the Beach and the Banana emphasises the significance of the Caribbean in an increasingly globalised social world and draws attention to the contribution that scholarship in Caribbean Studies makes in coming to terms with a multi cultural heritage The compilation deliberately ranges in focus across periods geographies linguistic divisions and subject matter to present the fruition of significant research projects by 25 researchers from the Caribbean North America and Europe Contributors on the Hispanic Dutch African Indian and Anglophone Caribbean juxtaposed with work on the Caribbean diasporas of the USA UK Canada and the Netherlands enrich the text with multiple perspectives Madness in Anglophone Caribbean Literature Bénédicte Ledent, Evelyn O'Callaghan, Daria

Tunca, 2018-11-23 This collection takes as its starting point the ubiquitous representation of various forms of mental illness breakdown and psychopathology in Caribbean writing and the fact that this topic has been relatively neglected in criticism especially in Anglophone texts apart from the scholarship devoted to Jean Rhys's Wide Sargasso Sea 1966 The contributions to this volume demonstrate that much remains to be done in rethinking the trope of madness across Caribbean literature by local and diaspora writers This book asks how focusing on literary manifestations of apparent mental aberration can extend our understanding of Caribbean narrative and culture and can help us to interrogate the norms that have been used to categorize art from the region as well as the boundaries between notions of rationality transcendence and insanity across cultures Mythologies of Migration, Vocabularies of Indenture Mariam Pirbhai, 2009-01-01 Pirbhai uses the critical paradigm of indenture history to examine the local literary and cultural histories that have influenced and shaped the development of novel length fiction by writers of the South Asian diaspora in national contexts as diverse as Mauritius South Africa Guyana and Fiji Unreliable Truths Sissy Helff, 2013 While many people see home as the domestic sphere and place of belonging it is hard to grasp its manifold implications and even harder to provide a tidy definition of what it is Over the past century discussion of home and nation has been a highly complex matter with broad political ramifications including the realignment of nation states and national boundaries Against this backdrop this book suggests that home is constructed on the assumption that what it defines is constantly in flux and thus can never capture an objective perspective an ultimate truth Along these lines Unreliable Truths offers a comparative literary approach to the construction of home and concomitant notions of uncertainty and unreliable narration in South Asian diasporic women's literature from the UK Australia South Africa the Caribbean North America and Canada Writers discussed in detail include Feroza Jussawalla Suneeta Peres da Costa Meera Syal Farida Karodia Shani Mootoo Shobha D and Oonya Kempadoo With its focus on transcultural homes Unreliable Truths goes beyond discussions of diaspora from an established postcolonial point of view and contributes with its investigation of transcultural unreliable narration to the representation of a global South Asian diaspora Teaching

Literature in Translation Brian James Baer, Michelle Woods, 2022-07-29 The teaching of texts in translation has become an increasingly common practice but so too has the teaching of texts from languages and cultures with which the instructor may have little or no familiarity The authors in this volume present a variety of pedagogical approaches to promote translation literacy and to address the distinct phenomenology of translated texts The approaches set forward in this volume address the nature of the translator's task and how texts travel across linguistic and cultural boundaries in translation including how they are packaged for new audiences with the aim of fostering critical reading practices that focus on translations as translations The organizing principle of the book is the specific pedagogical contexts in which translated texts are being used such as courses on a single work survey courses on a single national literature or a single author and courses on world literature Examples are provided from the widest possible variety of world languages and literary traditions as well as modes of writing prose poetry drama film and religious and historical texts with the aim that many of the pedagogical approaches and strategies can be easily adapted for use with other works and traditions An introductory section by the editors Brian James Baer and Michelle Woods sets the theoretical stage for the volume Written and edited by authorities in the field of literature and translation this book is an essential manual for all instructors and lecturers in world and comparative literature and literary translation Asian American Literature in Transition, 1996-2020: Volume 4 Betsy Huang, Victor Román

Mendoza, 2021-06-17 This volume examines the concerns of Asian American literature from 1996 to the present This period was not only marked by civil unrest terror and militarization economic depression and environmental abuse but also unprecedented growth and visibility of Asian American literature This volume is divided into four sections that plots the trajectories of and tensions between social challenges and literary advances Part One tracks how Asian American literary productions of this period reckon with the effects of structures and networks of violence Part Two tracks modes of intimacy desires loves close friendships romances sexual relations erotic contacts that emerge in the face of neoimperialism neoliberalism and necropolitics Part Three traces the proliferation of genres in Asian American writing of the past quarter century in new and in well worn terrains Part Four surveys literary projects that speculate on future states of Asian America in domestic and global contexts
