Welcome to Russell Reynolds Associates!

Hellol

We hold our values in high regard, so you will need to get to know them intimately. We created this Employee Handbook to help you get started, keep track of our key initiatives and, most importantly, to make sure that you know our official company policies. It is the responsibility of every employee to hold others accountable for everything included in the Employee Handbook.

You should use the Employee Handbook and keep it handy as an ongoing reference. As you grow with our company, you may have suggestions on how to improve what is included in the Employee Handbook; please know that those suggestions are always welcome.

Sincerely,

It's Up to You! Therese Wales, 2011-12-01 The Compassionate Organization Ethan Chazin MBA, 2017-11-27 In his second book The Compassionate Organization Ethan Chazin business coach and organizational behavior expert explores how organizations build cultures that thrive by leveraging trust ethics and a moral compass developing powerfully engaging Vision and Mission statements and applying the best practices to build effective workplace cultures including hiring and retention strategies emotional intelligence effective communications branding diversity inclusion employee engagement and empowerment practices. The days of one employer per career are long gone In todays contract economy workers change jobs between eight to ten times by the time they reach 35 years old Mature workers and Baby Boomers are leaving the workplace by the tens of thousands every day This mass exodus of the Mature workforce and Baby Boomers coincides with Millennial workers taking over roles of increasing importance within organizations Estimates are Millennials will constitute 75 80% of the American workforce by 2020 Organizations have been flattening out their employee ranks by casting off layers of middle management the last few decades With this huge transfer in the balance of power from older to younger American workers Millennials bring with them into the workplace a new set of organizational values beliefs about work and a set of ethics and expectations about appropriate organizational behavior Millennials expect that the organizations they work for and buy from share their values possess a moral compass and must care for the environment Thus understanding how to build and maintain a compassionate organization should be top of mind for anyone tasked with launching growing staffing and leading an organization The HR Guide to European Mergers and Acquisitions James F. Klein, Robert-Charles Kahn, 2017-05-15 News of a merger or acquisition is a big event in the life of a company which stirs uncertainty anxiety and fear The changes redundancies and so on that often follow this news are a further source of turmoil for the employees of both companies involved There is no magic formula to avoid these effects completely However good planning communication and human resource practice can mitigate the worst of them keep everyone that matters on board and ensure that the new organization maintains your reputation for sensitive people management Get it wrong on the other hand and you may lose the very people you were most anxious to keep put the success of the process at risk and even face employment tribunals or other legal proceedings In addition imagine how these processes are complicated by any transnational elements James F Klein and Robert Charles Kahn provide a practical hands on guide to successfully integrating HR functions following any merger or acquisition within Europe The book guides you step by step providing the methodology tools sequence of events and necessary material It includes comparative tables tips and stories illustrating the differences specific issues and pitfalls that are particular to the different European countries 20 years of human resources experience across companies in continental Europe has gone into creating this blueprint to successfully implementing the people side of successful mergers and acquisitions Forward-Looking Practices to Onboard Generation Z at Entry-Level Dr. Assefa Belay Wondim, 2024-12-12 Forward Looking Practices to Onboard Generation Z at Entry Level depicts the doctoral study of Dr Assefa Belay Wondim conducted at Capella University The doctoral study is about the identification of a set of forward looking practices to effectively onboard Gen Z new employees at the entry level as viewed by a nationwide panel of human resource policy experts and the determination of the extent to which there was a consensus of opinion among these experts as to the desirability feasibility and importance of these practices The outcome and findings of the project could have significance for practitioners and business organizations engaged in onboarding Gen Zs as well as for the body of knowledge in the field of HRM The project findings could serve as a blueprint on how to manage the talent of Gen Zs by understanding and aligning the work needs values and expectations of Gen Zs for onboarding with organizational onboarding practices The talent management of Gen Z might through effective onboarding practices contribute to a reduction in employee turnover which in turn could result in onboarding cost reduction and an increase in productivity for the organization Although the doctoral study findings primarily relate to the IT industry the project outcomes could also be applied to other business organizations to minimize employee turnover reduce onboarding costs and increase new hires productivity. The utility of the consensus based desirable and feasible solutions may go beyond onboarding Gen Z new employees The experts have expressed their 100% confidence in the utility of the consensus based desirable and feasible solutions for onboarding new employees across generations About the Author Dr Assefa Belay Wondim is a former employee of the United Nations Organization During his long service with the Organization Dr Wondim has accumulated rich knowledge in intergovernmental socio economic peace and security and administrative affairs During his tenure with the UN he excelled in research and development project management human resource management strategic planning and execution team building leadership and administration Dr Wondim is member of the National Association of African Americans in Human Resources NAAAHR the global and Jacksonville Florida chapters of the Society of Human Resource Management SHRM and SHRMJAX and the Xi Delta chapter Capella University of the Delta Mu Delta International Honor Society in Business Dr Wondim obtained a BSc degree in Mathematics and MSc degree in Demography in Ethiopia He also obtained a Doctor of Business Administration degree in human resource management in the USA Dr Wondim has written an autobiography book titled Zantai My Life Story He is happily married and blessed with four successful children ATD's
