Christopher Halt,2018-09-20 They've lived among us for decades without incident Until now After Chase Madison is arrested for selling his ADHD meds he stumbles onto a shocking conspiracy within the criminal justice system A group of people living among us seemingly not from our planet use a mental power called psy to subtly influence others controlling events and governing outcomes When Chase discovers that this unusual group has begun to closely monitor him he calls upon the skills of his criminal past to peel back the layers within their organization But what he doesn't know is that their interest in him is due to their inability to control him Their psy is ineffective against him His unique immunity to their mental power is in fact Attention Deficit Disorder The disability which has plagued him his entire life has now become his greatest strength It also makes him a threat

The Social Fact John P. Wihbey,2019-04-23 How the structure of news information and knowledge is evolving and how news media can foster social connection While the public believes that journalism remains crucial for democracy there is a general sense that the news media are performing this role poorly In The Social Fact John Wihbey makes the case that journalism can better serve democracy by focusing on ways of fostering social connection Wihbey explores how the structure of news information and knowledge and their flow through society are changing and he considers ways in which news media can demonstrate the highest possible societal value in the context of these changes Wihbey examines network science as well as the interplay between information and communications technologies ICTs and the structure of knowledge in society He discusses the underlying patterns that characterize our increasingly networked world of information with its viral phenomena and whiplash inducing trends its extremes and surprises How can the traditional media world be reconciled with the world of social peer to peer platforms crowdsourcing and user generated content Wihbey outlines a synthesis for news producers and advocates innovation in approach form and purpose The Social Fact provides a valuable framework for doing audience engaged media work of many kinds in our networked hybrid media environment It will be of interest to all those concerned about the future of news and public affairs
