Conversations with Sarah Schulman Will Brantley, 2024-01-30 The twenty four interviews collected in Conversations with Sarah Schulman roughly a fifth of those that exist have enabled Schulman to expound upon her distinctive fusion of art and social commitment Ranging from major forums to smaller venues and covering a period of more than thirty years these interviews provide full evidence of Schulman s value as a pivotal player in the intellectual life of her time Schulman s career as a writer activist teacher and oral historian is now in its fifth decade Spanning multiple fiction genres her eleven novels include After Delores 1988 Rat Bohemia 1995 The Child 2007 and Maggie Terry 2018 A native New Yorker Schulman b 1958 writes for the people that she writes about women and men making the most of a society that seems continually marked by homophobia which Schulman regards as less a phobia than an unacknowledged pleasure system Readers have come to relish Schulman s provocations nowhere more so than through her books of nonfiction on topics such as gentrification and the interlocking nature of conflict and abuse And since the early 1980s when Schulman worked as a journalist readers have come to applaud her searing indictments of the nation s woeful response to its AIDS crisis Schulman has received the Kessler Award from CLAGS The Center for LGBTQ Studies in honor of her body of work that has influenced the field of gay and lesbian studies as well as the Bill Whitehead Award from Publishing Triangle for lifetime achievement She holds an endowed chair in creative writing at Northwestern University
