

FBHS Cheerleading Commitment Contract

Cheerleading is an honor and a responsibility. It is both an individual and a team activity. Cheerleaders work together to control the crowd and spirit of our school. A cheerleader must set a good example for others to follow- at all times. Cheerleading is a commitment, but it should be fun. With this in mind, listed are some basic rules to follow so that we may have a safe, enjoyable, and spirited season.

Cheerleaders must attend ALL practices, events, games, and competitions in the proper attire and uniform. A uniform consist of tennis shoes, white socks, practice shorts, practice shirt, blousier, sports bra, skirt, shell, and bow. Cheerleaders in season MUST keep nails short (below fingertips) with NO POLISH or COLOR of any kind. Cheerleaders must be have hair pulled up completely off the shoulders in a ponytail BEFORE the start of a practice, event, game, or competition. Cheerleaders WILL NOT wear any form of jewelry during practice, events, games, or competitions. These are GHSA rules and regulations and when broken our program is subject to be fined.

As a FBHS Cheerleader, you are placed in a leadership position. As a leader, you are to present yourself in a positive manner at all times. Please understand that if you participate in social media, you are responsible for anything you post. This includes, but is not limited to photos you post, statuses or tweets you post or retweet, groups you join, pictures others post of you, and statuses or tweets others post to your page. It is important to exercise care while using social media and to understand that what may seem private in the digital world can often become public, even without knowledge or consent. This contract will be used to ensure a positive representation of the student-athlete, the FBHS Cheerleading program, Flowery Branch High School, and Hall County Public Schools.

Practice will not be productive unless we have each and every member of the squad in attendance. When you miss something, you let both your coach and your team down. You are expected to be prompt and to attend all practices for the entire practice session for they are MANDATORY. Death in the family and sickness with a doctors' excuses are viable reasons to miss practice.

1st offense- Cheerleader will be given a verbal warning

2nd offense- Cheerleader will be benched from the next scheduled event (ex. Pep rally, game, or competition that follows right after second offense occurs.)

3rd offense- Dismissal from the team

souls The Commitment Cure: How to Overcome Fears of Long-Term Love Margaret Light,2024-12-26 The Commitment Cure How to Overcome Fears of Long Term Love is a transformative guide for those struggling with the challenges of long term relationships This insightful book dives into the roots of commitment fears offering practical strategies to overcome doubts heal past wounds and embrace the joys of enduring love Through expert advice and real life examples readers will learn to build trust communicate effectively and foster emotional intimacy Whether you re hesitant about taking the next step or looking to strengthen your bond The Commitment Cure empowers you to conquer your fears and create a fulfilling lasting partnership Your journey to fearless love begins here The Athlete's Covenant Suzanne Stefanowski Hudd,2019-12-09 Using everyday sporting experiences as a foundation Suzanne Stefanowski Hudd lays out a set of informal rules that athletic team members learn to uphold Prescribed within the athlete s covenant these guidelines support the transformation of the player s individual commitment to hard work into a set of collective role related obligations that are applicable across time and sport Hudd s analysis highlights sportsmanship as it is practiced daily flowing naturally from the mimicry and synchrony that players routinely use to perfect their talents Working to turn star players into team players the covenant encourages athletes to set their sights on goals that surpass what their individual talents alone can provide Hudd theorizes our waning commitment to these important collectivistic properties of sport has contributed to the belief that sportsmanship is a thing of the past Scrum Your Jira! Clemens Lode,2017-08-09 This book challenges two illusions that can get in the way of your company s road to being genuinely Agile first that your Scrum is special and second that you can hide behind project management software JIRA is powerful and this book will show you how to use it more effectively but it makes it easy to forget that the first idea of Agile is Individuals and interactions over processes and tools This book begins with the origin of Scrum rugby Unlike in football or soccer in rugby there is a strong team emphasis and few to no roles This is what makes Scrum different from Waterfall which is focused on hiring only specialists and then shifting work from one department to the next a tiresome approach especially in today s knowledge focused industries Building multidisciplinary teams is a crucial element to achieving an Agile company Sharing knowledge by working together as a team removing production phases and focusing on quick delivery can be achieved The key is to transform your departments into individual teams that can do everything related to their part of a feature or product This leads us to the tools People tend to forget what Scrum is really about Purposefully not using certain JIRA features to create new stories will help to remedy that situation There is a great deal that JIRA does and does not do compared to the pen and paper approach Two examples are the acceptance criteria and the definition of done Here there is often no clear decision made about how to integrate them into JIRA They exist somewhere in the documentation or implicitly in people s heads But with a plug in and some workflow programming we can automate the definition of done elegantly All the information needed to complete a story in one place great With the tools and numbers in order the focus moves to the team Often it is the last or middle chain of production The team is not trusted to deliver the full product Instead management makes essential decisions because the best people were moved out of the team into management roles With Scrum it is vital to have the team own the product If this is not done you will face several tricky issues One particular topic related to ownership is the sprint its estimation and the commitment to it Not without reason Scrum was changed a few years ago to replace commitment with forecast Striking the right balance between the product owner and the team is crucial If the team does not own the sprint in its totality including deciding on its own how to complete it the team will consciously or unconsciously blame the people who meddled with it Leading the team to make smarter estimations is an excellent way to win over both sides and increase productivity All that said and the work done it is time for delivery right Too often I see that people confuse Scrum sprints with development sprints Scrum is the business side to check on you to communicate with the client to plan in chunks etc But delivery That can be done at any time If you ever encounter a team that delivers at the end of the sprint you will see many Waterfall elements in play As your projects grow you will need to add more people and teams Organizing them in JIRA can be tricky but there are ways the software can help you to accomplish the task Finally there are several ideas relating to your daily Scrum Master routine to help you to do your work better From psychology to small productivity tips big things are achieved in small steps Where does your team stand in terms of Agile Are you making the most of Scrum This book was written with an experienced Scrum Masters in mind It trusts that you already know the basics so the chapters will jump right into the day to day challenges as well as the global idea of Agile organizations

New Giants Rising Paul D. Fisher, 2018-01-31 The greatest concern for all Americans today leaders and followers alike is how their prosperity seems to depend on a shrinking foundation of technology only growth And the onset of artificial intelligence only threatens to marginalize people even more with job loss and increasing isolation inside the few remaining jobs that it will leave behind This book helps us understand that business growth fueled by labor productivity does not rely on leadership as we've come to celebrate it but on our ability to sustain loyalty and commitment to one another a following if you will inside and outside our workplaces When we recognize and understand our historical Followership Cycles we can begin to restore our workplaces to their lost role as a place to meet the demand of all Americans for a better future This illuminating book Provides a new sustainable growth model based in the socioeconomic realities of modern America and the world it wants to lead a new Followership System Tells the story of how one profession on the brink of disappearing into irrelevance will lead the new Decision Economy into the 21st century Demonstrates the development of the leaderless specialists who will manage evidence together to pursue a Reason to Grow Stresses the importance of charging all C Suite executives with leading a continuous process of discovering articulating and then defending those stakeholder agreements to share purpose Reveals not the technology infrastructure but the social architecture that organizations will use to build new social capital the Followership that will propel our New Giants to future greatness New Giants Rising takes us on a journey of the Followership Cycles of our recent past And more importantly it puts forth a plan of action voiced very simply by Henry Ford during the last cycle over a century ago when he faced the same moment then as we do now Coming Together is the Start Keeping Together is Progress Working Together is Success Because I Said So! Lauri Berkenkamp, Steven C Atkins, 2003-07-01 For parents everywhere whose kids complain about helping around the house stall over homework and bicker with one other help is at hand With compassion and humor this book takes on the most common points of kid induced friction those altercations and annoying behaviors that drive parents most nuts and offers quick practical how to advice for how to handle them It explains to parents how to navigate everyday challenges from helping kids learn responsibility for their possessions to getting them to stop tattling whining and using disrespectful language Complete with solutions helpful hints and interesting bits of information this indispensable guide offers exasperated parents the emotional support and reassurance they need to reduce friction and increase communication in the household
