Catbird Seat Study Guide Answers:

The Catbird Seat Rebecca Hollingsworth, 2022-09-27 Past meets present in South Carolina At first Gillian Culkin feels only mildly inconvenienced by crowds of demonstrators debating the presence of the Confederate flag flying brazenly atop the South Carolina State House Gil passes these people every day as she makes her way to work in the Caroliniana Library on the University of South Carolina campus Like so many other White Southerners she had never before given much thought to racial issues But over the course of a few weeks she comes to realize that the flag represents important and entrenched issues of race and inequality Gil finds her views on race developing and evolving as she examines the past and sees its influence on the present Meanwhile at the Caroliniana she studies the 1857 diary of a South Carolina dirt farmer named William Medlin Hollingsworth makes him the center of a second story Thinking to turn a quick profit Medlin buys a slave at auction In the course of the tragic journey he then undertakes with his newly acquired slave Medlin s views of enslavement change The two narratives one told in the present the other in the past in alternating chapters provide a probing and insightful look at what it means to be human within an often inhumane system From the Catbird Seat Kathryn L.
