Decoding Homes And Houses:

Decoding Homes and Houses Julianne Hanson, 2003-10-16 Exploration of the relationship between the design of housing and domestic routine Housing and Dwelling Barbara Miller Lane, 2006-11 A collection of thought provoking essays on the changing face of domestic architecture over two centuries highlighting the wide range of source materials and theoretical perspectives available to scholars of architectural history Place and Phenomenology Janet Donohoe, 2017-03-17 This cross disciplinary book uses phenomenological method and description to explore questions of place underscoring the significance of phenomenology for place and place for phenomenology The book brings together prominent scholars in phenomenology of place Covering a range of issues from sacred places to embodiment and identity and from environmental art and architecture to limit places the contributors explore theoretical foundations through thinkers such as Heidegger Marion Young Husserl and Leopold among others Phenomenological method and description are brought to bear on concrete places such as rivers the Himalayas modern transit sacred architecture and more The book is accessible and pertinent to on going discussions in human geography architectural theory environmental studies and philosophy of place Provocative and imaginative the essays provide a much needed look at the contributions of phenomenology to as well as the role of place in contemporary philosophical and environmental discussions De Stijl and Dutch Modernism Michael White, 2003-09-20 The name De Stijl title of a magazine founded in the Netherlands in 1917 is now used to identify the abstract art and functional architecture of its major contributors Mondrian Van Doesburg Van der Leek Oud Wils and Rietveld De Stijl achieved international acclaim by the end of the 1920s and its paintings buildings and furniture made fundamental contributions to the modern movement This book is the first to emphasize the local context of De Stijl and explore its relationship to the distinctive character of Dutch modernism It examines how the debates concerning abstraction in painting and spatiality in architecture were intimately connected to contemporary developments in the fields of urban planning advertising interior design and exhibition design The book describes the interaction between the world of mass culture and the fine arts Courtyard Housing Brian Edwards, 2006 This book demonstrates through discussions on sustainability and regional identity and via a series of case studies that the courtyard housing form has a future as well as a past Houses of Ill Repute Allison Glazebrook, Barbara Tsakirgis, 2016-05-18 Houses of Ill Repute is the first book to focus on the difficulties of distinguishing between private homes and buildings such as brothels and taverns which housed activities neither public nor private in ancient Greece providing a way forward for the study of domestic and entertainment spaces in the Hellenic world The Value of Housing Design and Layout Great Britain. Commission for Architecture and the Built Environment, 2003 National opinion surveys consistently show that a significant section of the house buying public would never consider purchasing a new house preferring more established neighbourhoods and building stock House builders must therefore look to offer more attractive designs Innovative thinking integration with existing communities and investment in quality are the key elements that will persuade people that they want to live in modern housing Housing Amjad Almusaed, Asaad Almssad, 2018-11-28 This book is proposed as both a general reading of the discipline for students in architecture and urban planning and offers a variety of materials for professionals of local and international organizations It brings together studies with new perspectives and relevant subjects from different geographical areas The book gathers the contributions of international researchers and experts It is divided into three parts and eight chapters Part I Introduction to Housing Affairs includes a chapter that discusses a general reading of housing as meaning and action in social economic and environmental city life Part II Case Studies Upon Housing Policies includes four chapters It consists of many examples from different geographical areas and domains Part III Housing Quality and Affordability includes three chapters housing quality sustainability and development are the main subjects for this part Charleston and Monk's House Nuala Hancock, 2012-06-27 The interwoven biographies of Virginia Woolf and Vanessa Bell and the houses they lived in What can we learn from a commemorative house What biographical narratives emerge as we travel through the spaces of another's home This new study unveils the revelatory potential of the house museum to inform and enrich our understanding of the lived past of its former inhabitants It focuses on the emotionally textured interiors of Charleston and Monk's House the literary artistic house museums of Virginia Woolf and Vanessa Bell seeking out traces of their shared biography Fresh perspectives unfold on Woolf's and Bell's sisterhood and their continuous artistic exchange as we shadow their daily lives through the richly painted rooms and atmospheric gardens of their former Sussex homes Discover these celebrated artists in a different light animated moving handling the tools of their related arts and brought vividly to life through the tangible fabric of their past living Designing the British Post-War Home Fiona Fisher, 2015-04-10 In Designing the British Post War Home Fiona Fisher explores the development of modern domestic architecture in Britain through a detailed study of the work of the successful Surrey based architectural practice of Kenneth Wood Wood's firm is representative of a geographically distinct category of post war architectural and design practice that of the small private practice that flourished in Britain's expanding suburbs after the removal of wartime building restrictions Such firms which played an important role in the development of British domestic design are currently under represented within architectural histories of the period The private house represents an important site in which new spatial material and aesthetic parameters for modern living were defined after the Second World War Within a British context the architect designed private house remained an important vehicle for the investigation of architectural ideas by second generation modernist architects and designers Through a series of case study houses designed by Wood's firm the book reconsiders the progress of modern domestic architecture in Britain and demonstrates the ways in which architectural discourse and practice intersected with the experience performance and representation of domestic modernity in post war Britain The Inner Lives of Ancient Houses Jennifer A. Baird, 2014 Dura Europos on the Syrian Euphrates is one of the best preserved and most extensively excavated sites of the Roman world A Hellenistic foundation later held by the Parthians and then the Romans Dura had a Roman military garrison installed within its city walls before it was taken by the Sasanians in the mid third century The Inner Lives of Ancient Houses is the first study to consider the houses of the site as a whole The houses were excavated by a team from Yale and the French Academy of Inscriptions and Letters in the 1920s and 30s and though a wealth of archaeological and textual material was recovered most of that relating to housing was never published Through a combination of archival information held at the Yale University Art Gallery and new fieldwork with the Mission Franco Syrienne d Euopos Doura this study re evaluates the houses of the site integrating architecture artefacts and textual evidence and examining ancient daily life and cultural interaction as well as considering houses which were modified for use by the Roman military

Capturing the Senses Giacomo Landeschi,Eleanor Betts,2023-06-12 This open access book surveys how digital technology can contribute effectively to improving our understanding of the past through a sensory engagement based on the evidence of material culture In particular it encourages specialists to consider senses and human agency as important factors in studying ancient space while recognising the role played by digital tools in enhancing a human centred form of analysis Significant advances in archaeological computing digital methods and sensory approaches have led archaeologists to rethink strategies and methods for creating narratives of the past Recent progress in data visualisation and implementation as well as other nascent digital sensory methods means that it is now easier to explore and experience ancient space from a multiscalar perspective from the individual body or single building to the wider landscape The chapters in Capturing the Senses Digital Methods for Sensory Archaeologies present innovative methods for representing an embodied experience of ancient space simulating but not recreating ancient behaviours and social interaction Chapters cover topics including the potentials and pitfalls of visualising recreating and re enacting experiencing the senses in Virtual Reality environments and also digital reconstructions and auralisations of ancient spaces to study sound sensory perception Overall the book demonstrates that multisensory approaches can give a new perspective on how ancient spaces were intended to be used by inhabitants to fulfil a series of purposes including conveying messages and regulating movement This is an open access book

The Production of Hospice Space Sarah McGann,2016-03-03 Challenging the widely held notion of a hospice as a building or a place this book argues that it should instead be a philosophy of care It proposes that the positive and negative impact that space can have in the pursuit of an ideal such as hospice care has previously been underestimated Whether it be a purpose built hospice part of a hospital a nursing home or within the home a hospice is anchored by space and spatial practices and these spatial practices are critical for a holistic approach to dying with dignity Such spatial practices are understood as part of a broad architectural social conceptual and theoretical process By linking health social and architectural theory and establishing conceptual principles this book defines hospice as a philosophy that is underpinned by space and spatial practice In putting forward the notion of hospice space removed from the bounds of a specific building type it suggests that hospice philosophy could and should be available within any setting of choice where the spatial practices support that philosophy be it home nursing home hospice or hospice friendly hospitals

Kavousi IIC INSTAP Academic Press, 2016-12-31 This book is the third volume in the final report of the cleaning and excavations at the Late Minoan IIC settlement of Vronta located near Kavousi in eastern Crete that were conducted between 1983 and 1992 Detailed analyses of the architecture pottery other finds including figurines and stone tools and botanical and faunal remains are presented in this volume along with a complete history of the site and an attempt to reconstruct the social political and religious organization of the settlement

The Oxford Conference Susan Roaf, Andrew Bairstow, 2008 50 years after the first Oxford Conference on Architectural Education the 2008 conference brought together over 500 people from 42 countries to share best practice discuss how when where and why we teach architecture now and in the future

Multimodality in the Built Environment Louise J. Ravelli, Robert J. McMurtrie, 2015-11-19 This book provides an extended exploration of the multimodal analysis of spatial three dimensional texts of the built environment culminating in a holistic approach termed Spatial Discourse Analysis SpDA Based on existing frameworks of multimodal analysis this book applies adapts and extends these frameworks to spatial texts

The authors argue that choices in spatial design create meanings about what we perceive and how we can or should behave within spatial texts influence how we feel in and about those spaces and enable these texts to function as coherent wholes. Importantly a spatial text once built is also a resource which is then used and an essential aspect of understanding these texts is to consider what users themselves contribute to the meaning potential of these texts. The book takes the metafunctional approach familiar from Systemic Functional Linguistics (SFL) and foregrounds each metafunction in turn: textual, interpersonal, experiential and logical in relation to the detailed analysis of a particular spatial text.

Responsive Architecture Dusan Katunsky, Jeffrey Huang, 2019-11-20. This book is a collection of articles that have been published in the Special Issue Responsive Architecture of the MDPI journal Buildings. The eleven articles within cover various areas of sensitive architecture including the design of packaging structures reacting to supporting components, structural efficiency of bent columns in indigenous houses, roof forms responsive to buildings depending on their resiliently transformed steel shell parts, creative design of building free shapes covered with transformed shells, artistic structural concepts of the architect and civil engineer, digitally designed airport terminal using wind analysis, rationalized shaping of sensitive curvilinear steel construction, interactive stories of responsive architecture, transformed shell roof constructions as the main determinant in the creative shaping of buildings without shapes that are sensitive to man-made and natural environments, thermally sensitive performances of a special shielding envelope on balconies, quantification of generality and adaptability of building layout using the SAGA method and influence of initial conditions on the simulation of the transient temperature field inside a wall.
