Introduction to Deconstruction - Textbook (Oregon State Edition) Building Materials Reuse Association,2012-04-17 The Building Materials Reuse Association is a 501 c 3 non profit educational and advocacy organization whose mission is to advance building deconstruction and the reuse of building materials This textbook has been developed as the foundation of our comprehensive building deconstruction training program and the Designated Deconstructor Credential that distinguishes professionals in the field It is a critical resource for any individual who is interested in entering the field of deconstruction or simply improving their existing practice Organized around the ten core competencies of deconstruction practice this book covers all aspects of a project From evaluating the site and identifying potential hazards to planning and executing the complete structural removal of a building this book is the most comprehensive guide available today Critical Qualitative Research in Social Education Cameron White,2015-03-01 Critical qualitative research informs social education through a lens that ensures the investigation of issues in education tied to power and privilege ultimately leading to advocacy and activism The concept of critical is increasingly challenged in this age of neoliberal reform nevertheless critical implies questioning investigating and challenging in terms of equity and social justice leading to critical consciousness Freire 1970 While we resist defining social education as hopefully these ideas concepts are fluid the idea stems from a continual analysis and synthesis of critical theory critical pedagogy media and cultural studies social reconstruction social justice and social studies education framed by culturally responsive pedagogy A social education take on critical qualitative research thus suggests multiple truths and perspectives and focuses on questions rather than answers While many have written on qualitative educational research and some have attempted to integrate critical pedagogy and qualitative research few have explored the specific idea of social education and critical qualitative research A major issue is that social education claims that there are no set procedures scripted approaches or narrow definitions as to the possibilities of research endeavors Social education researchers make the process and investigation their own and adapt questions procedures methods and strategies throughout the experience This reflects an ever changing criticality in the bricolage of the research Steinberg 2011 Critical qualitative research and social education are vital for the world of the 21st century The onslaught of neoliberalism corporatization standardization testing and the continuing attack on public schools and educators necessitate critical approaches to teaching and learning along with critical qualitative research in social education Ongoing issues with equity and social justice tied to race ethnicity class orientation age and ability linking to schooling education teaching and learning must be addressed The struggle between unbridled capitalism and democracy warrant these investigations in the 21st century hopefully leading to advocacy and activism Science Teacher Preparation in Content-Based Second Language Acquisition Alandeom W. Oliveira,Molly H. Weinburgh,2016-10-25 The primary purpose of this book is to provide science teacher educators with exemplars of professional development programs designed to prepare school teachers to effectively help language learners in science classrooms simultaneously gain language proficiency and conceptual understanding To this end this book examines seventeen science teacher preparation programs that span a wide variety of grade levels elementary middle and secondary countries Italy Luxemburg Spain UK and US and linguistic contexts English as a Second Language English as a Foreign Language trilingual classrooms and teaching deaf children science through sign language The book is divided into three main parts Each part consists of chapters that illustrate a common cross cutting theme in science teacher preparation in content based second language acquisition namely pre service teacher preparation in service teacher preparation and international perspectives Each part provides many insights on the similarities and differences in the professional development approaches used to prepare science teaching with varied amounts of instructional experience help students in different parts of the world overcome linguistic barriers while simultaneously learning concepts central to science Bringing together researchers from various academic backgrounds science education TESOL and Applied Linguistics attention is given to varied facets of the intersection of science and language learning in the specific context of school teacher preparation
