Deep Rhetoric Deep Rhetoric:

Deep Rhetoric James Crosswhite, 2013-04-01 Rhetoric is the counterpart of logic claimed Aristotle Rhetoric is the first part of logic rightly understood Martin Heidegger concurred Rhetoric is the universal form of human communication opined Hans Georg Gadamer But in Deep Rhetoric James Crosswhite offers a groundbreaking new conception of rhetoric one that builds a definitive case for an understanding of the discipline as a philosophical enterprise beyond basic argumentation and is fully conversant with the advances of the New Rhetoric of Cha m Perelman and Lucie Olbrechts Tyteca Chapter by chapter Deep Rhetoric develops an understanding of rhetoric not only in its philosophical dimension but also as a means of guiding and conducting conflicts achieving justice and understanding the human condition Along the way Crosswhite restores the traditional dignity and importance of the discipline and illuminates the twentieth century resurgence of rhetoric among philosophers as well as the role that rhetoric can play in future discussions of ontology epistemology and ethics At a time when the fields of philosophy and rhetoric have diverged Crosswhite returns them to their common moorings and shows us an invigorating new way forward

The Rhetorical Power of Children's Literature John H. Saunders, 2016-12-21 The Rhetorical Power of Children's Literature is an edited volume with contributions from established and new scholars of rhetoric offering case studies that analyze a full array of genres in children's literature from picture books to young adult novels Collectively this volume's contributions interrogate how children's literature is a powerful yet under examined space of rhetorical discourse that influences one of the most vulnerable segments of our population This book is singularly unique given that it will be the first collection of essays on children's literature from the distinct perspective of the field of Communication Beyond topical novelty the contributors utilize a range of scholarly methods to analyze instances of the rhetoric of children's literature Consequently essays in this volume may be read for both their specific topical content and as exemplars for multiple methodological approaches to the study of the rhetoric of children's literature Collectively the contributors set out to contribute to our knowledge of how instances of children's literature operate as rhetorical discourses The volume is organized by case studies approached through critical rhetorical lenses that analyze specific instances of children's literature from two distinct stages of children's developmental reading experiences including pre early literacy and fluent reading Structurally the book includes eight content chapters divided evenly with four chapters analyzing books for young children and four chapters analyzing books targeting audiences from late childhood to adolescence An overview of each content chapter accompanies this proposal

Professing Rhetoric Frederick J. Antczak, Cinda Coggins, Geoffrey D. Klinger, 2005-04-11 Representing current theory and research in rhetoric this volume brings together scholarship from a variety of orientations theoretical critical historical and pedagogical Some contributions cover work that has previously been silenced or unrecognized including Native American

African American Latino and women's rhetorics Others explore rhetoric's relationship to performance and to the body or to revising canons, stases, topoi and pisteis Still others are reworking the rhetorical lexicon to comprise contemporary theory Among these diverse interests rhetoricians find common themes and share intellectual and pedagogical enterprises that hold them together even as their institutional situations keep them apart Topics discussed in this collection include Rhetoric as figurality comparative and contrastive rhetorics rhetoric and gender and rhetorics of science and technology Rhetoric and reconceptions of the public sphere rhetoric and public memory and rhetorics of globalization and social change including issues of race ethnicity and nationalism Rhetoric's institutionalized place in the academy in relation to other humanities and to the interpretive social sciences and The place of rhetoric in the formation of departments and the development of pedagogy With its origins in the 2000 Rhetoric Society of America RSA conference this volume represents the range and vitality of current scholarship in rhetoric The conversations contained herein indicate that professing rhetoric is at the turn of the millennium an intellectual activity that engages with and helps formulate the most important public and scholarly questions of today As such it will be engaging reading for scholars and students and is certain to provoke further thought discussion and exploration

Persuasions of God Paul Lynch, 2024-02-20 The nations of the global north find themselves in a post secular or post Christian period one in which the practice, expression and effects of religion are undergoing massive shifts In Persuasions of God Paul Lynch pursues a project of theorhetoric a radical new approach to speaking about the divine Searching for new religious forms amid the lingering influence of Christianity Lynch turns to René Girard the most important twentieth century thinker on the sacred and its expression within the Christian tradition Lynch repurposes Girard's mimetic theory to invent a post Christian way of speaking to for and especially about God Girard theorized the sacred as the nexus of violence order and sacralization that lies at the heart of religion What Lynch advocates in our current moment of religious kairos is a paradoxically meek rhetoric that conscientiously refuses rivalry actively exploits tradition through complicit invention and boldly seeks a holiness free of exclusionary violence The project of theorhetoric is to reinvent God through the reimagined themes of meekness sacrifice atonement and holiness From these Persuasions of God offers religion reimagined for our post secular age An interdisciplinary mix of philosophy sociology rhetorical studies and theology this book draws on mimetic theory to answer the question of where religion goes next It will be valued by religious studies and communications scholars as well as anyone interested in the future of Christianity in our modern world

Toward a Critical Rhetoric on the Israel-Palestine Conflict Matthew

Abraham,2015-07-01 This edited collection brings together a group of rhetoricians seeking to develop productive ways to discuss the Israel Palestine conflict while avoiding the discursive impasses that so often derail attempts to exchange points of view

The Rhetoricity of Philosophy Blake D. Scott,2024-08-02 This book aims to recast the way that philosophers understand rhetoric Rather than follow most philosophers in conceiving rhetoric as a specific way of speaking or writing it shows that rhetoric is better understood as a dimension of all human discourse and action what the author calls rhetoricity This book provides the first philosophical treatment of rhetoricity It is motivated by two ongoing developments The first is the debate between Alain Badiou and Barbara Cassin about philosophy's relation to rhetoric Both Badiou and Cassin are critical of rhetoric albeit for different reasons Second there has been a growing resurgence of interest in rhetoric considering the recent rise in authoritarian politics as well as new forms of propaganda driven by persuasive technologies This book identifies the common target of Badiou's and Cassin's otherwise incompatible critiques rhetoric's conception of audience It offers a fresh take on the new rhetoric project of Cha m Perelman and Lucie Olbrechts Tyteca putting their work into conversation with the Badiou Cassin debate The book then turns to the hermeneutic philosophy of Paul Ricoeur in search of an expanded conception of audience It shows that Ricoeur's hermeneutic philosophy allows us to extend Perelman and Olbrechts Tyteca's psychological notion of audience to texts themselves and to argue that human beings have a rhetorical capacity to reflect on audiences in search of what is potentially persuasive The Rhetoricity of Philosophy will be of interest to scholars and advanced students working in contemporary European philosophy rhetoric argumentation studies and social theory

Educational Research: Proofs, Arguments, and Other Reasonings Paul Smeyers,Marc Depaepe,2009-10-08 This book focuses on the language of educational research as well as on the language of education It conceives both as social practices and investigates how rhetoric plays a part in the complex process of historically situated argumentation The book aims to answer such questions as What is the nature of the arguments and the kinds of sources one relies on and What kind of reasoning is offered to convince practitioners Taking postmodern criticism seriously the contributors argue that the scholar or researcher cannot indulge in relativism or be satisfied with a description of particular cases Instead theoreticians as well as practitioners have to engage in sound thinking and dialogue The chapters in this volume highlight relevant characteristics of the language of educational research In addition attention is paid to the language of particular debates which figure prominently in the wider educational context such as the language of goals of parenting citizenship and capability

Xenophon on Violence Aggelos Kapellos,2019-10-21 This volume examines the issue of violence in Xenophon's works who lived in circumstances of war for many years All the papers address issues of violence from different aspects The exclusive focus on this issue is justified since no previous detailed study exists on the subject Most of the chapters focus on the Hellenica because this work records more aspects of violence than the rest of his works The volume is more concerned with examining violence in practice rather than the theory of violence and violent practices are more frequently recorded in the Hellenica which is the main historical work of Xenophon This volume attempts to provide a comprehensive study of the subject of violence in Xenophon s works and to demonstrate the coherence and consistency of his thought on it This work aspires to be a contribution to classical scholarship since it attempts to 1 shed further light on the literary character of Xenophon s oeuvre 2 offer new interpretation of passages and themes and 3 put emphasis on passages that scholars have not pointed out and which offer important insights to the thought of Xenophon

Methods of Rhetorical Criticism Bernard L. Brock, Robert Lee Scott, James W. Chesebro, 1989

Rhetoric's Pragmatism Steven Mailloux, 2017-04-27 For over thirty years Steven Mailloux has championed and advanced the field of rhetorical hermeneutics a historically and theoretically informed approach to textual interpretation This volume collects fourteen of his most recent influential essays on the methodology plus an interview Following from the proposition that rhetorical hermeneutics uses rhetoric to practice theory by doing history this book examines a diverse range of texts from literature history law religion and cultural studies Through four sections Mailloux explores the theoretical writings of Heidegger Burke and Rorty among others Jesuit educational treatises and products of popular culture such as Azar Nafisi s Reading Lolita in Tehran and Star Trek The Next Generation In doing so he shows how rhetorical perspectives and pragmatist traditions work together as two mutually supportive modes of understanding and he demonstrates how the combination of rhetoric and interpretation works both in theory and in practice Theoretically rhetorical hermeneutics can be understood as a form of neopragmatism Practically it focuses on the production circulation and reception of written and performed communication A thought provoking collection from a preeminent literary critic and rhetorician Rhetoric s Pragmatism assesses the practice and value of rhetorical hermeneutics today and the directions in which it might head Scholars and students of rhetoric and communication studies critical theory literature law religion and American studies will find Mailloux s arguments enlightening and essential

Reengaging the Prospects of Rhetoric Mark J. Porrovecchio, 2010-02-25 Reengaging the Prospects of Rhetoric reanimates the debate over the function and scope of rhetoric Providing a contemporary response to the volume The Prospect of Rhetoric 1971 this volume reconceptualizes that classic work to address the challenges facing the study of rhetoric today With contributions from today s leading rhetorical scholars Reengaging the Prospects of Rhetoric offers response essays to each chapter of the original work Each scholar uses his her essay as a forum in which to address three questions As a historical document why is this essay important In terms of contemporary theory and or practice what is the significance of the essay How can the issues raised therein be profitably addressed in the future These provocative engagements suggest that while the study of rhetoric has gained much ground in the intervening decades there is more work to be done to reestablish the primacy of rhetoric in contemporary society This volume provides students and scholars of rhetoric with a strong foundation in the issues that have shaped contemporary rhetorical theory and criticism It offers them an accessible introduction to the challenges facing future iterations of rhetorical theory and criticism As a standalone text or a supplemental resource for undergraduate and graduate courses in the history theory and criticism of rhetoric or contemporary rhetorical theory it will help to shape rhetoric's future role in communication studies and will foster interdisciplinary dialogues about the topic

Contributions of Selected Rhetorical Devices to a Biblical Theology of The Song of Songs Mark McGinniss, 2011-03-07 This book demonstrates how the author of the Song of Songs employed certain literary devices for a specific rhetorical purpose to convey certain theological truths These are the author's use of first person personal pronouns rhetorical questions and the various characters that inhabit its pages

Rhetoric and Incommensurability Randy Allen Harris, 2005-09-19 Rhetoric and Incommensurability examines the complex relationships among rhetoric philosophy and science as they converge on the question of incommensurability the notion jointly though not collaboratively introduced to science studies in 1962 by Thomas Kuhn and Paul Feyerabend The incommensurability thesis represents the most profound problem facing argumentation and dialogue in science surely but in any symbolic encounter any attempt to cooperate find common ground get along make better knowledge and build better societies This volume brings rhetoric the chief discipline that studies argumentation and dialogue to bear on that problem finding it much more tractable than have most philosophical accounts

The Ethical Fantasy of Rhetorical Theory Ira Allen, 2018-07-10 Despite its centrality to its field there is no consensus regarding what rhetorical theory is and why it matters The Ethical Fantasy of Rhetorical Theory presents a critical examination of rhetorical theory throughout history in order to develop a unifying vision for the field Demonstrating that theorists have always been skeptical of yet committed to truth however fantastic Ira Allen develops rigorous notions of truth and of a troubled freedom that spring from rhetoric's depths In a sweeping analysis from the sophists Aristotle and Cicero through Kenneth Burke Cha m Perelman and Lucie Olbrechts Tyceta and contemporary scholars in English communication and rhetoric's other disciplinary homes Allen offers a novel definition of rhetorical theory as the self consciously ethical study of how humans and other symbolic animals negotiate constraints

The Rhetoric of Inquiry in International Relations Torsten Michel, 2021-11-04 This book argues that our current lack of recognising and understanding the different forms meta theorising takes hampers the ways in which fruitful engagement between meta theories can be conducted It proposes a radical break with the ways in which meta theorising in International Relations IR has so far been understood and instead suggests a dyadic approach a rhetoric of inquiry that investigates the diverging forms of argumentation currently present in IR meta theorising and a conversational ethic that can help steer meta theoretical engagements across existing divides in more productive ways The central questions are as follows where meta theorising should go from here in order to contribute to the analysis of an ever more complex world Can we develop ways that allow the practice of meta theorising to channel and consolidate the multiplicity of its debates and contentions to strengthen our understanding of world politics and if so how It will be of general interest in all theory and methodology courses offered at undergraduate and postgraduate levels as well as to academics working in the area of meta theory international political thought normative theory as well as IR theory in its various manifestations
