The Mythology of the Animal Farm in Children's Literature Stacy E. Hoult-Saros, 2016-07-21 The Mythology of the Animal Farm in Children's Literature Over the Fence analyzes the ways in which myths about farmed animals lives are perpetuated in children's materials Specifically this book investigates the use of five recurring thematic devices in about eighty books for young children published during the past five decades The close readings of texts and images draw on a wide range of fields including animal theory psychoanalytic and Marxian literary criticism child development theory histories of farming and domestication and postcolonial theory In spite of the underlying seriousness of the project the material lends itself to humorous and not overly heavy handed explications that provide insight into the complex workings of a literary genre based on the covering up of real animal lives makers in international contexts Arts and Creativity in East and Southeast Asian Preschools Alfredo Bautista, 2025-08-20

This book is based on the theoretical notion of glocalization which is understood as the hybridization of global and local perspectives. It brings together contributions from Asian preschool stakeholders specializing in arts and creativity who present glocal pedagogical practices in the art forms of visual arts, music, drama, dance, and in multi-modal activities that integrate multiple art forms. The chapters provide Asian preschool teachers with insights on how to design, implement, and/or evaluate high-quality classroom activities. These insights help maximize children's creativity while being realistic and suitable to local preschools as well as aligned with the expectations, values, and norms of traditional Asian societies. The chapters are primarily oriented to practice and also include conceptual and/or theoretical elaborations intended to ground and justify teachers' pedagogical choices. The various chapters also enhance teachers' pedagogical repertoires to benefit children's creative learning experiences in the arts. This edited book serves as a valuable guide for preschool stakeholders in Asia, including teachers and childcare practitioners, both pre- and in-service, school leaders, head teachers, area coordinators, vice principals, principals, teacher educators, curriculum designers, consultants, professional development providers, and educational researchers in arts and creativity.

The Kindergarten-primary Magazine, 1911 The Kindergarten for Teachers and Parents, 1914 The Kindergarten-primary Magazine Bertha Johnston, E. Lyell Earle, 1919 Music and the Young Mind Maureen Harris, 2009-04-16

Maureen Harris has written an early childhood music program that is easily incorporated into the classroom routine. Written for the early childhood educator, experienced or trainee musician, or nonmusician, this book describes a music-enriched environment for teaching the whole child. Now educators can put research into practice and benefit from the wealth of knowledge and research acquired over the centuries on the power of music. With easy-to-follow lesson plans, sing-along CDs sung in a suitable pitch for the young child, and supporting literature, educators can gain musical confidence as they explore research on child development, learn how to create a music-enriched environment, and build musical confidence. See a curriculum time frame and follow lesson plans with ideas for further musical creativity and exploration. In addition, the multicultural section shows how to set up an early childhood music setting that maximizes the benefits of a variety of cultural values and practices. As you read this book, you will begin to see music as a biological human need, an incredible vehicle for enhancing intelligence, and a means to connecting and uniting people around the world.
