Debates In Music Teaching Debates In Subject Teaching:

Debates in Music Teaching Chris Philpott, Gary Spruce, 2025-08-01 Debates in Music Teaching encourages both graduate and postgraduate students and practising teachers to engage with contemporary issues and developments in music education. It introduces a critical approach to the central concepts and practices that have influenced major interventions and initiatives in music teaching and supports the development of new ways of looking at ideas around teaching and learning in music. Bringing together leading international experts, the chapters consider key issues in music education alongside reflective questions to help shape research and writing. This second edition has been fully updated to reflect the latest debates in the field, including the justification for music in the school curriculum, music education and cognitive psychology, the nature of musical knowledge, addressing decolonisation, partnerships in music education, the nature of musical development, social justice and music education, the place of diverse musical genres and traditions in the music curriculum, pedagogies of composing, environmentally sustainable practices for teaching music with technology, the professional journeys and identity of music teachers. Written to help readers to form their own personal philosophy of music education and stimulate critical and creative thinking, Debates in Music Teaching is essential reading for all student and practising music teachers. Debates in Music Teaching Chris Philpott, Gary Spruce, 2012-07-26 Debates in Music Teaching encourages student and practising teachers to engage with contemporary issues and developments in music education. It aims to introduce a critical approach to the central concepts and practices that have influenced major interventions and initiatives in music teaching and supports the development of new ways of looking at ideas around teaching and learning in music. Accessible and comprehensive, chapters will stimulate thinking and creativity in relation to theory and practice and will facilitate readers in reaching their own informed judgements and rationalising their position with deep theoretical knowledge and understanding. Throughout the book, international experts in the field consider key issues, including the justification for music in the school curriculum, partnerships in music education and the identity of the music teacher, technology and conceptions of musicianship, social justice and music education, the place of diverse musical genres and traditions in the music curriculum, critical thinking and music education, autonomy and integrity for music in cross-curricular work, the politics, sociology and philosophy of music education. Debates in Music Teaching is for all student and practising teachers interested in furthering their understanding of the subject. Including carefully annotated further reading and reflective questions to help shape research and writing, this collection stimulates critical and creative thinking in relation to contemporary debates within music education. Issues in Music Teaching Chris Philpott, Charles Plummeridge, 2004-08-02 Issues in Music Teaching stimulates critical reflection on a range of topics related to the teaching and learning of music in both the primary and secondary school, including the place of music in the curriculum, the nature of music and music education, ICT and music education, music education and individual needs, continuity and progression in music education. The book prompts the reader to be analytical and critical of theory and practice and to become an autonomous professional and curriculum developer Debates in Primary Education Virginia Bower, 2020-10-19 This powerful text encourages both pre service and established teachers as well as teacher educators to engage with contemporary debates in primary education Promoting a critical approach the chapters explore a wide range of key themes including the importance of values in primary education and the imperative for a curriculum which embraces the whole range of available subjects At the same time the chapters are underpinned by a belief that children should be at the heart of all the decisions we make and that primary education should inspire a love of learning for life The book aims to support practitioners to make informed judgements and feel confident to argue their point of view with deeper theoretical knowledge and understanding thus increasing teacher agency and confidence in responding to complex educational and social dilemmas such as literacy levels and rising mental health concerns Chapters encompass both the macro aspects of primary education and more specialised debates on key topics such as reading mathematics languages early years education and the use of technology With annotated further reading and reflective questions this key text is essential reading for all those wanting to develop a better understanding of the issues that shape their practice including student teachers at both undergraduate and postgraduate level practising teachers engaged in continuing professional development and teacher educators
