Deconstruction in a Nutshell Jacques Derrida, 1997 Deconstruction in a Nutshell Craig L. Nesson, 1998 Engaging Deconstructive Theology Ronald T. Michener, 2016-04-29 Engaging Deconstructive Theology presents an evangelical approach for theological conversation with postmodern thinkers Themes are considered from Derrida Foucault Mark C Taylor Rorty and Cupitt developing dialogue from an open minded evangelical perspective Ron Michener draws upon insights from radical postmodern thought and seeks to advance an apologetic approach to the Christian faith that acknowledges a mosaic of human sources including experience literature and the imagination The European Reception of John D. Caputo's Thought Martin Koci, Joeri Schrijvers, 2022-10-27 This book gathers the European reception of John D Caputo's proposal for a radical theology of our time Philosophers and theologians from within Europe respond to Caputo's attempt to configure a less rigid less dogmatic form of religion These scholars in turn receive responses by Caputo This volume so aims to strengthen the development of radical theology in Europe and abroad The Paradoxical Foundation of Strategic Management Andreas Rasche, 2007-10-25 This book offers a systematic critique of the scientific discourse of strategic management It uncovers scholars unquestioned assumptions and shows that by upholding these assumptions researchers obscure the paradoxical nature of strategic reasoning To uncover the paradoxes of strategic management the author refers to the philosophy of Jacques Derrida He exposes the paradoxes that inevitably occur when theorizing about corporate strategy along the dimensions strategy context process and content and shows how these paradoxes can enrich future thinking about strategic problems The analysis is completed by a discussion of theoretical and practical implications which highlight the need to research strategy not as something an organization has but as something an organization does Such a practice perspective gives reference to the paradoxical ground that strategic management rests on and enriches scholars ability to reflect on practitioners tasks while doing strategy in organizations Thinking the Poetic Measure of Justice Charles Bambach, 2013-05-21 What is the measure of ethics What is the measure of justice And how do we come to measure the immeasurability of these questions Thinking the Poetic Measure of Justice situates the problem of justice in the interdisciplinary space between philosophy and poetry in an effort to explore the sources of ethical life in a new way Charles Bambach engages the works of two philosophical poets who stand as the bookends of modernity Friedrich Hölderlin 1770 1843 and Paul Celan 1920 1970 offering close textual readings of poems from each that define and express some of the crucial problems of German philosophical thought in the twentieth century tensions between the native and the foreign the proper and the strange the self and the other At the center of this philosophical conversation between Hölderlin and Celan Bambach places the work of Martin Heidegger to rethink the question of justice in a nonlegal nonmoral register by understanding it in terms of poetic measure Focusing on Hölderlin's and Heidegger's readings of pre Socratic philosophy and Greek tragedy as well as on Celan's reading of Kabbalah he frames the problem of poetic justice against the trauma of German destruction in the twentieth century "The Time Is Fulfilled" Lynne Moss Bahr, 2018-12-27 In this study Lynne Moss Bahr explores the concept of temporality as central to Jesus's proclamation of the Kingdom of God Using insights from continental philosophy on the messianic which expose the false claim that time progresses in a linear continuum Bahr presents these philosophical positions in critical dialogue with the sayings of Jesus regarding time and time's fulfillment She shows how the Kingdom represents the possibilities of a disruption in time one that reveals the intrinsic relation between God and humanity In illustrating how Jesus s sayings regarding time are thus expressions of his messianic identity as of the world and not of the world Bahr argues that the meaning of Jesus s identity as Messiah is embedded in the disjuncture of time in the impossibility of now from which the Kingdom comes Bahr s use of critical theory in this study expands the concept of God s Kingdom beyond the traditional confines of the discipline

Imagining' Biblical Worlds David M. Gunn,Paula McNutt,2002-12-01 The essays in this volume address the interface between biblical studies archaeology sociology and cultural anthropology celebrating the pioneering work of James Flanagan In particular this collection explores various ways in which the real ancient world is constructed by the modern critical reader with the aid of various theoretical and practical tools The contributors to this volume have all been involved with Flanagan and his projects during his academic career and the essays carry forward the important interdisciplinary agendas he has encouraged Part One deals with his recent interest in spatiality and Part Two with social and historical constructs This book in James Flanagan s honour represents a significant statement of research in an area of biblical and historical research that is increasingly important yet surprisingly under represented

Paul Ricoeur and Contemporary Moral Thought William Schweiker,John Wall,David Hall,2020-10-28 This book explores and proposes new avenues for contemporary moral thought It defines and assesses the significance of the writings of French philosopher Paul Ricoeur for ethics The book also explores what matters most to persons and how best to sustain just communities

Groundless Gods Eric E Hall,Hartmut von Sass,2014-12-25 Groundless Gods The Theological Prospects of Post Metaphysical Thought deals with possible interpretations of an emerging interest in contemporary theology postmetaphysical theology This book attempts to openly come to grips not only with whatmetaphysics and postmetaphysics imply but also with what it could mean to do or not do theology from the standpoint of the nonmetaphysician The book asks for instance whether this world has any singular definition and whether God is some being standing apart from the world or an experience within the world

Thinking with Theory in Qualitative Research Alecia Y. Jackson,Lisa A. Mazzei,2022-07-29 Thinking with Theory in Qualitative Research Second Edition demonstrates how to enact various philosophical concepts in practices of inquiry effectively opening up the process of thought in qualitative studies Thinking with Theory in Qualitative Research functions as a refusal of pregiven method intensifying creativity experimentation and newness Readers are invited into the threshold of theory to traverse philosophers and their concepts reorienting conventional approaches to inquiry Each chapter presents a thinking with process as a way of reading intensively through plugging in performative accounts of two first generation academic women to philosophical concepts from Derrida Spivak Foucault Butler Barad and Deleuze and Guattari This book is a deliberate attempt to unsettle what is expected to be represented or recognized in terms of both meaning and method in traditional practices of qualitative research which become unproductive and untenable in this different image of thought New to this edition Fully revised and rewritten

Chapter 1 that introduces the technique of plugging in as contingent strategic movements of thought Also new to Chapter 1 is a shift in language away from traditional practices in qualitative research data and analysis to performative accounts and becoming questions Fully revised Thinking with intra action chapter which focuses on Karen Barad s ontoepistemological framework of agential realism and the concepts of posthumanist performativity and entangled agencies Fully revised and rewritten Chapter 8 that presents plugging in and thinking with as ontological Further development of and new material on the plugging in technique Schematic cues updated and extended for all of the Interludes In the ten years since the first edition was published Thinking with Theory in Qualitative Research has become a vanguard text in the field of postfoundational inquiry for its accessible but thorough introductions to philosophically informed inquiry This book is for experienced and novice researchers and students in introductory general and advanced qualitative inquiry courses who may also be first time readers of philosophy This text will function as an entry into techniques of thinking with a new theoretical vocabulary

Modernizing George Eliot K.M. Newton,2011-12-08 George Eliot s work has been subject to a wide range of critical questioning most of which relates her substantially to a Victorian context and intellectual framework This book examines the ways in which her work anticipates significant aspects of writing in the twentieth and indeed twenty first century in regard to both art and philosophy This new book presents a series of linked essays exploring Eliot s credentials as a radical thinker Opening with her relationship to the Romantic tradition Newton goes on to discuss her reading of Darwinism her radical critique of Victorian values and her affiliation with the modernists The final essays discuss her work in relation to Derridean themes and to Bernard Williams concept of moral luck What emerges is a very different Eliot from the conservative figure portrayed in much critical literature

The Trinity: A Guide for the Perplexed Paul M. Collins,2008-12-19 Trinity is a core area of Christian belief This Guide For The Perplexed offers a complete overview of the theological history of the concept of the trinity as well as new insights

Moral Matters Mark Dooley,2015-07-30 Moral Matters A Philosophy of Homecoming is Mark Dooley s attempt to offer an alternative to Cyberia It is a book about home memory and identity At a time when people are rapidly disengaging from those forms of life which once bound them together it can be argued that our happiness depends on saving and conserving them We cannot flourish in isolation or by detaching from the social sphere which surrounds us We cannot truly prosper or progress if we choose to forget where we came from or if we dismiss our inherited moral wisdom And yet in opting for loss separation and homelessness it seems we have done just that We have opted for a rootless existence where alienation and amnesia are the norm This powerful and passionate book shows how the alienated postmodern self can become re rooted to time and place and restored to full humanity and happiness whilst moving in a virtual hyperconnected world In caring for creation conserving culture and saving the sacred we can once again make our home in the world and experience the consolation of moving from loss to love
