Literacy Pedagogies Sullivan, Pamela M.,Lantz, Jessica L.,Sullivan, Brian A.,2019-11-22 The allure and marketplace power of digital technologies continues to hold sway over the field of education with billions spent annually on technology in the United States alone Literacy instruction at all levels is influenced by these evolving and ever changing tools While this opens the door to innovations in literacy curricula it also adds a pedagogical responsibility to operate within a well developed conceptual framework to ensure instruction is complemented or augmented by technology and does not become secondary to it The Handbook of Research on Integrating Digital Technology With Literacy Pedagogies is a comprehensive research publication that considers the integration of digital technologies in all levels of literacy instruction and prepares the reader for inevitable technological advancements and changes Covering a wide range of topics such as augmented reality literacy and online games this book is essential for educators administrators IT specialists curriculum developers instructional designers teaching professionals academicians researchers education stakeholders and students Assessing Student's Digital Writing Troy Hicks,2015 In this book Troy Hicks a leader in the teaching of digital writing collaborates with seven National Writing Project teacher consultants to provide a protocol for assessing students digital writing This collection highlights six case studies centered on evidence the authors have uncovered through teacher inquiry and structured conversations about students digital writing Beginning with a digital writing sample each teacher offers an analysis of a student s work and a reflection on how collaborative assessment affected his or her teaching Because the authors include teachers from kindergarten to college this book provides opportunities for vertical discussions of digital writing development as well as grade level conversations about high quality digital writing The collection also includes an introduction and conclusion written by Hicks that provides context for the inquiry group s work and recommendations for assessment of digital writing Book Features An adaptation of the Collaborative Assessment Conference protocol to help professional learning communities examine students digital work Detailed descriptions of students digital writing including the assessment process and implications for instruction Links to the samples of student digital writing available online for further review and to be used as digital mentor texts Building on his foundational work in helping us to embrace digital writing in the classroom Hicks and his collaborators help us take the next step to becoming teachers who practice authentic assessment that supports students to learn through digital writing This is the book and the thinking that advances our field Sara Kajder Clinical Assistant Professor Department of Language and Literacy Education University of Georgia Through Students' Eyes Kristien Zenkov,James Harmon,2016-01-20 Today s educators pre and in service teachers and teacher educators serve increasing percentages of adolescents who have limited relationships to school These young people are often our most diverse youth they are frequently English Language Learners ELLs and immigrants and they are too often part of multi generational dropout and disengagement trends Teachers are desperate for pedagogical philosophies curricula and practices that will support them with helping young people appreciate the value of school engage or re engage youth with this most foundational of our public institutions and aid adolescents in the development of the core literacy and writing skills they need to be successful in school and beyond This volume will assist teachers in recognizing the increasing diversity of their students who often look very different from and have life and school experiences that are very different than those of the educators who serve them Current and future educators must utilize relevant curricula and creative pedagogies that honor students diverse cultures and school and community experiences while respecting our highest ideals for educational equity and social justice With this volume the authors respond to the quickly shifting demographics of schools student populations and the disengagement trends teachers frequently encounter but rarely know how to address We offer compelling relationship driven pedagogical principles and instructional strategies that appeal to diverse youths voices and cultures and rely on broad visually and technology based notions of literacy

When Writing Workshop Isn't Working Mark Overmeyer, 2024-12-27 Writing is hard work Teaching it can be even harder As most teachers know writer s workshop doesn't always go as planned and many find there are obstacles that they consistently struggle with In his role as a literacy coordinator and teacher Mark Overmeyer has heard the same issues raised again and again by both new and experienced colleagues When Writing Workshop Isn't Working: Answers to Ten Tough Questions, Grades 2-5 provides practical advice to overcome these common problems and get your writing workshop back on track Acknowledging the process based nature of the writing workshop this book does not offer formulaic program based one size fits all answers but presents multiple suggestions based on what works in real classrooms This second edition includes updated ideas for common issues in the workshop and features new chapters on technology and resistant writers Questions addressed in the new edition include How can I reach resistant writers How can I support students in their use of technology including AI How should I assess student writing How do I manage writing conferences How can I help my students revise and self edit This book is a handy reference tool for answering specific questions as they pop up during the year Overmeyer uses student examples throughout to help teachers envision these solutions in their own classes and he includes an array of classroom tested ideas for multilingual learners There may not be any easy answers to the complexities of writer s workshop but by identifying and providing advice on common stumbling blocks the second edition of When Writing Workshop Isn't Working provides a solid groundwork freeing up time and creativity for teachers to address the specific needs of their students

Metaliteracy in Practice Trudi E. Jacobson, Thomas P. Mackey, 2017-11-22 Adolescent Literacies Kathleen A. Hinchman, Deborah A. Appleman, 2017-10-25 Showcasing cutting edge findings on adolescent literacy teaching and learning this unique handbook is grounded in the realities of students daily lives It highlights research methods and instructional approaches that capitalize on adolescents interests knowledge and new literacies Attention is given to how race gender language and other dimensions of identity along with curriculum and teaching methods shape youths literacy development and engagement The volume explores innovative ways that educators are using a variety of multimodal texts from textbooks to graphic novels and digital productions It reviews a range of pedagogical approaches key topics include collaborative inquiry argumentation close reading and composition Intellectual Creativity in First-Year Composition Classes Heidi Wall Burns, Michael MacBride, 2016-10-12 Today s first year composition classrooms are largely reflective of the writing pedagogy that has been used for the last 200 years Unfortunately this methodology does not meet the research or writing needs of today s college and university students Burns and MacBride were determined to make their first year composition courses more relevant to their students and sought a way to revolutionize their syllabus to do so Building on the work of Tom Romono Nancy Mack Camille Allen Sirpa Grierson Melinda Putz and others Burns and MacBride set out to determine if a multigenre research project could better teach their students research writing and critical thinking skills than a traditional research based essay The findings of their semester long study indicated that not only does a MGRP teach these skills but it far surpasses a traditional essay in teaching engagement intellectual creativity and transferable writing skills Burns and MacBride demonstrate two different ways to integrate a multigenre research project into the college composition classroom Web Writing Jack Dougherty, Tennyson O'Donnell, 2015-04-21 Teaching writing across the curriculum with online tools

Understanding and Creating Digital Texts Richard Beach, Chris M. Anson, Lee-Ann Kastman Breuch, Thomas Reynolds, 2014-10-16 Given the increased use of digital reading and writing tools in the classroom this book provides secondary and college English language arts teachers with activities and classroom examples for using a range of different digital tools blogs wikis websites annotations Twitter mapping forum discussions etc to engage students in understanding and creating digital texts It therefore integrates reading and writing instruction through goal driven activities supported by uses and affordances of digital tools This book also provides a framework for designing these activities that encourage students to define purpose and audience make connections between digital texts and people collaborate with others employ alternative modes of communication and gain new perspectives and constructing identities practices that are linked to addressing the high school English Language Arts Common Core State Standards The book also describes ways to use digital tools to support these practices for example using digital tools to foster students collaborative reading and writing The book also describes use of digital feedback and e portfolio tools to foster students reflection on their uses of these practices
