Powerful Writing Structures Adrienne Gear,2020-02-06 This timely book uses thinking structures to deepen student writing It revolves around brain pockets to help students appreciate the qualities of different writing forms Some powerful examples include memory pockets for personal narrative writing fact pockets for nonfiction and imagination pockets for story writing Detailed lesson plans are featured along with sample anchor books and book lists Based on extensive classroom testing student samples throughout the book illustrate this unique approach to teaching writing Suggestions for setting up an effective writing program and assessment tips for guiding instruction complete this comprehensive approach to developing a year long writing program The Common Core Companion: Booster Lessons, Grades K-2 Janiel Wagstaff,2015-09-02 You can find hundreds of literacy lessons in hundreds of places but none of them will do for students what the ones in this book do What s the magic bullet Potent integration Divided into five weeklong learning sequences the 50 lessons span the ELA standards bringing a Monday through Friday clarity to the sometimes mysterious process of skill building through demonstrations and practice Follow each sequence and week by week you ll build the instructional potency to help students achieve a year s worth of growth as you integrate Writing Narratives with Identifying Sensory Words in Text Research with Identifying Topic and Details Opinion Writing with Close Reading for Text Evidence Comparing and Contrasting with Publishing Using Digital Tools Informative Writing with Use of Text Features Each of the 50 lessons is eminently dipppable But if you want to do more extended instructional planning there are lots of additional tools including lists of mentor texts and If Then and Extending the Work charts within the book and on the companion website www.corwin.com commoncorecompanion The Common Core Companion Leslie Blauman,2015 Crafting Nonfiction Primary Linda Hoyt,2018-07-06 Nonfiction writing does not need to sound like an encyclopedia It can be richly constructed with a wide variety of sentence patterns Craft elements and literary devices should be highlighted and employed in nonfiction selections just as carefully as we implement them in fiction Linda Hoyt Nonfiction writers need to develop a broad arsenal of sentence structures so their writing is rich varied and fluid They need to consider how powerful verbs can accentuate their voice and make their nonfiction writing more compelling They need to reflect on how carefully selected details can bring a setting to life and invite their reader to understand more deeply Focused on the process and traits of being a writer and how to best address the needs and expectations of nonfiction readers Linda Hoyt s Crafting Nonfiction offers targeted minilessons that will help you elevate craft integrate trait based instruction and elevate control over conventions Click here to learn more about The Explorations in Nonfiction Writing Series We Can Do This! Janiel Wagstaff,2017-02-21 In We Can Do This writing expert and Stella Writes author Janiel Wagstaff pairs examples of student writing with writing lessons Student writing samples are extremely powerful tools for boosting the growth of young writers and the student samples provided in this book serve as mentor texts and the basis for each lesson The samples are mentors that are doable for students they highlight skills strategies craft moves and traits within the reach of their intended audience As teachers and students study the examples they will think I can do that Additionally samples that reflect the most common errors or trouble spots are included enabling teachers to explicitly teach to these points Write This Way from the Start Kelly Boswell,2017-09-29 As teachers the beginning of each school year presents us with fresh starts and opportunities How will we build community and create a culture that values thinking learning and risk taking How can we create a safe environment where all learners feel welcome and valued As writing teachers it s of utmost importance that we launch our students into the world of writing in a way that engages them and helps to build their confidence In this book Kelly Boswell shares a variety of ways to kick start the school year and invite students to engage in meaningful purposeful and joyful writing experiences Crafting Writers, K-6 Elizabeth Hale,2008 How do we teach elementary students to independently use the different elements of craft that are discussed and taught in lessons We begin by honoring the reality that terms like voice sentence fluency and writing with detail are descriptions of where we want our students to be not next steps on how to reach those goals In Crafting Writers K 6 Elizabeth Hale shows us how to identify specific elements of craft when assessing student work and planning instruction and use them to teach students the specific craft techniques that will move them forward as writers Liz offers practical information that teachers can use immediately in their classrooms She also presents a concrete process for noticing craft in writing so teachers can develop and plan craft lessons based on their students writing Learning the techniques that make up good writing also allows teachers to see craft in many different levels of writing a skill that is particularly powerful when conferring with below grade level writers Additional chapters look closely at assessment and classroom management practices like group conferring Most of us know good writing when we read it but writing teachers need to know what makes it work Filled with easy to use charts and practical lessons Crafting Writers K 6 provides clear insight into identifying and teaching the small elements that make good writing successful Crafting Nonfiction, Lessons on Writing Process, Traits, and Craft Linda Hoyt,2010-12 Nonfiction writers need to develop a broad arsenal of sentence structures so their writing is rich varied and fluid They need to consider how powerful verbs can accentuate their voice and make their nonfiction writing more compelling They need to reflect on how carefully selected details can bring a setting to life and invite their reader to understand more deeply Focused on the process and traits of being a writer and how to best address the needs and expectations of nonfiction readers Linda Hoyt s Crafting Nonfiction offers targeted minilessons that will help you elevate craft integrate trait based instruction and elevate control over conventions Publisher description Culturally Affirming Literacy Practices for Urban Elementary Students Lakia M. Scott,Barbara Purdum-Cassidy,2016-08-17 The nation s demographic of public schools are more ethnically racially and linguistically diverse than ever before Strauss 2014 However there are still educational policies and practices that call to question whether traditionally marginalized students receive an equitable education This is demonstrated in national achievement trends which highlight disproportionality ratings among minoritized student groups Also when examining school discipline policies expulsion ratings special education services and school choice movements all seem to handicap educational opportunity for low income Black and Brown students As American schools become more and more diverse it is imperative that the literacy practices used to teach young students of color reflect the nation s changing demographic This book provides practical insights guided by conceptual and contextual knowledge in understanding how to teach urban African American and Hispanic Latino a students by discussing issues associated with critical pedagogies literacy and culturally appropriate instructional strategies that have demonstrated success for traditionally marginalized student populations This book examines culturally affirming literacy practices from three main components 1 scholarship 2 the field of practice and 3 teacher education models Each of these three are significant in understanding how to teach minoritized populations As such chapters have been organized into three main sections that address scholarship and research trends in the field and implications for teacher education models all in order to advance the literacy achievement of African American and Hispanic Latino a students

Write This Way Kelly Boswell, 2015-02-20 Modeling is one of the most effective of all teaching strategies and yet many teachers overlook this powerful tool in writing instruction When teachers think aloud and then craft a piece of writing in front of their students they give student writers a peek into what is possible in their own writing In this book Kelly Boswell shows you how to transform student writers by infusing short bursts of purposeful teacher modeling As students watch an adult writer think talk and write they can develop the skills needed in order to create writing that is both polished and purposeful Tony Stead educator internationally known literacy specialist and author says Finally Not just another book about how to teach writing but one that targets the power of modeled writing What a delight it is to read this professional resource that highlights the importance of this strategy as the cornerstone to successful teaching and learning of the writing process

"They're All Writers" Jennifer Sanders, Rebecca L. Damron, 2017 They re All Writers will help teachers explore the power of writing centers In elementary school classrooms across the country writing instruction not grammar worksheets or spelling drills is still the neglected R In this book classroom teachers will find foundational information about the writing process with everything they need to begin and facilitate a peer tutoring writing center Student led writing centers harness the social and instructional power of students working and learning together and this book includes specific lessons to teach students how to be effective peer tutors and how to be better writers Book Features A new research based approach to writing pedagogy that integrates both writing process theories and writing center pedagogies Complete lesson plans to help teachers implement a writing center curriculum that meets Common Core and other quality standards An approach that harnesses the power of social learning develops students as leaders in their schools and facilitates generative conversations around writing Through the framework of peer tutoring the authors show us how children can improve their own writing while also appreciating differing perspectives Anne McGill Franzen The University of Tennessee With lesson plans on preparing peer tutors the authors have established a flexible framework for teachers interested in implementing writing tutoring in their schools Rebecca Babcock University of Texas of the Permian Basin Using Multiliteracies and Multimodalities to Support Young Children's Learning Marie Charles,Bill Boyle,2014-04-29 This is a timely book that effectively challenges the current emphasis on a homogeneous approach to teaching learning and assessment in early literacy It encourages us to engage with the real world complexity of young children s learning and offers a series of rich and detailed examples of this in practice Sally Neaum Teesside and Durham Universities and Author of Beyond Early Reading Grounded in classroom practice this practical book shows trainees and current teachers how to scaffold children s literacy using a creative and supportive approach It offers teaching strategies for Multiliteracies fiction expository instructions poetry recount and Multimodalities reading writing speaking listening performing illustrating and helps to develop a relationship between teacher and learner Chapter topics include socio dramatic play collaboration guided group teaching strategies integration of genres This clear and accessible book will be extremely valuable to students and practitioners on PGCE programmes B Eds Masters workshop and conference CPD and advanced Teaching Assistant training Marie Charles is a teacher formative assessment researcher and consultant Professor Bill Boyle was until recently Director of CFAS in the School of Education University of Manchester Both authors are regularly involved in school based research across England and international teacher training programmes

Crafting Nonfiction Intermediate, Lessons on Writing Process, Traits, and Craft Linda Hoyt,Kelly Boswell,2012 Nonfiction writers need to develop a broad arsenal of sentence structures so their writing is rich varied and fluid They need to consider how powerful verbs can accentuate their voice and make their nonfiction writing more compelling They need to reflect on how carefully selected details can bring a setting to life and invite their reader to understand more deeply Focused on the process and traits of being a writer and how to best address the needs and expectations of nonfiction readers Linda Hoyt s Crafting Nonfiction offers targeted minilessons that will help you elevate craft integrate trait based instruction and elevate control over conventions The Write Direction Fred S. Wolff,Lynna Garber Kalna,2010 The Write Direction is an innovative book that guides teachers on how to teach writing including the connection to the writing students will encounter once they leave school The book examines the importance of teacher as writer classroom environment writing process and six traits of writing and how teachers can implement these concepts The Write Direction connects classroom writing instruction to the world students will face once they leave school and enter the workplace The authors believe that students need to explore and practice writing assignments that better prepare them for the writing they will undertake once they leave school Unfortunately many teachers do not know what types of writing employers in the business world expect their employees to be able to produce Therefore every chapter provides specific activities for teachers to undertake as they work to improve their writing instruction Suggestions for incorporating appropriate writing assignments that connect to workplace writing are also included The book also provides suggestions for managing the crucial issues facing new teachers in today s classroom testing grading and long range planning Developing the Gifts & Talents of All Students Margaret Beecher,1995 Margaret Beecher presents an innovative K 12 curriculum model designed for teachers looking for ways to reach all students in their heterogeneous classrooms Based on the Enrichment Triad Model and principles of differentiated curriculum it addresses interest based teaching curriculum mapping essential questions interdisciplinary curriculum community resources self directed learning interest development centers and Types I II and III enrichment The specific planning organizational and management techniques in this book will show educators how to implement this model effectively and efficiently in their classrooms Resources in Education ,1996 Cultivating a Child's Imagination Through Gardening Rosanne Blass,Nancy A. Jurenka,1996-11-15 Lead children to literacy and learning along the garden path with books and activities designed to spark interest and imagination Each of these 45 lessons focuses on a specific book about gardening and offers related activities such as reading writing poetry word play music dancing and dramatics to enhance creativity and build literacy skills In addition this resource lists more books to read with each lesson and concludes with an annotated bibliography of focus books A great companion to Beyond the Bean Seed Grades K 6 Instructor ,1974-08 El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2003 ,2003 Nonfiction Craft Lessons JoAnn Portalupi,Ralph J. Fletcher,2001 Writing nonfiction represents a big step for most students Most young writers are not intimidated by personal narrative fiction or even poetry but when they try to put together a teaching book report or persuasive essay they often feel anxious and frustrated JoAnn Portalupi and Ralph Fletcher believe that young nonfiction writers supply plenty of passion keen interest and wonder Teachers can provide concrete strategies to help students scaffold their ideas as they write in his challenging genre Like the authors best selling Craft Lessons Teaching Writing K 8 this book is divided into sections for K 2 3 4 and middle school grades 5 8 students These divisions reflect various differences between emerging competent and fluent writers In each section you ll find a generous collection of craft lessons directed at the genre that s most appropriate for that particular age In the K 2 section for example a number of craft lessons focus on the all about or concept book In the 3 4 section there are several lessons on biography In the 5 8 section a series of lessons addresses expository writing Throughout the book each of the 80 lessons is presented on a single page in an easy to read format Every lesson features three teaching guidelines Discussion A brief look at the reasons for teaching the particular element of craft specifically in a nonfiction context How to Teach It Concrete language showing exactly how a teacher might bring this craft element to students in writing conferences or a small group setting Resource Material Specific book or text referred to in the craft lesson including trade books or a piece of student writing in the Appendixes This book will help students breathe voice into lifeless dump truck writing and improve their nonfiction writing by making it clearer more authoritative and more organized Nonfiction Craft Lessons gives teachers a wealth of practical strategies to help students grow into strong writers as they explore and explain the world around them Be sure to look at the When Students Write videotapes too
