Conflict And Communion Reconciliation And Restorative Justice At Christs Table:

Conflict and Communion Thomas W. Porter, Discipleship Resources, 2006 In this broken world community is rare Sadly this is sometimes true even in the church Conflict confronts us in just about every corner of our lives from personal to familial from congregational to denominational from national to international We desire community but so often react out of brokenness writes one reviewer Conflict and Communion points to the Lord s Table as the place where true harmony can be experienced Porter sets the stage for the book by naming the conflicts that were present at the Last Supper conflicts among the disciples conflicts among those in authority Then as now the Eucharist and its spiritual power propels much needed transformation in individuals and in congregations to heal our greatest needs The 10 essays written by a diverse group of church leaders reflect on practical ways to live the sacrament in the everyday and extraordinary life of congregations Contributors include William Everett Gayle Carlton Felton Larry Goodpaster Marjorie Thompson Peter Storey Thomas Porter Marcia McFee Jan Love Stephanie Hixson David Hooker Reclaim the radical restorative justice and interdependent community available through the Table of Holy Communion As the editor writes Through the practice of reconciliation empowered by the liturgy of Holy Communion we hope that the Table will become for all of us and for our world a source of healing transformed life reconciled relationships with God and with one another

Circling the Table William Johnson Everett, 2024-06-25 What if Christian worship took place as a conversation at a round table spread with elements of earth s gifts of nurture and beauty This book describes such a practice Roundtable Worship and lays out a fresh and challenging theological foundation for it Central to this foundation is the struggle to reconstruct the images of governance and justice that have always lain at the heart of a worship shaped by biblical traditions Drawing on the practice of circle conversations at the heart of movements for reconciliation and restorative justice Everett presents a theological vision rooted in biblical covenant making a social image of the Trinity and an understanding of the church as the covenanted public of Christ s Spirit Roundtable worship provides a hospitable setting where people can begin to give deeper voice to their life listen appreciatively to each other s longing for reconciliation and anticipate in imagination and action a renewed public life beyond the angry and violent polarizations of our age

Sunday, Sabbath, and the Weekend Edward O'Flaherty, 2010-09-07 Spirituality that takes shape around regular Sunday and Sabbath worship is central to the historical identity of Christianity Through the lens of this book we see also that such a spirituality is central to nurturing a healthy thriving society Here fourteen contributors from diverse traditions across the spectrum of American Christianity examine how Christians and others can find needful rest through Sunday and Sabbath in managing the pressures of our 24/7 global culture

Black and Episcopalian Gayle Fisher-Stewart, 2022-01-18 A personal story of the struggle for authentic inclusion in the church From a strong voice in the dialogue about what Black lives matter means in relation to faith a powerful lament and a hopeful message about the future Historically to be Episcopal Anglican as it was to be American was to be white Assimilation to whiteness has been a measure of success and acceptance yet assimilation requires that people of color give up something of themselves and deny parts of their heritage including religious practices that sustained their ancestors Despite the fact that Blackness is on display on Black History Month for example and Black African heritage is given primacy in the liturgy music and preaching during that time at other times this doesn't seem to be the case The author argues that whiteness is embedded in every aspect of religious life from seminary to Christian education to last rites Is it possible to be Black and Episcopalian and not feel alien she asks In her words we learn that inclusivity above all must be authentic Redeeming a Prison Society

Amy Levad, 2014 The United States criminal justice system is in a state of crisis from unprecedented rates of imprisonment and recidivism to the privatization of the prison system and the disproportionate representation of particular racial ethnic social and economic groups all of which is within a larger social justice context Catholics and Protestants have largely failed to offer vital theological responses Amy Levad offers a Catholic perspective that directly addresses the concrete issues from a strongly interdisciplinary approach and utilizes the rich liturgical and sacramental resources of penance and Eucharist to offer a theological vision of reform Making My Way in Ethics, Worship, and Word William Johnson

Everett, 2021-09-17 William Everett has taught in Catholic and Protestant theological schools in the United States Germany India and South Africa Out of these rich and varied experiences he lays out here in concise manner the main concepts theories and commitments that have emerged in his work From his origins in Washington DC to his later research in Germany India South Africa and Cyprus he reflects on how his experience and life story have shaped his intellectual and religious vision This exposition of his thought ranges from construction of frameworks for relating Christianity to the behavioral sciences to substantive engagement with concepts of covenant and constitutionalism the oikos of work family and faith and ecological and restorative justice Moving beyond the academic he shows us how his poetry liturgies historical fiction and woodcraft also manifest many of these themes in other forms In this exposition and interrogation of his life and work Everett invites us into deeper reflection on the connections that constitute our own Communities of Restoration

Thomas Noakes-Duncan, 2017-10-19 By bringing together the insights of ecclesial ethics an approach that emphasizes the distinctive nature of the church as the community that forms its mind and character after its reading of Scripture with the theory and practice of restorative justice a way of conceiving justice making that emerged from the Mennonite Anabaptist tradition this book shows why a theological account of the theory and practice of restorative justice is fruitful for articulating and clarifying the witness of the church especially when faced with conflict or wrongdoing This can help extend the church's imagination as to how it might better become God's community of restoration as it reflects on the ways in which the justice of God is taking shape in its own community How does an ecclesial context shape the theological apprehension and praxis of justice This question orientates the book In particular it asks how in view of its members having been admitted into God's restoring justice in Christ the church might embody in the world this same justice of restoring right relationships While

Christian reflection on the nature of justice has tended to favour a judicial and retributive conception of justice it will be argued that the biblical understanding of the justice of God is best understood as a saving liberating and restorative justice It is this restorative conception that ought to guide the community that reads Scripture so that it might be embodied in life

Formation for Life Glen Stassen, Rodney L. Petersen, Timothy A. Norton, 2013-08-16 From all corners of the world both inside cities and in the remote countryside the cry for just peace rings out loud and strong But as many will note in this book the cry for just peace isn't enough for just peace requires active faith working hands and willing hearts Gathered in this volume are essays written from a wide variety of perspectives religious traditions nationalities and ages from a sixteen year old high school student to an eighty four year old senior professor that seek to offer insight toward answering one question How are just peacemaking faith formation and discipleship connected within a twenty first century context Healing God's People Thomas A. you know Communion is a practice that is meant to be observed over and over throughout the life of a Christian It is a holy time of worship when we corporately come together as one body to remember and celebrate what Christ did for us In observing Communion we show our participation in the body of Christ His life becomes our life and we become members of each other

Ambassadors of Reconciliation: Diverse Christian practices of restorative justice and peacemaking Ched Myers, Elaine Enns, 2009 Restorative justice refers to a social movement that seeks to repair interpersonal communal and social injustices without recourse to violence or retribution Volume two analyzes the contemporary terrain of restorative justice and peacemaking in North America and profiles the exemplary work of nine practitioners who incarnate the scriptural vision in real life contexts of profound violence and injustice

Liberation through Reconciliation O. Ernesto Valiente, 2015-12-01 In the past one hundred years alone more than 200 million people have been killed as a consequence of systematic repression political revolutions or ethnic or religious war The legacy of such violence lingers long after the immediate conflict Drawing on the author's experiences of his native El Salvador Liberation through Reconciliation builds on Jon Sobrino's thought to construct a Christian spirituality and theology of reconciliation that overcomes conflict by attending to the demands of truth justice and forgiveness

Reconciling All Things Emmanuel Katongole, 2010-06-21 Our world is broken and cries out for reconciliation But mere conflict resolution and peacemaking are not enough What makes real reconciliation possible How is it that some people are able to forgive the most horrendous of evils And what role does God play in these stories Does reconciliation make any sense apart from the biblical story of redemption Secular models of peacemaking are insufficient And the church has not always fulfilled its call to be agents of reconciliation in the world In Reconciling All Things Emmanuel Katongole and Chris Rice codirectors of the Center for Reconciliation at Duke Divinity School cast a comprehensive vision for reconciliation that is biblical transformative holistic and global They draw on the resources of the Christian story including their own individual experiences in Uganda and Mississippi to bring solid theological reflection to bear on the work of reconciling individuals groups and societies They recover distinctively Christian practices that will help the church be both a sign and an agent of God's reconciling love in the fragmented world of the twenty first century This powerful concise book lays the philosophical foundations for the Resources for Reconciliation a new series from InterVarsity Press and the Center for Reconciliation at Duke Divinity School which explores what it means to pursue hope in areas of brokenness in theory and practice

The Road Home Darrell Puls, 2013-03-22 Remarkably as many as sixty six thousand churches are in conflict at this moment and one third of those will experience permanent damage Though Christ commanded his followers to forgive we often don't and that lack of forgiveness poisons all of our relationships Churches are particularly vulnerable to unforgiveness for a simple reason no one has taught us what forgiveness actually is how it benefits the forgiver and the forgiven and most importantly how to forgive The Road Home provides a pathway to forgiveness and healthy reconciliation for churches wounded by conflict While the road it follows is not easy just as forgiving is not easy the result is an explosion of grace and restoration taking relationships beyond where they were to where they were meant to be
