Understanding Your Social Agency Armand Lauffer, 2011 Understanding Your Nonprofit Agency written by internationally renowned scholar Armand Lauffer will fill the growing need for the distinction between corporate business operations and nonprofit operations The book will focus on how nonprofit agencies operate and not how they are managed It has been assumed that both entities function similarly Currently this assumption is increasingly seen as groundless nonprofit and profit driven organizations have different goals and function differently from each other This text addresses the current trend to differentiate how nonprofits are distinct

Community Practice Skills Dorothy N Gamble, Marie Weil, 2009-11-12 Dorothy N Gamble and Marie Weil differentiate among a range of intervention methods to provide a comprehensive and effective guide to working with communities Presenting eight distinct models grounded in current practice and targeted toward specific goals Gamble and Weil take an unusually inclusive step combining their own extensive experience with numerous case and practice examples from talented practitioners in international and domestic settings The authors open with a discussion of the theories for community work and the values of social justice and human rights concerns that have guided the work of activists from Jane Addams and Martin Luther King Jr to Cesar Chavez Wangari Maathai and Vandana Shiva They survey the concepts knowledge and perspectives influencing community practice and evaluation strategies Descriptions of eight practice models follow incorporating real life case examples from many parts of the world and demonstrating multiple applications for each model as well as the primary roles competencies and skills used by the practitioner Complexities and variations encourage readers to determine through comparative analysis which model at which time best fits the goals of a community group or organization given the context culture social economic and environmental issues and opportunities for change An accompanying workbook stressing empowerment strategies and skills development is also available from Columbia University Press

Macro Practice in Social Work for the 21st Century Stephen Burghardt, 2010-06-02 This book provides a holistic vision for macro practice in the early 21st century It argues very convincingly that effective macro practice requires a strategic vision grounded in values that integrates personal and community transformation Burghardt provides a compass as well as other tools that macro practitioners can use to make significant social change It promises to be a very useful resource for community and organizational practice in a number of fields Lorraine Gutierrez University of Michigan

Situating Global Resistance Lara Montesinos Coleman, Karen Tucker, 2013-09-13 The book examines some of the ways in which contemporary forms of political dissent are situated within processes of global ordering Grounded in analysis of concrete practices of discipline and dissent in specific contexts it explores the ways in which resistance can be shaped by dominant ways of thinking seeing or enacting politics and by the multiform relations of power at play in the making of global order The contributions written from a variety of disciplinary backgrounds address themes such as the processes through which particular sorts of resisting subjects are produced the politics of knowledge in which resisting practices are embedded the ways in which visual technologies are deployed within and towards oppositional practices and the politics of gender race and class within spaces of contestation The volume thus opens up space for critical reflection and inter disciplinary dialogue on what it means to be a resisting subject and on the interplay between the power and counter power in global order This book was published as a special issue of Globalizations

Community Economic Development in Social Work Steven D. Soifer, Joseph B. McNeely, Cathy Costa, Nancy Pickering-Bernheim, 2014-11-18 Community economic development CED is an increasingly essential factor in the revitalization of low to moderate income communities This cutting edge text explores the intersection of CED and social work practice which both focus on the well being of indigent communities and the empowerment of individuals and the communities in which they live This unique textbook emphasizes a holistic approach to community building that combines business and real estate development with a focus on stimulating family self reliance and community empowerment The result is an innovative approach to rehabilitating communities in decline while preserving resident demographics The authors delve deep into the social political human and financial capital involved in effecting change and how race and regional issues can complicate approaches and outcomes Throughout they integrate case examples to illustrate their strategies and conclude with a consideration of the critical role social workers can play in developing CED s next phase

Liberating Service Learning and the Rest of Higher Education Civic Engagement Randy Stoecker, 2016-05-23

This book questions the prioritization and theoretical philosophical underpinnings of the core concepts of service learning 1 learning 2 service 3 community and 4 change By liberating service learning the author suggests reversing the prioritization of the concepts starting with change then community then service and then learning In doing so the author clarifies the benefits and purpose of this work arguing that it will create greater pedagogical and community impact This book challenges and hopefully will change our thinking about higher education community engagement Developing Occupation-Centered Programs With the Community Linda Fazio,2024-06-01 The updated Third Edition of Developing Occupation Centered Programs With the Community continues to provide an excellent step by step workbook approach to designing and implementing a program for the community Inside Developing Occupation Centered Programs With the Community Third Edition Dr Linda Fazio includes the importance of community asset identification and development toward sustainability The Third Edition includes new and updated content on evidence based practice program evaluation at multiple levels funding nonprofits and social entrepreneurship Additionally new trending issues of interest to programmers include human trafficking post combat programming for military veterans and their families arts based programming for all ages and programming to meet current needs of the well elderly Features of the Third Edition Workbook format offers the instructor and the student options for how to use the text in a classroom or independently in an internship or residency The order of the programming process chapter content order summaries and format of exercises has been retained to ease transition for instructors using previous editions of the text The program story section has been retained along with author s notes on what is currently happening with these programs and other related topic areas New content has been added in program sustainability the assessment and building of community assets and consensus organizing in communities More developed content is offered about the structure and function of nonprofit organizations as well as the role and function of the social entrepreneur who does programming for these organizations Included with the text are online supplemental materials for faculty use in the classroom Developing Occupation Centered Programs With the Community Third Edition is an excellent introductory tool and is a valuable resource for occupational therapy students at all levels as well as experienced practitioners in a clinical setting Macro Practice in Social Work for the 21st Century Steve Burghardt,2013-10-18 Macro Practice in Social Work for the 21st Century Second Edition offers a modern approach to building effective career skills in macro practice Author Steve Burghardt inspires students by tracing the careers of macro practitioners from grass roots organizers to agency executives By focusing on how practitioners can make meaningful strategic choices regardless of their formal roles and responsibilities this Second Edition takes a refreshing new approach on the key issues of how to respond to diversity and oppression the use of the internet for organization the limits of virtual trust understanding where micro and macro meet in practice and co leadership development Strategic Nonviolent Power Mark A. Mattaini,2013-10-01 History indicates that there are powerful routes to liberation from oppression that do not involve violence Mohandas Gandhi called for a science of nonviolent action one based on satyagraha or the insistence on truth As Gandhi understood nonviolent resistance is not passive nor is it weak rather such action is an exercise of power Despite the success of Gandhi's Quit India movement the resources dedicated to the application of rigorous science to nonviolent struggle have been vanishingly small By contrast almost unimaginable levels of financial and human resources have been devoted to the science and technologies of killing war and collective violence Mark Mattaini reviews the history and theory of nonviolent struggles against oppression and discusses recent research that indicates the substantial need for and advantage of nonviolent alternatives He then offers a detailed exploration of principles of behavioral systems science that appear to underlie effective strategic civil resistance and people power Strategic Nonviolent Power proposes that the route to what Gandhi described as the undreamt of and seemingly impossible discoveries of nonviolent resistance is the application of rigorous science Although not a simple science Mattaini's application of ecological science grounded in the science of behaviour brings exceptional power to the struggle for justice and liberation At a time when civil resistance is actively reshaping global political realities the science of nonviolent struggle deserves the attention of the scientific activist strategic military spiritual and diplomatic communities as well as the informed public

The Transformation of Social Work Education through Virtual Learning R. Paul Maiden, 2019-09-12 Over the past few years numerous highly ranked Tier 1 universities across the United States have embraced the development of advanced online degrees a niche of secondary education long held by a small group of private for profit universities Rapid advances in online learning technology increasingly sophisticated and easy to use learning management systems and anytime anywhere access has dramatically increase the demand of individuals mostly full time employed working professionals This volume addresses the dramatic changes that are occurring in social work pedagogy as more schools develop online programs The University of Southern California Suzanne Dworak Peck School of Social Work launched their Virtual Academic Center with a cohort of 80 online students The program has now reached a steady state of 2 200 virtual students now representing two thirds of their MSW student population Additionally the school launched a doctorate of social work degree with a focus on leading and managing innovation leading public discourse and management of large complex systems This book essentially tells the USC story with the challenges faced in embracing this new technology teaching social work courses in an online environment as well as pedagogical enhancements made by faculty in converting traditional campus based courses to the virtual environment

Social Work and Social Justice Michael Reisch, Charles D. Garvin, 2016-03-10 Social Work and Social Justice transcends discussions of abstract social justice concepts and goals by focusing on how these concepts can be used as guides for socially just practice at the interpersonal organizational community and societal levels In addition to emphasizing the importance of social justice work through compelling examples case studies and exercises this book vividly illustrates its complexity and discusses how social workers can negotiate the practical and ethical challenges involved Unlike many books on the subject the text integrates diverse and often conflicting approaches to social justice to promote critical thinking and underscore the value of incorporating various perspectives into one's practice. Other distinguishing features include its emphasis on the complementary nature of socially just goals and processes, its use of well-developed case examples often drawn from the authors' experience, and the authors' reflection on the implications of these examples from both micro and macro perspectives, along with a discussion of how practitioners with diverse understandings of social justice might interpret the case. Social Work and Social Justice is based on the authors' extensive teaching and practice experience in a wide variety of fields both in the U.S. and internationally, and on their research on such varied topics as welfare reform, mental health, social work practice theory, social work values and ethics, and the history and philosophy of social welfare and social work. It is undeniably a must-have resource for students and faculty in undergraduate and graduate social work programs, as well as practitioners in social work and the human services.
