Constructing Democracy In Transitioning Societies Of Africa Constitutionalism And Deliberation In Mali:

Constructing Democracy in Transitioning Societies of Africa S. Wing, 2008-04-28 This book explores the process by which constitutions and democratic institutions are constructed Wing focuses on how innovative constitutional dialogues involving participation negotiation and recognition of groups previously excluded from political decision making may be the key to a legitimate constitution

Governance and Intervention in Mali Susanna D. Wing, 2024-02-13 This book provides the historical and political context for the security interventions in Mali over the past three decades The work contextualizes external military engagement including that of the United States France the United Nations and G5 Sahel within the broader framework of weak democratic consolidation unmet development goals and increasing popular perceptions of widespread corruption in Mali Over the past three decades there have been four military coups in Mali the military coup in 1991 launched the Third Republic the 2012 coup toppled elected President Tour the 2020 coup overthrew the elected President Keita and the coup within a coup that ousted transitional President Bah Given the political context how do multiple international interventions relate to insecurity and instability in the country Drawing on the author's thirty years of research on Mali this work examines the relationship between external intervention in the country domestic actors and decentralization policies The book argues that external support has ignored the poor governance that is at the heart of the country's crises This book will be of much interest to students of intervention and statebuilding African politics and International Relations in general

Democratic Renewal in Africa S. Adejumbi, 2015-01-08 Since the 1980s democratic struggles have triggered constitutional reforms elections and other forms of political progress This comprehensive volume offers refreshing perspectives on Africa's democratic renewal and will open up dialogue on the trends and trajectory of Africa's democratic future

Muslim Democracy Edward Schneier, 2015-10-23 Muslim Democracy explores the relationship between politics and religion in forty seven Muslim majority countries focusing especially on those with democratic experience such as Indonesia and Turkey and drawing comparisons with their regional non Islamic counterparts Unlike most studies of political Islam this is a politically focused book more concerned with governing realities than ideology By changing the terms of the debate from theology to politics and including the full complement of Islamic countries Schneier shows that the boundaries between church and state in the Islamic world are more variable and diverse than is commonly assumed Through case studies and statistical comparisons between Muslim majority countries and their regional counterparts Muslim Democracy shows that countries with different religions but similar histories are not markedly different in their levels of democratization What many Islamists and western observers call Islamic law moreover is more a political than a religious construct with religion more the tool than the engine of politics Women who drive in Saudi Arabia as the author says are not warned they will go to hell but that they will go to jail With the political salience of religion rising in many countries this book is essential reading for students of comparative politics religion and democratization interested in exploring the shifting boundaries between faith and politics Parties, Movements, and Democracy in the Developing World Nancy Bermeo, Deborah J. Yashar, 2016-12 A comparative study of the role of political parties and movements in the founding and survival of developing world democracies Comparative Constitutional Law in Africa Rosalind Dixon, Tom Ginsburg, Adem Abebe, 2022-12-06 This timely book is a crucial resource on the rich diversity of African constitutional law making a significant contribution to the increasingly important field of comparative constitutional law from a historically understudied region Offering an examination of substantive topics from multiple jurisdictions it emphasises issues of local importance while also providing varied perspectives on common challenges across the continent Constituents Before Assembly Todd A. Eisenstadt, A. Carl LeVan, Tofigh Maboudi, 2017-07-03 When building democracy through new constitutions the level of participation matters more than the content of the constitution itself This book examines this theory Beyond Ethnic Politics in Africa Dominika Koter, 2016-10-13 Why do ethnic politics emerge in some ethnically diverse societies but not others Focusing on sub Saharan Africa Dominika Koter argues that the prevailing social structures of a country play a central role in how politicians attempt to mobilize voters In particular politicians consider the strength of local leaders such as chiefs or religious dignitaries who have historically played a crucial role in many parts of rural Africa Local leaders can change the electoral dynamics by helping politicians secure votes among people of different ethnicities Ethnic politics thus can be avoided where there are local leaders who can serve as credible electoral intermediaries between voters and politicians Koter shows that there is widespread variation in the standing of local leaders across Africa as a result of long term historical trends which has meant that politicians have mobilized voters in qualitatively different ways resulting in different levels of ethnic politics across the continent Africa in World Politics John W. Harbeson, Donald Rothchild, 2023-06-23 Africa in World Politics provides advanced undergraduate and graduate students with the perfect introduction to the challenges faced by African states on an increasingly turbulent world stage Africa in World Politics has long served as the go to resource for students of African politics seeking to navigate the continent's complex political and economic landscapes Updated throughout this new edition includes new chapters on the unprecedented challenges the continent faces from climate change and the fallout of the COVID 19 global pandemic Adding to existing coverage of international diplomacy peacebuilding women in politics and the building blocks of political economy the book also includes expanded coverage of the role of China in Africa and fresh perspectives on decolonization Drawing together insights from some of the world's leading scholars of African politics this textbook is an essential read for advanced students of political science and African studies

Semi-Presidentialism Robert Elgie, 2011-08-25 Robert Elgie examines the relationship between semi presidentialism and democratic performance There are over 50 countries with a semi presidential constitution The book shows that the president parliamentary sub type is more likely to be associated with a poorer democratic performance than its premier presidential counterpart Political Handbook of the World 2024-2025 Tom Lansford, 2025-04-18 The Political

Handbook of the World 2024 2025 is the most authoritative and comprehensive reference guide available for understanding the political landscape of every nation and territory across the globe This updated edition features more than 200 entries offering detailed coverage of governmental structures political parties and current leadership Known for its unmatched depth the volume provides in depth analysis of both major and minor political parties and movements and delivers timely insights into recent controversies political crises and key events from the past two years This edition also includes up to date listings of ambassadors international organization memberships and expanded profiles of over 30 intergovernmental organizations and UN agencies Trusted by researchers analysts journalists and students this resource continues to deliver essential reliable political data and analysis

Western Intervention and Informal Politics Troels Burchall Henningsen, 2021-12-28 This book examines the political and military dynamic between threatened local regimes and Western powers and it argues that the power of informal politics forces local regimes to simulate statebuilding Reforms enabling local states to take care of their own terrorist and insurgency threats are a blueprint for most Western interventions to provide a way out of protracted internal conflicts Yet local regimes most often fail to implement reforms that would have strengthened their hand This book examines why local regimes derail the reforms demanded by Western powers when they rely on their support to stay in power during existentially threatening violent crises Based on the political settlement framework the author analyses how web like networks of militarized elites require local regimes to use informal politics to stay in power Four case studies of Western intervention are presented Iraq 2011 2018 Mali 2011 2020 Chad 2005 2010 and Algeria 1991 2000 These studies demonstrate that informal politics narrows strategic possibilities and forces regimes to rely on coup proofing military strategies to continue their alliances with militias and former insurgents and to simulate statebuilding reforms to solve the dilemma of satisfying militarized elites and Western powers at the same time This book will be of much interest to students of statebuilding international intervention counter insurgency civil wars and international relations

Public Participation in African Constitutionalism Tania Abbiate, Markus Böckenförde, Veronica Federico, 2017-11-22 During the last decade of the 20th century Africa has been marked by a constitutional wind which has blown across the continent giving impetus to constitutional reforms designed to introduce constitutionalism and good governance One of the main features of these processes has been the promotion of public participation encouraged by both civil society and the international community This book aims to provide a systematic overview of participation forms and mechanisms across Africa and a critical understanding of the impact of public participation in constitution making processes digging beneath the rhetoric of public participation as being at the heart of any successful transition towards democracy and constitutionalism Using case studies from Central African Republic Egypt Kenya Libya Malawi Morocco Senegal Somalia South Africa South Sudan Tanzania Tunisia Zambia and Zimbabwe the book investigates various aspects of participatory constitution making from conception to processes and specific contents that trigger ambivalent dynamics in such processes The abstract glorification of public participation is questioned as theoretical and empirical perspectives are used to explain what public participation does in concrete terms and to identify what lessons might be drawn from those experiences This is a valuable resource for academics researchers and students with an interest in politics and constitution building in Africa as well as experts working in national offices international organizations or in national and international NGOs The 'Fall' of the Arab Spring Tofigh

Maboudi,2022-04-07 It examines the wave of constitutions following the Arab Spring considering when constitutional bargains are likely to yield democracy Political Handbook of the World 2020-2021 Tom Lansford,2021-05-31 The Political Handbook of the World by Tom Lansford provides timely thorough and accurate political information with more in depth coverage of current political controversies than any other reference guide The updated 2020 2021 edition will continue to be the most authoritative source for finding complete facts and analysis on each country s governmental and political makeup Compiling in one place more than 200 entries on countries and territories throughout the world this volume is renowned for its extensive coverage of all major and minor political parties and groups in each political system The Political Handbook of the World 2020 2021 also provides names of key ambassadors and international memberships of each country plus detailed profiles of more than 30 intergovernmental organizations and UN agencies And this update will aim to include coverage of current events issues crises and controversies from the course of the last two years Making Citizens in Africa Lahra Smith,2013-05-20 This book provides a study of contemporary politics in Ethiopia through an empirical focus on language policy citizenship ethnic identity and gender It is unique in its focus not only on the political institutions of Ethiopia and the history of the country but in that it studies these subjects at the intersection of both modern and historical time periods In particular it argues that meaningful citizenship which is much more than the legal state of being a citizen is a process of citizens and the state negotiating the practice of citizenship Therefore it puts the citizen back at the forefront of the process of expanding citizenship suggesting the ways that citizens support resist and affect state policy on political rights

Democratic Struggle, Institutional Reform, and State Resilience in the African Sahel Leonardo A. Villalón,Rahmane Idrissa,2020-02-06 Long on the periphery of both academic research and international attention the countries of the West African Sahel currently find themselves at the center of global concerns over security terrorism migration and conflict Since the early 1990s the Sahelian states have also been engaged in political struggles over the construction of democratic institutions Edited by Leonardo A Villal n and Abdourahmane Idrissa Democratic Struggle Institutional Reform and State Resilience in the African Sahel addresses a key and little studied question How have the politics of democratization across the Francophone Sahel shaped processes of state building and with what effects on the resilience of state institutions Starting from the premise that variation in the politics of institution building and institutional reform although most frequently justified and debated in terms of democratization have differing impact on the construction of resilient states this book examines these processes in six francophone states of the Sahel Senegal Mauritania Mali Burkina Faso Niger and Chad
