Conflicted Commitments Race Privilege And Power In Solidarity Activism:

Conflicted Commitments Gada Mahrouse,2014-06-01 Conflicted Commitments analyzes a form of non violent direct transnational solidarity in which activists from the global North travel to support and protect people in the global South Gada Mahrouse contends that this brand of activism is a compelling site of racialized power relations and is highly instructive for a nuanced understanding of systems of race Mahrouse argues that the individuals who partake in this form of activism consciously deploy their white western privilege to offer support and protection to those facing threats of violence Moreover given that this type of activism asserts itself as an exemplary form of anti racist commitment it illustrates that well meaning practices can inadvertently reproduce racialized power structures that are embedded in imperial and colonial legacies Mahrouse focuses on Palestine and Iraq in the post 9 11 era to contemplate the contemporary challenges that these regions pose for solidarity activism By exploring how individual activists manage and negotiate their dominant positioning in these encounters Mahrouse reflects more broadly on the ethics of social justice strategies in an increasingly transnational world A detailed study of the racialized complexities and contradictions inherent in transnational solidarity activism Conflicted Commitments makes a significant contribution to critical race and feminist studies

Indigenous Resurgence Jaskiran Dhillon,2022-03-31 From the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe s resistance against the Dakota Access pipeline to the Nepalese Newar community s protest of the Fast Track Road Project Indigenous peoples around the world are standing up and speaking out against global capitalism to protect the land water and air By reminding us of the fundamental importance of placing Indigenous politics histories and ontologies at the center of our social movements Indigenous Resurgence positions environmental justice within historical social political and economic contexts exploring the troubling relationship between colonial and environmental violence and reframing climate change and environmental degradation through an anticolonial lens

Cross-Border Solidarities in Twenty-First Century Contexts Janet M. Conway,Pascale Dufour,Dominique Masson,2024-04-08 Conditions for global solidarities and social movements have changed radically since their high point in the 1990s United Nations conferences This collection considers how political solidarities are being understood and constructed in a variety of cross border struggles and for what ends under twenty first century conditions In studies grounded in different world regions at a variety of scales authors address how the Cold War divide and its aftermath have structured contemporary asymmetries in European LGBT movements and in global feminisms how colonial difference in Latin America confronts feminist and social justice movements with problems of translation across worlds how travelling concepts essential to constructing solidarities across distance and difference traverse linguistic divides and attendant power imbalances in world cities and transnational networks how rurality as a form of colonial difference challenges established categories of intersectional feminism Feminist politics of power and difference and attention to gendered agency are at the centre of this inquiry into the possibility of twenty first century solidarities across borders

Genocide Elizabeth A. Oglesby, Diane M. Nelson, 2018-12-07 In Guatemala it was called the trial of the century the 2013 prosecution of former de facto head of state 1982-1983 General Jos Efra n R os Montt and his intelligence chief General Jos Mauricio Rodr guez S nchez on charges of genocide and crimes against humanity against the Maya Ixil people R os Montt s seventeen month reign was one of the bloodiest periods in Guatemala s history with scorched earth massacres the destruction of hundreds of Maya communities and militarized resettlement of Mayas into model villages R os Montt was convicted on all charges Ten days later a higher court vacated the verdict on dubious procedural grounds Nevertheless Guatemala s genocide trial held in the domestic courts in the country where the crimes were committed was precedent setting In this volume Guatemalan and international scholars rigorously explore the complexities of the Guatemala experience and reflect upon the case s implications for understanding and prosecuting the category of genocide more broadly Topics include the nexus of racism and counterinsurgency in explaining Guatemala s genocide the politics of Maya collective memory the intersections of gender sexuality and ethnicity in genocide the decades long interconnections of national and transnational justice processes that brought the case to trial and the limits and contributions of tribunal justice This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Genocide Research

Media Solidarities Kaarina Nikunen, 2018-12-10 What does it mean when images of refugees plight are shared on social media Or when we respond to emotive NGO fundraising campaigns or are heartened by do good reality TV shows Do these narratives offer incentives for genuine social change or only momentary feelings of individual satisfaction Drawing on social theory political economy and cultural studies Media Solidarities explores the way in which media can both enable and obstruct meaningful bonds of solidarity and positive social change Written in a highly approachable style it ties theory to contemporary world events and media discourses through a series of examples and case studies The book offers an analytical toolkit to critically understand media narratives of representation participation and production and to challenge our perceptions of our selves and society It will be fascinating reading for students in media and communications politics sociology human geography and cultural studies

Empowerment and Social Justice in the Wake of Disasters Sara Bondesson, 2022-08-09 This book taps into discussions about social vulnerability empowerment and resistance in relation to disaster relief and recovery It disentangles tensions and dilemmas within post disaster empowerment through a rich ethnographic narrative of the work of Occupy Sandy in Rockaway New York City after Hurricane Sandy in 2012 It details both a remarkable collaborative relief phase in which marginalized communities were empowered to take active part as well as a phase of conflict and resistance that came about as relief turned to long term recovery This volume particularly aims to understand how community empowerment processes can breach pre disaster marginalization in the aftermath of disasters It connects with broader emancipatory literature on dilemmas involved in empowerment from the outside In a future of potentially harsher climate related disasters and increased social vulnerability for certain communities this book contributes to a full and nuanced understanding of community empowerment and vulnerability reduction This book will be of interest to sociologists anthropologists geographers political scientists and urban studies researchers as well as undergraduate and postgraduate students interested in disaster management disaster risk reduction social vulnerability community empowerment development studies local studies social work community based work and emancipatory theory The Ethics of Exile Ashwini Vasanthakumar,2021-11-04

Exiles have long been transformative actors in their homelands they foment revolution sustain dissent and work to create renewed political institutions and identities back home Ongoing waves of migration ensure that they will continue to play these vital roles Rather than focus on what exiles mean for the countries they enter a perspective that often treats them as passive victims The Ethics of Exile recognises their political and moral agency and explores their rich and vital relationship to the communities they have left It offers a rare view of the other side of the migration story Engaging with a series of case studies this book identifies the responsibilities and rights exiles have and the important roles they play in homeland politics It argues that exile politics performs two functions it can correct defective political institutions back home and it can counter asymmetries of voice and power abroad In short exiles can act both as a linchpin and a buffer between political communities in crisis and the international actors who seek to variously aid and exploit them When we think about the duties we owe to those forced to leave their homes we should consider how to enable rather than thwart these roles Refugee States Vinh Nguyen,Thy Phu,2021-06-29 Exploring refuge and refugee as concepts that shape Canadian nation building both within and beyond national borders Refugee States takes an interdisciplinary and critical approach to describing how refugees articulate their relation to and defiance of official discourses Through close examinations of refugee movements contexts and subjectivities this collection reveals how Canada has relied upon the rejection and inclusion of refugees as a crucial means of statecraft Bringing together renowned and emerging scholars from multiple disciplines Nguyen and Phu illuminate the historical political and cultural conditions that produce refugees as well as the narrative of humanitarian benevolence that persists nationally and internationally Highlighting landmark cases the editors and contributors together develop critical refugee studies as a framework for understanding nuancing and critiquing

the production of Canadian humanitarian exceptionalism the international image and discourse of Canada as a liberal tolerant and welcoming haven for people fleeing oppression persecution and unfreedom In doing so Refugee States offers alternative modes of understanding past and present refugee passages to and within Canada and brings to light the many ways in which refugee subjects navigate displacement migration and resettlement Intersectionality Anna Carastathis,2016-11-01 Intersectionality critically examines the mainstreaming and institutionalization of this concept offering a renewed understanding through close readings of some of its generative texts Global Handbook of Inequality Surinder S. Jodhka,Boike Rehbein,2024-11-19 This handbook provides the most up to date and comprehensive review of the literature on inequality It provides comprehensive overviews of the main theoretical traditions concepts dimensions methodologies and contemporary debates around inequality as well as outlines of the situation of inequality in the world regions Each entry covers the most relevant literature on the respective topic and gives an introduction to the key discussions This authoritative reference work includes contributions from established and upcoming scholars based all over the world and is truly global in perspective It serves as a first introduction to the study of a particular field or issue related to inequality The distinctive aspect of this handbook is its emphasis on the lived realities of inequality its relational and cultural aspects as well as the economic and quantitative aspects This is a must read reference volume for students researchers and professionals interested in this topic across the spectrum of the social sciences The Routledge Handbook of Transregional Studies Matthias Middell,2018-11-08 The Routledge Handbook of Transregional Studies brings together the various fields within which transregional phenomena are scientifically observed and analysed This handbook presents the theoretical and methodological potential of such studies for the advancement of the conceptualization of global and area bound developments Following three decades of intense debate about globalization and transnationalism it has become clear that border crossing connections and interactions between societies are highly important yet not all extend beyond the borders of nation states or are of truly world wide reach The product of extensive international and interdisciplinary cooperation this handbook is divided into ten sections that introduce the wide variety of topics within transregional studies including Colonialism and Post Colonial Studies Spatial Formats International Organizations Religions and Religious Movements and Transregional Studies and Narratives of Globalization Recognizing that transregional studies asks about the space making and space formatting character of connections as well as the empirical status of such connections under the global condition the volume reaches beyond the typical confines of area and regional studies to consider how areas are transcended and transformed more widely Combining case studies with both theoretical and methodological considerations The Routledge Handbook of Transregional Studies provides the first overview of the currently flourishing field of transregional studies and is the ideal volume for students and scholars of this diverse subject and its related fields The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non

Mapping Diaspora Patricia de Santana Pinho, 2018-10-26 Brazil like some countries in Africa has become a major destination for African American tourists seeking the cultural roots of the black Atlantic diaspora Drawing on over a decade of ethnographic research as well as textual visual and archival sources Patricia de Santana Pinho investigates African American roots tourism a complex poignant kind of travel that provides profound personal and collective meaning for those searching for black identity and heritage It also provides as Pinho s interviews with Brazilian tour guides state officials and Afro Brazilian activists reveal economic and political rewards that support a structured industry Pinho traces the origins of roots tourism to the late 1970s when groups of black intellectuals artists and activists found themselves drawn especially to Bahia the state that in previous centuries had absorbed the largest number of enslaved Africans African Americans have become frequent travelers across what Pinho calls the map of

Africanness that connects diasporic communities and stimulates transnational solidarities while simultaneously exposing the unevenness of the black diaspora Roots tourism Pinho finds is a fertile site to examine the tensions between racial and national identities as well as the gendered dimensions of travel particularly when women are the major roots seekers

Unsettling Eurocentrism in the Westernized University Julie Cupples, Ramón Grosfoguel, 2018-08-06 The westernized university is a site where the production of knowledge is embedded in Eurocentric epistemologies that are posed as objective disembodied and universal and in which non Eurocentric knowledges such as black and indigenous ones are largely marginalized or dismissed Consequently it is an institution that produces racism sexism and epistemic violence While this is increasingly being challenged by student activists and some faculty the westernized university continues to engage in diversity and internationalization initiatives that reproduce structural disadvantages and to work within neoliberal agendas that are incompatible with decolonization This book draws on decolonial theory to explore the ways in which Eurocentrism in the westernized university is both reproduced and unsettled It outlines some of the challenges that accompany the decolonization of teaching learning research and policy as well as providing examples of successful decolonial moments and processes It draws on examples from universities in Europe New Zealand and the Americas This book represents a highly timely contribution from both early career and established thinkers in the field Its themes will be of interest to student activists and to academics and scholars who are seeking to decolonize their research and teaching It constitutes a decolonizing intervention into the crisis in which the westernized university finds itself
