Christianity and Suffering Rodney L. Reed, 2017-12-14 We often hear these days that the centre of Christianity is moving toward the Global South and Africa is a key player in that movement This makes the study of African Christianity and African realities important even more so when it is being done by Africans themselves in their own context The Africa Society of Evangelical Theology ASET was created to encourage research and sustained theological reflection on key issues facing Africa by and for African Christians and those working within African contexts The volumes in the ASET series constitute the best papers presented at the annual conferences of ASET and together they seek to fill this important gap in the literature of Christianity Africa is all too familiar with suffering Yet there is a dearth of sustained theological reflection on suffering by Africans or for Africans Christianity and Suffering African Perspectives addresses this need and is the fruit of the 5th Annual Conference of the Africa Society of Evangelical Theology The contributions address age old issues like why God does not prevent or relieve human suffering they wrestle with causes of suffering including witchcraft poverty curses and war and they also explore appropriate Christian responses to suffering all from within the African context The Africa Society of Evangelical Theology ASET is a professional society founded in 2009 for the purpose of fostering evangelical theological scholarship and to facilitate collegial relationships among scholars and practitioners of the Christian religion in Africa Its core values are 1 Faithfulness to the Bible 2 Professional ethics 3 Creative and critical thinking 4 Christ like humility 5 Community of scholars encouraging respecting and learning from one another and 6 Development and inspiration of young scholars To learn more about ASET please visit its Facebook page facebook.com AfricaSocietyOfEvangelicalTheology Ice On Fire Scott Kelso, Jesus, Deliver Us Willard M. Swartley, 2019 Deliver us from the evil one is the heart s cry from the Lord s Prayer Evil wears many faces in our modern world This book connects the Lord s Prayer to troubles of our times be it attacks from Satan the wars around the world the scourge of racism or the mass shootings of our time The subtitle of the book identifies the scope This book blends both deliverance from demonic bondage and witness to the powers in relation to political policies and government While the book aims to be a biblical theology on these topics it seeks also to address the praxis how these evils are confronted through healing deliverance ministries and what people of God say and do in witness to the powers The two streams of response to evil are really one as a faithful response to the saving work of the Lord God Almighty through Jesus Christ s victory over Satan sin evil and death Love your enemy confronts evil with power to transform

Islam and the Bible Ayman S. Ibrahim, Ant Greenham, 2023-12-01 In Islam and the Bible editors Ayman S Ibrahim and Ant B Greenham invite leading voices representing a spectrum of approaches to explore the issues surrounding Muslim Idiom Translations of the Bible

Appropriate Christianity Charles H. Kraft, 2005 Appropriate Christianity consists of 28 chapters by 18 authors approaching contextualization in three dimensions truth allegiance and spiritual power Over the years there have been quite a number of helpful discussions of the contextualization of theological truth Though we have been helped greatly by them it is high time we began to deal also with allegiance and spiritual power two additional dimensions that Jesus considered of great importance Any adequate and appropriate treatment of the contextualization of biblical Christianity needs to deal with all three of these 2 crucial dimensions 3 For allegiance to Christ is the basis for all we do that makes us Christian and Jesus was very much into spiritual power If we are to be truly biblical we must deal also with these areas

Traditional Ritual as Christian Worship Burrows, William R., Shaw, R. Daniel, 2018-03-27 A necessary task of missionaries in recent decades has been to help local Christians inculturate or contextualize their faith although the criteria for doing so often came from outside the context in which new believers developed their understanding of Christianity Highlighting the voices of non Western scholars this work recognizes the importance of ritual and ceremony in the life of communities that seek to worship God in ways that reflect culturally appropriate responses to Scripture The contributors some of missiology s leading lights discuss rituals beliefs and practices of diverse peoples supporting the conclusion that orthodox Christianity is hybrid Christianity

Missiological Hermeneutics Shawn B. Redford, 2012-10-18 How have those engaged in the mission of God been challenged to reinterpret Scripture through their experience In what ways were the missionaries in the Bible challenged to reevaluate Scripture in their own time Redford attempts to give shape to the nature of missional hermeneutics by examining Scripture present day cultural values historical struggles and the experience of those who are engaged in the mission of God In order for missionaries to overcome the scientific polarization in Western hermeneutics they must be able to perceive and learn from the overarching missional and spiritual hermeneutics found throughout Scripture so that they can balance missional spiritual historical critical and even unforeseen hermeneutical paths providing increased confidence in biblical interpretation

Cleansing the Cosmos E. Janet Warren, 2012-11-08 Understanding evil spiritual forces is essential for Christian theology yet discussion is almost always phrased in terms of spiritual warfare Warfare language is problematic being dualistic assigning a high degree of ontology to evil and poorly applicable to ministry This unique study proposes a biblically based model as the first alternative to a spiritual warfare framework for dealing with the demonic thus providing insights for preaching counseling and missiology Warren develops this model using metaphor theory and examining four biblical themes Creation Cult Christ and Church Metaphors of cleansing ordering and boundary setting are developed in contrast to battle imagery and relevant theological issues are engaged Boyd's warfare imagery Barth's ideas of evil as nothingness and Eliade's notion of the sacred and the profane The role of the Holy Spirit is emphasized and the ontology of evil minimized This model incorporates concentric circles evil being considered peripheral to divine reality and provides a refreshing alternative to current spiritual warfare models

The Idea of Haiti Millery Polyné, 2013-05-17 After Haiti was struck by a devastating earthquake on January 12 2010 aid workers and offers of support poured in from around the world Tellingly though news reports on the catastrophe and relief efforts frequently included a pejorative description of the country that outsiders were determined to rebuild the troubled island nation a nation plagued by political violence There was much talk of inventing a new Haiti which would presumably mimic Western modes of development and thus mitigate political instability and crisis As contributors to this wide ranging book reveal Haiti has long been marginalized as an embodiment of alterity as the other and the idea of a new Haiti is actually nothing new An investigation of the notion of newness through the lenses of history and literature urban planning religion and governance The Idea of Haiti illuminates the politics and the narratives of Haiti's past and present The essays which grow from original research and in depth interviews examine how race class and national development inform the policies that envision re-creating the country Together the contributors address important questions How will the present narratives of deviance affect international relief and rebuilding efforts What do Haitians themselves think about Haiti old and new What are the potential complications and weakness of aid strategies during these trying times And what do we mean by crisis in Haiti Contributors Yveline Alexis Rutgers U Wein Weibert Arthus State U of Haiti Greg Beckett Bowdoin College Alex Dupuy Wesleyan U Harley F Etienne U of Michigan Robert Fatton Jr U of Virginia Sibylle Fischer New York U Elizabeth McAlister Wesleyan U Nick Nesbitt Princeton U Karen Richman U of Notre Dame Mark Schuller York College CUNY Patrick Sylvain Brown U velyne Trouillot State U of Haiti Tatiana Wah Columbia U

Facing West David R. Swartz,2020 In 1974 nearly 3 000 evangelicals from 150 nations met at the Lausanne Congress on World Evangelization Amidst this cosmopolitan setting and in front of the most important white evangelical leaders of the United States members of the Latin American Theological Fraternity spoke out against the American Church Fiery speeches by Ecuadorian Ren Padilla and Peruvian Samuel Escobar revealed a global weariness with what they described as an American style of coldly efficient mission wedded to myopic right leaning politics Their bold critiques electrified Christians from around the world The dramatic growth of Christianity around the world in the last century has shifted the balance of power within the faith away from the traditional strongholds of Europe and the United States to the Global South To be sure Western missionaries have carried religion abroad but the line of influence has often run the other way David R Swartz demonstrates that evangelicals in the Global South spoke frankly to American evangelicals on matters of race imperialism theology sexuality and social justice From the left they have pushed for racial egalitarianism ecumenism and more substantial development efforts From the right they have advocated for a conservative sexual ethic They forced American Christians to think more critically about their own assumptions The United States is just one node of a sprawling global network that includes Korea India

Switzerland the Philippines Guatemala Uganda and Thailand Telling stories of the diverse array of evangelicals around the world Swartz shows that evangelical networks don't only extend outward but back home from the ends of the earth

Defeating Dark Angels Charles H. Kraft, 2016-10-04 A Practical Complete Guide to Defeating Demons Demonic oppression is a very real spiritual phenomenon yet it remains a terrifying and misunderstood subject for many Christians What does the Bible say Can demons exert power over Christians Can a Christian be possessed How do you know if a problem is psychological or spiritual In this revised edition of Defeating Dark Angels Dr Charles H Kraft a retired evangelical seminary professor and experienced deliverance minister reveals everything you need to know With clarity and biblical insight he explains why and how dark forces come against God's people our authority as Christians over demons how to resist the influence of demons how to break their hold on the lives of others the need for continued healing and care after deliverance through counseling Weaving practical application with firsthand accounts of demonic activity in the lives of real people this is your complete guide to defeating dark angels and ministering God's freedom to others Restoring the First-century Church in the Twenty-first Century Warren Lewis, Hans Rollmann, 2005-10-15 Restoring the First century Church in the Twenty first Century Essays on the Stone Campbell Restoration Movement in Honor of Don Haymes is a snapshot of a major American religious movement just after the turn of the millennium When the Disciples of Alexander Campbell and the Christians of Barton Warren Stone joined forces early in the 19th century the first indigenous ecumenical movement in the United States came into being Two hundred years later this American experiment in biblical primitivism has resulted in three possibly four large segments Best known is the Christian Church Disciples of Christ active wherever ecumenical Christians gather The denomination is typically theologically open having been reshaped by theological Liberalism and the Social Gospel in the twentieth century and has been re organized on the model of other Protestant bodies The largest group the Churches of Christ easily distinguished by their insistence on a cappella music singing only is theologically conservative now tending towards the evangelical and congregationally autonomous though with a denominational sense of brotherhood The Christian Churches Churches of Christ Independent are a via media between the two other bodies theologically conservative and evangelical congregationally autonomous pastorally oriented and comfortable with instrumental music The fourth numerically significant group the churches of Christ Anti Institutional is a conservative reaction to the a cappella churches much in the way that the Southern a capella churches reacted against the emerging intellectual culture and social location instrumental music and institutional centrism of the Northern Disciples following the Civil War Besides these four numerous smaller fragments typically one article splinter groups decorate the history of the Restoration Movement One Cup brethren Premillennialists No Sunday School congregations No Located Preacher churches and others This movement to unite Christians on the basis of faith and immersion in Jesus Christ and to restore New Testament Christianity is too little recognized on the American religious landscape and it has been too little studied by the academic community This volume is focused primarily on the a cappella churches and their interests but implications for the entire Stone Campbell Restoration Movement abound The voices that speak freely within were unimpeded in authoring these essays by standards of orthodoxy imposed from without All of the contributors are acquainted with Don Haymes the honoree of the volume and have been inspired by this friend and colleague a man with a rigorous and earthy intellect and a heavenly spirit David Bundy series editor Studies in the History and Culture of World Christianities Charisma and Christian Life ,2002 American Book Publishing Record ,2003
