Commemorations John R. Gillis, 2018-06-05 Memory is as central to modern politics as politics is central to modern memory We are so accustomed to living in a forest of monuments to having the past represented to us through museums historic sites and public sculpture that we easily lose sight of the recent origins and diverse meanings of these uniquely modern phenomena In this volume leading historians anthropologists and ethnographers explore the relationship between collective memory and national identity in diverse cultures throughout history Placing commemorations in their historical settings the contributors disclose the contested nature of these monuments by showing how groups and individuals struggle to shape the past to their own ends The volume is introduced by John Gillis s broad overview of the development of public memory in relation to the history of the nation state Other contributions address the usefulness of identity as a cross cultural concept Richard Handler the connection between identity heritage and history David Lowenthal national memory in early modern England David Cressy commemoration in Cleveland John Bodnar the museum and the politics of social control in modern Iraq Eric Davis invented tradition and collective memory in Israel Yael Zerubavel black emancipation and the civil war monument Kirk Savage memory and naming in the Great War Thomas Laqueur American commemoration of World War I

Kurt Piehler art commerce and the production of memory in France after World War I Daniel Sherman historic preservation in twentieth century Germany Rudy Koshar the struggle over French identity in the early twentieth century Herman Lebovics and the commemoration of concentration camps in the new Germany Claudia Koonz Reminiscing Our Heritage Danny Walsh, 2017-07-05 This book is designed to be used by anybody working with older adults in residential nursing and day care facilities It provides a wealth of reminiscence material which can be used in a number of ways to rekindle memories and provide stimulating activity such as quizzes and discussion Each year covered in the book is divided into the sections Major events On the home front Music Television Screen and page Sport and Do you remember Many sections can be easily turned into quizzes and it would be simple to form a quiz from each year's material One cannot cover all that happened in these years nor highlight all the associations each event or fact triggers so the material is intended to be expanded on by the memories it triggers in clients during discussion So for example where a film title is mentioned ask if people can recall the stars of the film its plot and how it ended The Major events section will trigger lots of opinions too as it covers the political events of the decades so try to get the groups to discuss the ethical and moral dilemmas these posed at the time The book is intended for use with individuals and groups but you will discover that in a group one person's memories will trigger another's and so what seems like a small topic can last for the whole session as we all try to tell our personal tales While the content has a UK bias it also covers the major world events of the decades but I have included a blank page for each year for you to record your own personal landmarks and achievements and also those of your local town or community specialising in older adults mental health to a deeper level Cultural Heritage Adriana Campelo, Laura Reynolds, Adam Lindgreen, Michael Beverland, 2018-11-15 Cultural Heritage is a systematic interdisciplinary examination of cultural heritage which provides an up to date view of the field by drawing on various disciplines The book offers a thorough structured review of extant literature on heritage in tourism and pertinent challenges for cultural heritage This book offers new ways of looking at cultural heritage assets against a backdrop of increasing economic and environmental pressures It comprises a number of sections that each examine cultural heritage from the perspective of ethics and values community relations and development cultural entrepreneurship economic viability and conservation methodologies impacts of tourism research consumption and urban and immaterial heritage Encompassing global research perspectives from public management visual culture environmental management and cultural entrepreneurship Cultural Heritage is a crucial text for those working or interested in the heritage field Pie 'n' Mash and Prefabs - My 1950s Childhood Norman Jacobs, 2015-03-05 The Blitz had made many families in the East End of London homeless One solution was to erect prefabs on fields and open spaces to give temporary accommodation to those who had been bombed out It was in one of these modern boxes that young Norman Jacobs grew up through the 1950s and 1960s In a lively detailed and humorous picture of a postwar Hackney childhood Norman takes us back to an age of rationing bomb sites street markets colourful characters and camaraderie And in reminiscing about stodgy school food jumpers for goalposts Listen with Mother greyhound racing pie n mash holiday camps and the advent of American style burger bars he provides a glimpse into a way of life that has vanished for ever Set against a backdrop of Rock n Roll the Cuban Missile Crisis and the assassination of President Kennedy funny poignant and sometimes sad Norman s is a story full of innocence and happiness that will take you back to the best of times the days we thought would never end

The Eyes of a Child Edwin Pugh,1917 Welcome to My World Charlie Walker,2000 This is an autobiographical account of Charlie Walker s life from his impoverished childhood in 1930s Barnsley to huge success as a self made Wakefield businessman Real Boys Thomas Stewart,2024-08-01 The remarkable debut from Thomas Stewart In his debut collection

Real Boys Thomas Stewart examines the death of his father and explores questions of grief guilt mental health identity sexuality and masculinity As these poems unfold a hallway of mirrors is created Through the lens of father son relationships cinema art and Welsh mythology are expanded and rethought This collection grapples with what it means to be a father a son and a self Subverting the notions of gender Stewart addresses both the damage of old stereotypes and the passage of generational trauma questioning how we might change A wonderful meditation on the language of grief want lust and hope Jenni Fagan A beautiful and wistful collection which wrangles with life s ample grief and heartache Andr s N Ordorica These poems are a revelation I took great comfort from Thomas Stewart s collection Lotte Jeffs Wall Memorials and Heritage Sybille Frank,2016-06-17 Analysing the transformation of Berlin s former Allied border control point Checkpoint Charlie into a global heritage industry this volume provides an introduction to and a theoretically informed structuring of the interdisciplinary international heritage debate This crucial case study demonstrates that an unregulated global heritage industry has developed in Berlin which capitalizes on the internationally very attractive but locally still very painful heritage of the Berlin Wall Frank explores the conflicts that occur when private commercial interests in interpreting and selling history to an international audience clash with traditional institutionalized public forms of local and national heritage making and commemorative practices and with the victims perspectives Wall Memorials and Heritage illustrates existing approaches to heritage research and develops them in dialogue with Berlin s traditions of conveying history and the specific configuration of the heritage industry at Checkpoint Charlie Productively integrating theory with empirical evidence this innovative book enriches the international literature on heritage and its economic and political contexts
