Constructing Public Opinion:

Constructing Public Opinion Justin Lewis, 2001 The first study of opinion polls using an interdisciplinary approach combining cultural studies sociology political science and mass communication Rather than dismissing polls Lewis considers them a significant form of representation in contemporary culture he explores how the media report on polls and in turn how publicized results influence the way people respond to polls

Encyclopedia of Social Problems Vincent N. Parrillo, 2008-05-22 From terrorism to social inequality and from health care to environmental issues social problems affect us all The Encyclopedia will offer an interdisciplinary perspective into these and many other social problems that are a continuing concern in our lives whether we confront them on a personal local regional national or global level

Perspective on Analytical Writing a Focus on Feature and Editorial Writing Richmond S. Anderson Snr., 2021-12-10 The writing of this book Perspective on Analytical Writing a focus on Feature and Editorial writing is based on the urge for students majoring in mass communication on the African continent particularly those within the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS to have a simplistic understanding of the course feature and editorial writing It will be oblivious or a miss calculation to say that there are no texts books on feature and editorial writing on the African continent since I have not had the opportunity to extensively travel within Africa but what could be safely said is for over three decades since I completed my under graduate studies I have not seen a text book on feature and editorial writing readily Based on this experience the book first endeavored in its starting to give students an insight on what an analytical writing is beginning with a drill on perspective and gave a detailed and vivid picture of perspective thereby laying the basis to understanding what feature and editorial writing is all about Although the core focus of the book is on feature and editorial writing but as the title depicts Perspectives on Analytical Writing more emphases are placed on perspective and analytical writing in order to provide a deeper understanding for the students as a foundation to grasp the concept of feature and editorial writing Also the book featured research as a component to writing an appreciable feature and editorial piece Added to research other ingredients for writing good feature and editorials are also considered They include opinion persuasion and propaganda Furthermore since feature and editorial writings are within the scope of mass communication and journalism it became imperative for the book to touch on the ethical aspect of the profession aimed at providing students the barometer of knowing what to do and not what to do while writing feature and editorial pieces In its conclusive stage the book dealt with the impact of editorial on political actors as it relates to their involvement in the process of national development As you will come across in your reading mass communication and journalism are catalysts to agenda setting in any society therefore it is expected that stakeholders particularly those involved in the governance process of our countries in Africa to take clue from editorial articles especially those that advocate for positive change to propel them to respond to the developmental needs of Africa Now let s be practical and reflect on a simple analogy referencing a performance by a group of movie stars such as the late popular comedian Peter Ballah of Liberia Kekura Kamara with his popular movie Malawala Balawala of Liberia Salla Kamara with his movie Blood Diamond of Sierra Leone Mr Ibu John Okafor with the show Mr Ebu and his son of Nigeria or John Dumelo with the movie the tie that binds of Ghana As these movie stars are performing in their movies the viewers are fascinated with emotion amusement and are thrilled by the performances while in their seats in the theatre movie hall or in their various homes Just as the emotion of viewers is intrigued by the performances or movies so feature and editorial write ups are replica to evoking the emotion of the readers The articles must create a scenario of curiosity to arouse or entice the readers This is the drama in feature and editorial writing

Encyclopedia of Communication Theory Stephen W. Littlejohn, Karen A. Foss, 2009-08-18 The Encyclopedia of Communication Theory provides students and researchers with a comprehensive two volume overview of contemporary communication theory Reference librarians report that students frequently approach them seeking a source that will provide them with a quick overview of a particular theory or theorist just enough to help them grasp the general concept or theory and its relation to the discipline as a whole Communication scholars and teachers also occasionally need a quick reference for theories Edited by the co authors of the best selling textbook on communication theory and drawing on the expertise of an advisory board of 10 international scholars and nearly 200 contributors from 10 countries this work finally provides such a resource More than 300 entries address topics related not only to paradigms traditions and schools but also metatheory methodology inquiry and applications and contexts Entries cover several orientations including psycho cognitive social interactional cybernetic and systems cultural critical feminist philosophical rhetorical semiotic linguistic and discursive and non Western Concepts relate to interpersonal communication groups and organizations and media and mass communication In sum this encyclopedia offers the student of communication a sense of the history development and current status of the discipline with an emphasis on the theories that comprise it

Political Communication in Britain Dominic Wring, Roger Mortimore, Simon Atkinson, 2021-12-01 Political Communication in Britain offers unique insights from various members of the party media and polling organizations that contested reported and analysed the 2019 British General Election as well as leading academic experts who have researched the campaign Following an essay by Sir John Curtice exploring how the critical issue of Brexit influenced the election the opening part of this volume features insiders discussing their respective parties operations including their successes and disappointments This section also includes expert examinations of Boris Johnson s oven ready deal as well as the digital advertising and controversial public relations efforts that helped promote it The middle part of the book considers the media with chapters from the BBC Sky News and regulator Ofcom along with analyses of the pro Conservative press digital only platforms and the more left leaning alternative news sites The closing section of the volume turns to public attitudes with experts including leading pollsters exploring how these contributed to the Conservatives victory Dedicated chapters also place opinion research in broader context through examining the historical role of the exit poll and the changing reception and reporting of polls both online and in print Political Communication in Britain provides readers with an indispensable guide to the 2019 General Election from several of those most intimately involved in the campaign

EBOOK: Citizens or Consumers: What the Media Tell us about Political Participation Justin Lewis, Sanna Inthorn, Karin Wahl-Jorgensen, 2005-09-16 In this superb account of how the British and American news media represent everyday citizens and public opinion the authors show how coverage of politics and policy debates subtly even inadvertently urge people to see themselves as and thus to be politically passive disengaged and cynical The books analysis of how journalists misrepresent even invent public opinion is alone worth the price of admission Written with great verve passion and unswerving clarity Citizens or Consumers promises to become an instant classic in the study of the failings and the still untapped promise of the news media to further democracy Susan J Douglas Catherine Neafie Kellogg Professor and Chair Department of Communication Studies The University of Michigan Based on an exhaustive cross Atlantic empirical study Citizens or Consumers is an engaging and incisive contribution to a subject usually restricted to clichés and vague generalizations Looking not only at how media impact upon their audiences but the manner in which that influence is mediated by the way in which citizenship itself is represented in news stories Lewis et al offer us unusual and keen insight into a familiar world Written in an engaging and lively style first year students and experienced faculty members as well as general readers will benefit from its many perceptive insights Especially useful are the last few pages which suggest how journalists might alter their representation practices to invoke citizenship rather than passive consumerism

Sut Jhally Professor of Communication University of Massachusetts at Amherst Founder Executive Director Media Education Foundation The two great duelists for our attention citizens and consumers are locked in a struggle for the future of democracy Citizens or Consumers offers its readers a sharp lesson in how the media highlight and distort that struggle It is the kind of lesson we all need Toby Miller author of Cultural Citizenship In recent years there has been much concern about the general decline in civic participation in both Britain and the United States especially among young people At the same time we have seen declining budgets for serious domestic and international news and current affairs amidst widespread accusations of a dumbing down in the coverage of public affairs This book enters the debate by asking whether the news media have played a role in producing a passive citizenry And if so what might be done about it Based on the largest study of the media coverage of public opinion and citizenship in Britain and the United States this book argues that while most of us learn about politics and public affairs from the news media we rarely see or read about examples of an active engaged citizenry Key reading for students in media and cultural studies politics and journalism studies Journalism Stuart

Allan, 2005-01-16 This book can be recommended to journalism students as a useful entry point into many of the debates surrounding 21st century journalism and as a way of encouraging thought about what indeed a journalist may be Tony Harcup University of Sheffield What are the key issues confronting journalism today and why What are the important debates regarding the forms and practices of reporting How can the quality of news be improved Journalism Critical Issues explores essential themes in news and journalism studies It brings together an exciting selection of original essays which engage with the most significant topics debates and controversies in this fast growing field Using a wide range of case studies topics include Journalism's role in a democracy Source dynamics in news production Journalism ethics Sexism and racism in the news Tabloidization scandals and celebrity Reporting conflict terrorism and war The future of investigative journalism The book is written in a lively manner designed to invite discussion by identifying key questions around a critical issue Each chapter assesses where journalism is today its strengths and its challenges and highlights ways to improve upon it for tomorrow Journalism Critical Issues is essential reading for students and researchers in the fields of news and journalism media studies cultural studies sociology and communication studies Contributors Stuart Allan Alison Anderson Olga Guedes Bailey Steven Barnett Oliver Boyd Barrett Michael Bromley Cynthia Carter Simon Cottle Chas Critcher Matthew David Mire Messenger Davies Bob Franklin Robert A Hackett Ramaswami Harindranath Ian Hutchby Richard Keeble Justin Lewis Minelle Mahtani P David Marshall Brian McNair Martin Montgomery Alan Petersen Susanna Hornig Priest Jane Rhodes Karen Ross David Rowe Prasun Sonwalkar Linda Steiner Howard Tumber Ingrid Volkmer Karin Wahl Jorgensen Barbie Zelizer

African Studies: Breakthroughs in Research and Practice Management Association, Information Resources, 2020-04-03 Global interest in African studies has been rapidly growing as researchers realize the importance of understanding the impact African communities can have on the economy development education and more As the use acceptance and popularity of African knowledge increases it is crucial to explore how this community based knowledge provides deeper insights understanding and influence on such things as decision making and problem solving African Studies Breakthroughs in Research and Practice examines the politics culture language history socio economic development methodologies and contemporary experiences of African peoples from around the world Highlighting a range of topics such as indigenous knowledge developing countries and public administration this publication is an ideal reference source for sociologists policymakers anthropologists government officials economists instructors researchers academicians and graduate level students in a variety of fields Media And Their Publics Higgins, Michael, 2008-09-01 The public is so central to discussions of the role of broadcasting in civil society that it often passes without comment This work offers a critical insight into this key component of media policy and practice It covers areas such as techniques of political interview and political discussion programmes Routledge Handbook of Comparative Policy Analysis Marleen Brans, Iris Geva-May, Michael Howlett, 2017-04-28 This Handbook presents the first comprehensive study of policy analytical practices in comparative perspective It explores emerging developments and innovations in the field and advances knowledge of the nature and quality of policy analysis across different countries and at different levels of government by all relevant actors both inside and outside government who contribute to the diagnosis of problems and the search for policy solutions Handbook chapters examine all aspects of the science art and craft of policy analysis They do so both at the often studied national level and also at the less well known level of sub national and local governments In addition to studying governments the Handbook also examines for the first time the practices and policy work of a range of non governmental actors including think tanks interest groups business actors labour groups media political parties and non profits Bringing together a rich collection of cases and a renowned group of scholars the Handbook constitutes a landmark study in the field

The Interplay of Civic Engagement and Institutionalised Politics Adalbert Evers,Johan von Essen,2024-06-28 This volume focusses on the interplay of civic engagement and institutionalised politics and its role in both the erosion and retrieval of intermediate capabilities and procedures Rather than discussing democracy as a relationship between citizens as individual voters and state power the book studies the relationship between citizens engaged in or through organisations movements and networks in civil society and their impact in the context of institutionalised politics be that through representative institutions and political parties or participation in administrative governance The aim of this volume is to renew the scholarly discussion on the prospects of liberal democracy by looking for opportunities to curb antagonisms and instead strengthen intermediary capabilities The book will therefore be of interest to students in relevant disciplines as political science civil society research sociology and research on social movements Chapter 1 and Chapter 10 are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International License via link springer.com

Handbook of Human Mobility and Migration Ettore Recchi,Mirna Safi,2024-01-18 While mobility trajectories and experiences are key in migrants lives they are relatively neglected in the field of migration studies Using mobility as a unique angle of approach the Handbook of Human Mobility and Migration is a pioneering assessment of the theoretical concerns empirical questions and issues of governance surrounding international mobility and migration today

The Uncertainty Doctrine Alexandra Homolar,2023-09-14 The post Cold War era is often seen as a missed opportunity of epic proportions for the United States to turn swords into ploughshares with much of the blame placed on international developments The Uncertainty Doctrine challenges the conventional take on post Cold War history as imposed on the US by events largely outside its control It shows in rich empirical detail how America s peace dividend did not merely fall by the wayside but was actively undermined by the narrative contests over the security implications of the New World Order Committed to understanding the ontological significance of narrative in inter national security Alexandra Homolar demonstrates that political agents have the capacity to respond to a systemic shock through discursive adaptation and reorganization While narrative politics may not always matter in US defense policy at moments perceived as bifurcation points it can be decisive in why some strategic responses prevail over possible alternatives

The

Biotechnology Debate Bernice Bovenkerk, 2012-01-05 This book grounds deliberative democratic theory in a more refined understanding of deliberative practice in particular when dealing with intractable moral disagreement regarding novel technologies While there is an ongoing vibrant debate about the theoretical merits of deliberative democracy on the one hand and more recently empirical studies of specific deliberative exercises have been carried out these two discussions fail to speak to one another Debates about animal and plant biotechnology are examined as a paradigmatic case for intractable disagreement in today's pluralistic societies This examination reveals that the disagreements in this debate are multi faceted and multi dimensional and can often be traced to fundamental disagreements about values or worldviews One of the acute insights to emerge from this examination is that deliberation can serve different purposes vis vis different types of problem In the case of deeply unstructured problems like the modern biotechnology debate the aim of inclusion is more appropriate than the aim of consensus This book highlights the importance of political culture and broader institutional settings in shaping the capacity and propensity of citizens to engage in deliberation and the degree to which governments are prepared to relinquish authority to deliberative mini publics Robyn Eckersley University of Melbourne Australia

International Perspectives on Punitivity Helmut Kury, Theodore N. Ferdinand, 2008

Media Audiences John L. Sullivan, 2019-07-24 Whether we are watching TV surfing the Internet listening to our iPods or reading a novel we all engage with media as an audience Despite the widespread use of this term in our popular culture the meaning of the audience is complex and it has undergone significant historical shifts as new forms of mediated communication have developed from print telegraphy and radio to film television and the Internet John L Sullivan's second edition of Media Audiences Effects Users Institutions and Power explores the concept of media audiences from four broad perspectives as victims of mass media as market constructions commodities as users of media and as producers subcultures of mass media The goal is for students to be able to think critically about the role and status of media audiences in contemporary society reflecting on their relative power in relation to institutional media producers

The Rise of the Tea Party Anthony DiMaggio, 2012-11-01 What to make of the Tea Party To some it is a grassroots movement aiming to reclaim an out of touch government for the people To others it is a proto fascist organization of the misinformed and manipulated lower middle class Either way it is surely one of the most significant forms of reaction in the age of Obama In this definitive socio political analysis of the Tea Party Anthony DiMaggio examines the Tea Party phenomenon using a vast array of primary and secondary sources as well as first hand observation He traces the history of the Tea Party and analyzes its organizational structure membership ideological coherence and relationship to the mass media And perhaps most importantly he asks is it really a movement or just a form of manufactured dissent engineered by capital DiMaggio's conclusions are thoroughly documented surprising and bring much needed clarity to a highly controversial subject

Tough on Crime Michelle Bonner, 2019-09-06 Crime and insecurity are top public policy concerns in Latin America. Political leaders offer tough on crime solutions that include increased policing and punishments and decreased civilian oversight. These solutions while apparently supported by public opinion sit in opposition to both criminological research on crime control and human rights commitments. Moreover many political and civil society actors disagree with such rhetoric and policies. In Tough on Crime Bonner explores why some voices and some constructions of public opinion come to dominate public debate. Drawing on a comparative analysis of Argentina and Chile based on over 190 in depth interviews and engaging the Euro American literature on punitive populism this book argues that a neoliberal media system and the resulting everyday practices used by journalists state and civil actors are central to explaining the dominance of tough on crime discourse.
